

Your Kitchen clean as a new pin

PEARL OIL

YOU can keep it that way when you use a good oil cookstove. No drudgery—no dirt. Just touch a match to the burner and you have clean intense cooking heat. To be sure of best results in your stove, use Pearl Oil—the uniform kerosene. Pearl Oil is clean burning and economical. It is refined and re-refined by a special process. Every drop is converted into real heat. Pearl Oil is for sale by dealers everywhere. Order by name—Pearl Oil.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California)

PEARL OIL
HEAT AND LIGHT

"Just Between You and Me" says the Good Judge

Here's genuine chewing satisfaction for you, hooked up with real economy. A small chew of this class of tobacco lasts much longer than a big chew of the ordinary kind—that's because the full, rich, real tobacco taste lasts so long. Any man who uses the Real Tobacco Chew will tell you that.

Put up in two styles

W-B CUT is a long fine-cut tobacco
RIGHT CUT is a short-cut tobacco

Weyman-Bruton Company, 1107 Broadway, New York City

NEW COMMANDERS OF AMERICAN LEGION

I hope only to carry out the aggressive policies launched by Col. Galbraith," said the new national commander, John T. Emery, of Grand Rapids, Mich., as he took command of American Legion affairs. He entered the world war as captain, was promoted to major, and, while leading the 1st Battalion of the 18th Infantry, was severely wounded by shell fire. Thomas J. Bannigan of Hartford, Conn., is the new National vice commander elected to place through the death of Col. Galbraith.

Every Allied Nation At Peace Except the U.S.

EACH MADE PACT WITH GERMANY IN 1919 WHILE THIS COUNTRY HELD BACK BY WILSON

Washington, June 28.—That the making of a separate peace with Germany two and a half years after the actual cessation of hostilities implies no abandonment of the allies of the United States is asserted by Chairman Stephen G. Porter, of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs. He says: "It is frequently asserted that by officially declaring the state of war at an end we are abandoning the Allies and our associates in the late war. This is a gross misstatement of fact. All the nations that signed the treaty of Versailles did so with full knowledge that it was not effective, so far as the United States was concerned, until ratified by the Senate; yet notwithstanding this knowledge, unmindful of their rescue by this country from defeat and possible vassalage, and with a total disregard for our rights in case the United States Senate failed to ratify the treaty, they made the following a part of the treaty: "A first process verbal of the deposit of ratification will be drawn up as soon as the treaty has been ratified by Germany, on the one hand, and by three of the principal allied and associated powers, on the other hand. From the date of this process verbal the treaty will come into force between the high contracting parties who have ratified it." "Under the provision any three of the principal allied and associated powers could make a separate peace with Germany and leave all the other nations in a state of war. They availed themselves of this privilege. The German National Assembly ratified the treaty on July 10, 1919; Great Britain on July 31, 1919; Italy on October 7, 1919; the Republic of

MONDELL DEFENDS HOUSE

Washington, June 28.—Representative Frank W. Mondell of Wyoming, majority leader in the House, resents the carefully cultivated Democrat attempt to spread the idea that the Republican Congress is not speeding enough. He says: "We were a few days late in getting started, owing to the fact that the minority did not have their committee places filled. Since that time by unanimous consent we have several times adjourned over Saturday. And may I suggest to the gentleman from Texas and to the other gentlemen on that side that if that is held to be killing time I shall not hereafter prefer any request for unanimous consent to adjourn over Saturday? Notwithstanding these adjournments, for which they have pleaded, we have worked more continuously and diligently and have passed more good legislation through the House in this session of Congress than in any like period during the twenty-five years I have been in Congress, and no one can deny that fact. We are progressing in a businesslike way and are disposing of many very important and pressing questions."

Uncle John's Josh

MAY HAVE TO FACE MRS. STILLMAN

Mrs. James A. Stillman, wife of the former president of the National City Bank, who is contesting her husband's suit for divorce on the ground of unfaithfulness and illegitimacy of the eighteen-month-old Guy Stillman, would have Flo Leeds, former Zeigfeld follies girl and "soul mate" of the banker brought into open court to face a cross-examination.

SMILE AWHILE

DIFFERENT VIEWPOINTS.
"How can any man be a woman hater?" asked Miss Old-girl. "Woman has kissable lips, lovable eyes, a hugable shape and holdable hands."
"Huh!" grunted Mr. Oldbatch.
"And she also has changeable hair, removable lips, adjustable eyebrows, colorable lips and a transferable complexion."—Cincinnati Enquirer.

NOT FOR HER.

At old dame at a railway station asked a porter where she could get her ticket. The man pointed in the direction of the ticket office. "You can get it there," he said, "through the pigeonhole."
"Get away with you, idiot!" she exclaimed. "How can I get through that little hole? I ain't no pigeon!"—Houston Post.

EDITORIAL GRAFT.

"Ho hum," sighed the editor of the Chiggersville Clarion as he glanced over a poem, pinched off the stamp enclosed for its return, if not available, and threw the manuscript into his waste basket.
"Aren't you going to send back that poem to the author?" asked the visitor who had dropped in for a little chat.
"Nope," said the editor. "I charge the stamp for reading it."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

TICKET GAMBLERS.

Two men were waiting for a train and one said: "I will ask you a question, if I cannot answer my own question, I will buy the tickets. Then you ask a question, and if you cannot answer your own, you buy the tickets."
The other agreed to this.
"Well," the first man said, "you see those rabbit holes? How do they dig those holes without leaving any dirt around them?"
The other confessed: "I don't know. That's your question so answer it yourself."
The first man winked and replied: "They begin at the bottom and dig up!"
"But," said the second man, "how do they get at the bottom to begin?"
"That's your question," was the first man's rejoinder. "Answer it yourself."
The other man bought the tickets.—Boston Post.

