"NOW-A-DAYS"

says the Good Judge

A man can get a heap more satisfaction from a small chew of this class of tobacco, than he ever could get from a big chew of the old kind. He finds it costs less, too. The good tobacco taste lasts so much longer he doesn't need to have a fresh chew nearly as often.

Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

DENIES LEGITIMACY OF OWN CHILD TO KEEP IT

Can the tenderness and care of mother love offset the brand of illegitimacy in the moment of little time Del Secco of San Francisco when he grows to be a man? His father, Julian Del Secco, has sued for the custody of the child. His mother, shown here with him, denies that Julian is the child's father. It is a human interest question that has the whole West watching the court to see what decision will be handed down.

New Faces to be Seen In Fairbanks Picture

MANY NOTABLE PLAYERS NEVER BEFORE SEEN IN A FAIRBANKS PICTURE TO BE IN SUPPORT OF "DOUG" IN "WHEN THE CLOUDS ROLL BY"

One of the principal points of interest about the next Douglas Fairbanks' production, "When the Clouds Roll By," which will be released by United Artists, and which will be shown at the Star theater on Friday, is the exceptionally strong cast that will play in support of the star.

When the story was originally written by Mr. Fairbanks he realized that there would have to be a number of changes in his company

GREAT EDITOR TO GOVERN ALASKA

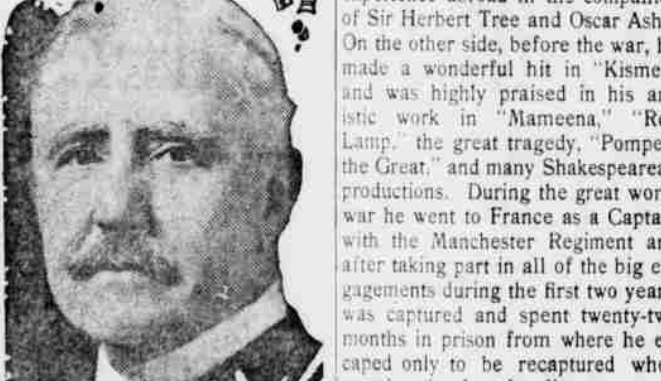

HON. SCOTT C. BONE

Washington.—One of the most popular and efficient appointments yet made by the new administration, is that of Scott C. Bone, who has just been nominated by President Harding, as governor of Alaska. Mr. Bone, who is one of the best known of American newspaper editors, was publicity manager of the Republican national committee last year. Previously, as editor of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, he gave careful attention and study to Alaskan matters and it is expected that he will make a strong governor from the very start.

Mr. Bone has large experience with the problems of news print paper, and inasmuch as Alaska is a future great field for paper pulp, there is no doubt that he goes to Alaska with this matter very much in mind. Which is a case of expert efficiency in the right place. Mr. Bone will leave very shortly for the great territory he is to govern.

STILL SAWING WOOD AT 101

Keep on sawing wood and forget your age is the living advice of James A. Rocheford who is shown here celebrating his 101st birthday at the old buck saw. The picture was taken at his home in Brighton, Mass., last week. His wife, 84 years old, assisted him to make merry. He says a little exercise after passing 100 years is just as enjoyable as before reaching the century mark and to this practice he attributes his joy in life.

SMILE AWHILE

AS CLEAR AS MUD

The man had just informed the Pullman agent that he wanted a Pullman berth.

"Upper or lower?" asked the agent.

"What's the difference?" asked the man.

"A difference of fifty cents in this case," replied the agent. "The lower is higher than the upper. The higher price is for the lower. If you want it lower you will have to go higher. We sell the upper lower than the lower. In other words, the higher the lower. Most people don't like the upper, although it is lower on account of it being higher. When you occupy an upper you have to get down when you get up. You can have the lower if you pay higher. The upper is lower than the lower because it is higher. If you are willing to go higher, it will be lower." But the poor man had fainted!

LIME FROM STATE PLANT CAN BE HAD BY JUNE 30

Agricultural lime from the state lime plant at Gold Hill is expected for distribution soon after the middle of June, when the plant starts operations.

Prices have not been accurately determined but will be based on cost of production. The state lime board now thinks the figures will run from $4 to $4.50 a ton in car lots, f. o. b. Gold Hill.

The reopening of the plant was delayed by the death of Benton Bowers, chairman of the board. The vacancy will be filled by appointment by Governor Ben W. Olcott. The appointment of C. W. Courtney as superintendent is announced by A. B. Cordley, secretary of the board and dean of agriculture at O. A. C.

Farmers who need agricultural lime in car lots may place their orders with Dean Cordley, secretary, at Corvallis. Farmers needing less than a car lot may club their orders with other farmers of the district and order cooperatively. All orders require cash in advance.

UNCLE JOHN'S JOKE

JUDGE GARY IS ALWAYS FAITHFUL TO HIS TRUST

There were exclamations loud and deep from the occupants of the car, but all piled out and made their way to cars ahead. The smile on the young man's face increased as he took possession of a seat and appropriated another for his luggage.

"Ah," he murmured, "it's a grand thing to be born clever! Now I wish they'd start."

By and by the stationmaster put his head in the door: "Are you the smart young man who said this car wasn't going?"

"Yes," said the clever one, smiling.

"Well," said the stationmaster, with a grin also, "it isn't. The brakeman heard what you said, and he uncoupled it. He thought you were a director."—Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.

NOT POSSIBLE

When a lady who was "burning up the road" on the boulevard was overtaken by a traffic officer and motioned to stop, she indignantly asked: "What do you want with me?"

"You were running forty miles an hour," answered the officer.

