FARM BUREAU NEWS
(From the Morrow County Farm Bureau News.)

Morrow County Gets Two Directors
At the annual meeting of the Oregon Co-operative Grain Growers, Morrow county succeeded in getting two out of eight directors. We are naturally feeling pretty good about this. We have one-fourth of the wheat signed up and we should have one-fourth of the directors but we were worried for fear we wouldn't get them. We claim that we have just as good men for directors in Morrow county as they have in any county in the state of Oregon. Mr. Herndon of Ione, and Mr. Howard

Anderson of Eight Mile have proven in the last two votes that they enjoy the full and absolute confidence of the farmers of the county. We believe that they merit it.
Heppner Farmer Buys Registered Calf
Ed Kellogg of Heppner has purchased a registered dairy sire from Fred Rieks of Irigton. This calf is from the registered herd which Mr. Rieks bought through the Farm Bureau shipment in Morrow county as they have in any county in the state of Oregon. Mr. Herndon of Ione, and Mr. Howard