THE BAD SPEAKER.

The late E. C. Benedict, the noted financier and yachtsman, said one day at Indian Harbor:
"I am a very bad after-dinner speaker. In fact, I am such a bad after-dinner speaker that often, in the middle of a speech I think dismally of Judge Lyons of Tombstone."
Judge Lyons, of Tombstone, arose one evening to make a speech in the presence of a large audience. He spoke so badly that his audience melted away by degrees. At the end of an hour one old miner alone was

NEW GOVERNOR OF HAWAII

This is Wallace Rider Farrington, who has just been appointed governor of Hawaii by President Harding. Mr. Farrington was born in Maine and was a newspaperman before he went to the islands. There he has been editor of the Pacific Commercial Advertiser, and Honolulu Bulletin. He is now vice-president and general manager of the Honolulu Star-Bulletin.

Uncle John's Poem

RACIAL WARS

Since God, in His wisdom, created the entity known as "Man," the tribes have been co-related, the white, the black and the tan. . . No effort of segregation has proven to be success—and yet their amalgamation has furnished profound distress. In the struggle to be fittest, I need not mention the race, that since the dawn of creation, has taken the foremost place. . . Endowed with a God-like vision, to compass the land and sea, what soul would repel his decision to make all mankind free?
But, jealousy, envy, hatred,—these are the devil's tools, to strike the heart of angels,—to rage in the brain of fools. . . When you sharpen the spear of malice with the grind of a beastly lust, you are growing fruit for the gallows, as racial antipathy must. Let man, regardless of color, remember his fated place. . . For God respects no persons, not even a color or race. . . and when every man does his duty, as all of God's children can, the soul will abound in beauty, and God will take care of man.

left.
"The old miner yawned and reached down for his hat at last, but he was horrified to see Judge Lyons draw a six-shooter from his hip-pocket and lay it on the desk before him.
The old miner sat up. He fingered his hat nervously. At length, he interrupted Judge Lyons's turgid flood of oratory and said:
"Be ye g'wine ter shoot ef I go?"
"Such, friend, is my intention," said Judge Lyons grimly. "I am bound to finish my oration, even if I have to shoot to keep an audience."
The old miner heaved a deep sigh. Then he rose and started for the door, at the same time saying

OF COURSE NOT.

A resident of the rural districts Louis by name, brought a load of hogs to the local stockyards and they were sold by Ben, another native of the faherland. Later in the day Louis was digesting the account of the sale, when Ben approached and inquired:
"Louie, did your hogs weigh as much as you thought they would?"
Louie replied: "No, they didn't, but I didn't think they would."—Indianapolis News.

Editorial

HOME TRADE ON EVE OF VICTORY; PEOPLE NOT FOOLED FOREVER.

BE LINCOLN said: "You can't fool the people all the time."
The mail order houses fooled the people for a long time and made hundreds of millions of dollars profit by it. But the wisest among woke up, with the result that the mail order business is now going down hill so fast that the rich gentlemen behind such concerns are wild with alarm. They are frantically adopting new tactics in order to "fool some of the people" for some more of the time. But their end is near.
It is a great victory for home trade! Hurrah!
But in the day of victory let those of us who sell dedicate ourselves to BETTER and GREATER SERVICE to the public of this community who buy. The people who once depended on the ever-present catalogue will want something in place of it. They will want the attraction of picture, description and price, placed before their eyes in the most attractive and easiest form. The world knows that this means advertising—advertising in the newspapers that the people read.
This newspaper not only offers its advertising columns to every person in this community that has something worth while to sell, but it offers every one the liveliest co-operation to the end that your buyers—our neighbors—shall be served to the utmost, to the last word.

GOING! GOING! —

TRADE AT HOME TRADE AT HOME

SAVING TIME and STEPS

Did you ever figure how many steps and how much time it takes to settle the monthly bills?

A great many people have solved this problem by paying their accounts by check, through the mail, thereby not only saving time and effort, but being assured of a receipt for every bill.

FARMERS & STOCKGROWERS NATIONAL BANK
Heppner Oregon

HOME SWEET HOME
E. PARKS

YOU OUGHTA BE ASHAMED TO BE SO DIRTY!

YOU CAN'T GO RIDING WITH US LIKE THAT!!

I WISH NOW I HAD LET BOBBY COME! HE'S PROBABLY CRYING AT HOME.

YELLOWSTONE NATIONAL PARK

The World's Greatest Playground and Museum of Natural Wonders

Magnificent hotels and commodious camps; 300 miles of improved highways; all in the midst of matchless scenery. Its hotels are marvelous establishments. Its camps are pretty little tent villages, models of cleanliness, sanitation, order, comfort and simple, informal living. An ideal place for vacation pleasures. Send for our beautifully illustrated booklet telling all about its wonders in word and picture.

THROUGH SLEEPING CAR
Operated DAILY during the season between Portland and West Yellowstone by the UNION PACIFIC SYSTEM
Commencing Saturday, June 18, leaving Portland 5 p. m.

Our local agents will be glad to explain the various tours which enable visitors to see the Yellowstone so comfortably and at a minimum cost; also to quote fares, prepare your itinerary and make your reservations. Call on or address WM. McMURRAY, Gen. Passenger Agt., Portland, Oregon.

C. DARBEE, Agent, Heppner