"Forty miles an hour? Why, officer, I haven't been out an hour," said the lady.

"Go ahead," said the officer, "That is a new one on me."—Pittsburg Dispatch.

FEMINE ACCOUNTING

"My wife made out an itemized expense account for last month," said Mr. Dubwaite.

"Could you learn from her statement just what she bought?"

"No. Most of her purchases were listed as 'Etc.'"—Birmingham Age-Herald.

RECALLS THE PAST

"You will have to rewrite this scenario," said the movie producer. "You make the leading character a waitress and our five-thousand-dollar-a-week star refuses to play."

"Why?" asked the playwright.

"She used to be one."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

A JOKE THAT RECOILED

A young man was walking up and down the platform of a country railroad junction in England trying to see a car that had a vacant seat. He

JAZZ EFFECT

"I like your jazz orchestra," said the proprietor of the beanyery.

"Huh?"

A TRIUMPH OF TRUTH

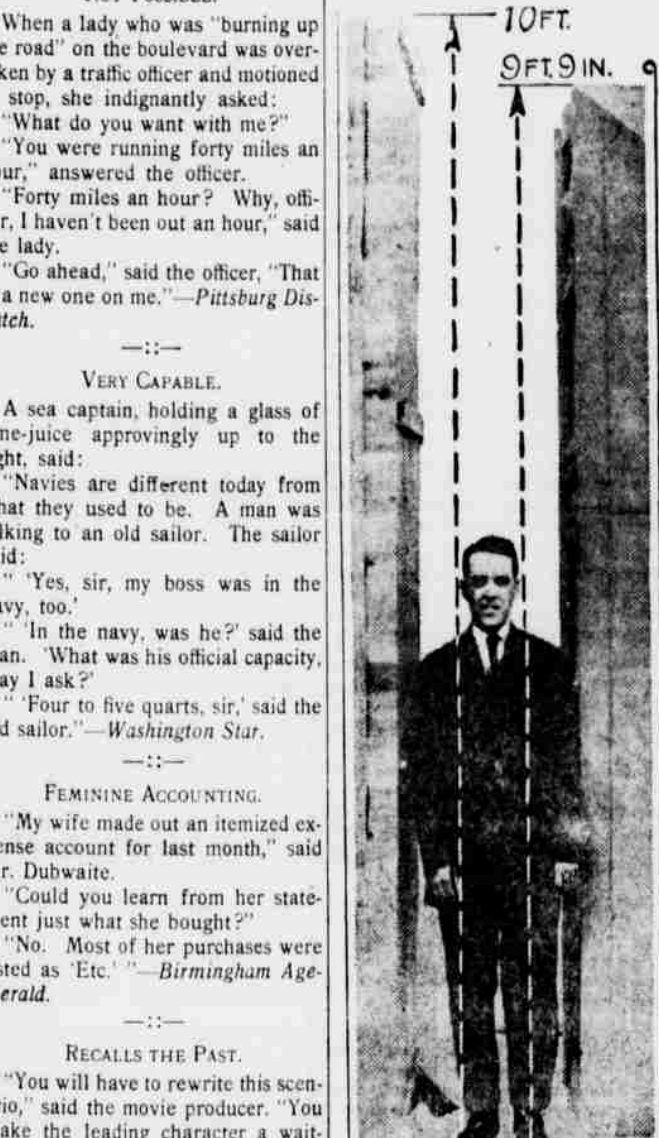

A merchant had advertised for a boy. Late in the afternoon a red-headed, freckle-faced blue eyed, honest looking boy applied for the job.

"Do you like to work?" asked the merchant.

"No, sir," replied the boy.

"Then you can have the job," replied the merchant. "You are the first boy who's been here today who didn't lie about it and say yes."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

TEN FOOT COFFIN FOR TALLEST MAN

When Bernard Coyne, 18 years old of Anthon, Ia., died the other day it marked the passing of the tallest man in the world. He was 8 feet, 2 inches tall. For his burial at Dubuque, Ia., it was necessary for a casket company to make a special coffin, the largest ever built. Casket and box—shown here as compared to average man—measured 9 feet 9 inches; and 10 feet respectively.

VERY CAPABLE

A sea captain, holding a glass of lime-juice approvingly up to the light, said:

"Navies are different today from what they used to be. A man was talking to an old sailor. The sailor said:

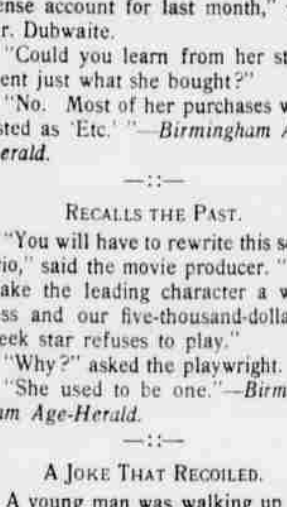

"Yes, sir, my boss was in the navy, too."

"In the navy, was he?" said the man. "What was his official capacity, may I ask?"

"Four to five quarts, sir," said the old sailor."—Washington Star.

EDITORIAL

A BIRD IN HAND IS BETTER THAN TWO BIRDS BY MAIL

WHEN you order a piece of goods by mail, you know nothing about the quality of the article delivered until it has been tested by use. Having been used and found wanting, you have to go to the trouble of sending it a long distance back for long-distance satisfaction, a very rare bird indeed.

Trade in a home store and you get quality. The local merchant must carry quality or his neighbors will not trade with him. And if there has been bad quality accidentally, it is only a step into his store to show him the error.

The merchants of our town have both quality and price. If you will only figure out the common sense of it, you will find that it is cheaper to trade at home in the long run, and the short run, too.
