John Brosnan, who runs one of the best ranches in the Lena country, was in Heppner for a short time on Wednesday.

Mrs. G. Franzen, accompanied by two little daughters, went to Portland on Monday for a visit of a couple of weeks with friends and relatives in the city.

H. A. Edmonds who farms near Morgan, was a visitor in Heppner for a couple of days the first of the week, having some matters to look after in court.

County Agent Hunt departed on Sunday for Corvallis to attend Farmers' Week at O. A. C. Oscar Keithley and R. W. Turner also expect to attend from this county.

FOR SALE—18 head of mules, 1 to 5 years, 10 head broke; also team of horses, matched blacks, age 7 years, weight 1500 pounds. J. H. HARRISON, Top, Oregon.

John Stout, who was recently operated on at the Moore hospital in this city for appendicitis, has so far recovered that he was able to return to his home yesterday.

George Thomson and family departed the last of the week for Fort Collins, Colorado, where they will spend a few weeks visiting at the home of the parents of Mrs. Thomson.

Gus Williamson writes us from Butter creek that he is off for the mountains with the Wilesworth sheep for the summer, and that he will be located in the vicinity of Austin.

FOR SALE—1 14-foot McCormick header, 2 header boxes, 1 10-foot Clark cutaway disc, 3 sets of harness, 6 collars, 1 3-section Jones weeder. O. E. ADKINS, Eight Mile, Ore.

J. S. Beckwith, court reporter, was over from Pendleton for a day in court on Monday. He returned home on Tuesday, there being no further need of his services at the present term.

Chas. Chick, who has been attending school at Moscow, Idaho for the past year, returned home on Monday to spend the summer vacation with his parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Chick.

W. H. Inatone was in from Lena on Monday, being called to the county seat on jury duty. Grain and hay in his section is coming along very fine and range conditions were never better.

Geo. R. White was here from Lexington on Monday to attend court as a juror. As court was of short duration he was able to return home promptly and look after harvest preparations.

Born—At the maternity home of Mrs. G. C. Aiken in this city on Wednesday, June 15, 1921, to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Rhea, a 10 1/4 pound daughter. Dr. McMurdo reports the mother and babe as doing well.

Miss Mabel Riding of Lexington was operated on during the past week for appendicitis by Dr. C. C. Chick at the Moore hospital in this city. The doctor reports that his patient is now getting along well.

Homer I. Watts, an attorney of Athena, drove over to Heppner on Sunday to be in attendance at court on Monday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Watts and while in the city they were guests at Hotel Patrick.

W. P. Mahoney, cashier of the First National Bank of Heppner, J. J. Kelly, Guy Boyer and Wm. McKinley, prominent stockmen of the Heppner country were in Canyon City the first of the week—Blue Mountain Eagle.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. White of John Day, accompanied by Mrs. L. F. Reising of Ritter, spent the week-end with Mrs. Emmet Cochran. They will attend the meeting of the Grand Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Matlock and baby and Miss Nettie Giles spent the past week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Cochran in this city. Mrs. Matlock and sister are on their way to Canada to visit with their parents.

Grant Olden was in town yesterday from his farm in the Fairview country. He is now making preparations to begin harvest and will have a fine yield of grain. All that part of the county is coming to the front in fine shape and will produce one of the biggest yields in its history, so thinks Mr. Olden.

A. E. Heilker of Hillsdale, Mich., is here visiting with his brother, E. C. Mr. Heilker is very much impressed with what he has seen of this section, our magnificent fields of grain and salubrious climate making a strong appeal to him. He will visit here for a time and may ultimately locate permanently.—Iona Independent.

Rev. H. F. Pemberton, district superintendent of the M. E. church, will arrive from The Dalles on next Sunday afternoon, and on Sunday evening he will occupy the pulpit at the Federated church at 8:00 o'clock. All are cordially invited to come and hear him. Morning services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. E. L. Moore.

Art Cogswell, while harrowing late on his ranch near Iona last Wednesday, suffered a broken left leg when the harrow was overturned by striking an obstruction and falling upon him. The break is in the knee joint and was set by Dr. Walker, who has hopes of it mending without leaving the joint becoming stiff.—Iona Independent.

