The change in the proprietorship of the lone pharmacy, of which mention was made a couple of weeks ago, was consummated last Tuesday when W. E. Bullard of Goldendale, Wash., closed the deal with F. L. Christensen. Mr. Bullard comes highly recommended as a gentleman and pharmacist. He will be joined by his family as soon as a suitable residence can be secured. Mr. Christensen is not fairly decided as to his future plans, but he will remain here for a time enjoying a much needed rest and settling up his business affairs.—lone Independent.

Chas. Becket, who farms the old home place on Eight Mile, has several hundred acres of grain that is now doing well, and he looks forward to a fine yield providing nothing unforeseen happens. Spencer Akers raises fine strawberries on his lot at his residence in west Heppner, and he presented this paper with a box the other day that just 19 berries filled to overflowing, and the fruit was certainly delicious. The soil at Mr. Akers' place is sandy and just the right sort to produce fine strawberries, and if he had enough of the land he could certainly furnish Heppner with a finer class of the fruit than we are able to get from the outside.

You can easily put this water in, but we will gladly do it if you prefer. We are also equipped to recharge and repair batteries. We carry a complete line of Willard battery parts, rental batteries and Willard Threaded Rubber Batteries. Ask us how Willard Threaded Rubber Insulation puts an end to the separator replacement expense caused by warped, cracked, punctured and carbonized wood separators.

Lime Swick and George Strick, sleepers of Monument, arrived at Heppner Sunday with their slips of wool which they disposed of to W. W. Sneed getting a price of 15 cents per pound. Mr. Swick states that the ranch who is now fixing up the road over Sandflower flat is entitled to much praise for the splendid work he is doing. The road is being placed in good shape and should be fine for the rest of the season. Like many others of Northern Grant, Mr. Swick would be glad to see a good, permanent road built out from Heppner to Monument, and should this be accomplished it would be the means of bringing a fine trade to this city as it is the nearest railroad point for them. By delay in doing this, Heppner is losing out on a lot of trade that should come this way in the opinion of Mr. Swick, and we believe he is right about it.

F. A. McMenamin, accompanied by Wm. Hendrix, made a business trip over to Condon on Friday last, returning home by way of Post and Spray. He was greatly impressed with the interior country and having Mr. Hendrix with him, no points of interest were overlooked, as the latter gentleman has been very familiar with the entire country covered by Gilliam and Wheeler and Morrow counties for the past forty years, knows every oddler and every ranch, as well as every road and creek crossing. A new settlement is located on the mountain out this side of Spray, and tributary to Heppner when a decent road is made out there, and Mr. McMenamin was greatly surprised at the splendid showing these places are making notwithstanding the high altitude. There are wonderful possibilities for the future in this country and when the Fremont hydro-electric project is completed, the Spray and Post counties are brought in touch with it through the high-power lines, their future will be assured and great development will take place, and this will also be true regarding the lone county. McMenamin can't help but be an enthusiast for this project when he travels out over the country and sees what it will bring about.

Dr. and Mrs. Boyden, their two little daughters and Mrs. Mary Boyden, mother of Dr. Boyden, expect to leave Pendleton about the middle of July. Dr. Boyden will have offices with Dr. Kistner, in the Stevens building—Saturday's East Oregonian.

Many Poles Will Have to Be Moved.

Following to numerous changes being made in the road up Willow creek between Heppner and Lexington, Heppner Light & Water company will be compelled to move a large number of the poles along the highway supporting their high power line between this city and lone. Manager Al Ayers and a crew of men with the big truck and other implements went down the line Monday to look after this work. Mr. Ayers stated that he was puzzled to know just where to place some of the poles on account of the new road forcing them over on the right-of-way of the railroad company, and at other places it would be necessary to remove them to territory over which the county has no control just at present, and their franchise is from the county only. At all events, it is causing the company a lot of extra work just at this time.

Former Resident Seriously Injured.

According to reports published in the Portland papers the past week, A. D. Sackter, formerly a resident of this section and now located near Ajax in Gilliam county, where he is running a farm, was seriously injured by being run over by a truck. The report has it that there were three men in the truck at the time of the accident to Mr. Sackter, and they passed on out of sight and failed to render aid to the injured man or make themselves known, and it is not known yet who the parties were. We understand Mr. Sackter is in the hospital at Condon and very badly hurt.

THINK what would happen if the Light and Power Company which supplies your community with electricity suddenly ceased to operate! The motor-driven machinery in busy factories would come to a standstill. The many little power-driven contrivances which add to the convenience of your shop or home would be useless. Even the lights by which you work and play would be snuffed out. Yet the great service rendered by the Light and Power Company is too often forgotten. It has become so much a part of our everyday life that it is taken for granted. Only on the rare occasions when something goes wrong does the Light and Power Company receive even a passing thought; and that thought is perforce a damning one. In the light of actual facts, the Light and Power Company takes on an entirely different aspect. Its welfare and the welfare of the community as a whole are one and inseparable. The extent and character of the service it renders influences to a considerable degree the establishment of new industries. And the more widely that service is used, the cleaner and brighter the community will become, for electrical power is clean power.—Literary Digest. PAID ADV.