A. J. Chaffee and Forby Grenba returned Monday from a trip over into Washington. The former visited at Pasco while the latter visited with his people at Washtuckna. They found crop conditions good in that part of Washington. Mr. Grenba is now back on the job at the First National Bank after his enjoyable vacation.

According to an item appearing in the Shoshoni, Wyoming, Enterprise, of a recent date, C. L. Woodard, formerly of this county, has made a fortunate investment in an oil proposition in the Cat Creek field in Montana, and his monthly returns will amount to several hundred dollars, as the well is a producer of 700 barrels per day.

The Frank Turner shearing crew finished up their work in this section the first of the week. A number of the crew are figuring on leaving for Montana where they will continue the work until the close of the season out there. Mr. Turner contemplates going to Monument and help with the Swick shearing plant for a short time.

Judge Gilbert W. Phelps came over from Pendleton on Sunday and held a few days of court the first of the week. There were a great many cases on the docket and many of these were rapidly disposed of as the docket was called, and a number of others were not at issue, hence it did not take long to finish up the business for the present term.

Alex Brander, accompanied by his brother, George, returned to Heppner the last of the week from a visit of seven months, spent at his old home at Huntly, Scotland. He is glad to be back at Heppner again and states that conditions here are much better at the present time than they are in the British Isles. His brother George expects to locate here permanently.

Victor and Elmer Peterson were in from the Eight Mile farm Wednesday. Their father, Aaron Peterson, who has not been well for the past month or so, was taken to Portland on Sunday last and will receive treatment in a sanitarium there. Word just received from him indicates that he is already beginning to improve and within a short time should be fully restored to health.

Andrew Hood left Monday morning for Pendleton and will attend the meeting of the Grand Army veterans in that city this week. The state convention of the G. A. R. is in session there.

Mr. Leander David and Miss Alma M. Couberly were united in marriage at St. John's Presbyterian church in Berkeley, Calif., on May 17, 1921, according to announcements received by friends in this city. Mr. David was formerly a resident of Heppner and is a graduate of the Heppner high school. His home has been at Berkeley for several years past, where he has finished his college course and is now a member of the faculty of the University of California. His many friends here extend congratulations.

The crew of the sub-contractors on the Heppner-Jones Hill unit moved in on Hutton creek Tuesday and the work of grading will be started at once. Work is going right along on the Lexington unit and it is understood that there will be other camps established on these units and dirt will be flying at a lively rate in the next couple of weeks. Some 3000 yards of grading has been completed near Lexington and it should not take a great while to complete the work on this unit. The outfits are well equipped with men, teams and machinery to rush the work.

R. A. Amy, farm machinery man with headquarters at The Dalles, was in Heppner yesterday. Mr. Amy travels a great deal over the wheat producing sections of Eastern Oregon and Eastern Washington, and he states there has not been so good prospects for bumper crops in years. He believes the Morrow county crop will exceed the yield of 1916, and with a fairly good price assured our farmers are going to recover very rapidly.

Emmett Smith and Art Keene have taken their sheep to the mountain range in the vicinity of Parkers Mill where the grass is good. They hope to make arrangements for getting the sheep in on the reserve. Emmett says they are bound to be in the sheep game for some time to come as they are not able to dispose of either the wool or increase. However, he is looking for this condition of affairs to change before long and hopes for better things for the sheep man.

FOR SALE—One 32-inch separator—Humble Advance Ideal, with feeder. Been run one short season and is in good shape. Will sell at a heavy sacrifice. J. W. WILDENAK, Heppner, 1m.

Lower Farm Implement Prices

THE BREAK HAS COME. FOR some time prices paid for your farm products have been low. It is but natural for you to want lower prices on the farm implements used in producing your crops.

Announcement is made by the Oliver Chilled Plow Works of a general price reduction in their lines that brings prices to the basis of 1918. They are first to make this reduction and are taking the loss that the move brings—for there has been little reduction in labor or material—as their contribution in hastening a return to normal conditions.
