

Ye Olde New England Choir
Boston Artists Sing Puritan Songs.

The Chautauqua this year will be opened by Frederick L. Perry's Old New England Choir of Boston. This company of singers gives a beautiful pageant of American music from the landing of the Pilgrims down to modern times. Each period is illustrated by songs of that time and the members of the company appear in the costume then in vogue.

There is no other organization in America giving a concert of the same nature and Ye Olde New England Choir has taken its place as another of the famous musical organizations originating in Boston.

There are some very amusing and very interesting songs used as the Choir seeks to present a true history of the music of the time rather than a "highbrow" concert. Thus one of the songs of the Puritan period (1600) is entitled "Tobacco's but an Indian Weed" and "Stop Poor Sinner." In the Colonial Period (1700) the Choir sings "There was a Maid," "Ye Olde Minuet" and "The Sword of Bunker Hill." During Abolition times (1800) "Nellie Gray" and "Cousin Jedidah" were popular.

Mr. Perry is a genuine artist and the programs to be presented by "Ye Olde New England Choir" promise to start Chautauqua in more popular fashion than ever before.

Cecil Items of Interest

Miss Ester Logan of Four Mile was a Cecil visitor on Tuesday.

G. H. Gorton of Morgan was visiting at the home of H. J. Streeter on Saturday.

Mrs. J. E. Crabtree and children of Dethboys Hill were calling in Cecil on Wednesday.

Mrs. R. Garlick and Mrs. H. Ayres of Tentville were calling in Arlington on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. McFadden of Eight Mile were calling on their Cecil friends on Saturday.

J. M. Melton and son Ed of The Lookout spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Miller of Highview.

Mrs. Conrad Knipfel and children of Morgan spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Myers at Rockcliffe.

Mr. and Mrs. Lights and children of Four Mile were visiting at the home of H. J. Streeter on Thursday.

Mrs. Jack Hynd who has been spending a few days at Hynd Bros. ranch in Sand Hollow returned to Cecil on Friday.

Clifford Henriksen left on the local on Wednesday for Oakland, Ore. where he will visit his old pals for a few days.

J. D. Kropp of Tentville who has been on a business trip to Portland for the past week returned to Cecil on Friday.

John Krebs of The Last Camp and Herb Hynd of Buttery Flats were doing business in Arlington on Wednesday.

Misses A. C. and V. M. Hynd of Buttery Flats were the guests of Mrs. A. Henriksen at Willow Creek ranch numerous ranches. Owner of hat lying out a thousand miles from Cecil is supposed to tie his hat on securely before leaving with his best girl or leave his hat at home where it will tell no tales. "Constable John" has failed to locate the missing hat, but looked home wearing a lady's huge sun hat bedecked with ribbons and flowers of all colors and seemingly unconscious of the fact till some one called his attention to it. Our sympathies are extended to "Constable John" as we have since heard that his young lady indignantly refused his offer of marriage, hence the beribboned hat worn unconsciously.

D. C. Gurdane, who went to Portland a couple of weeks ago for medical treatment, is reported to be getting along all right at present. Bersi went down Saturday to be with his father, who was in a very serious condition for a few days.

Star Theater

SATURDAY, JULY 9
ROBERTSON-COLE presents
"THE STEALERS"
Woven by the hand of a Master into a picture with a heart and soul
A drama so tense, powerful and realistic that it is impossible to erase its story from your memory. The lesson of Faith and its dynamic virility is wonderfully illustrated in this masterpiece of the silver sheet. Man loses Faith and suffers through his own crimes. Faith is restored and he lives again.

SUNDAY, JULY 10
REX BEACH'S
Great Drama of the North
"THE GIRL from the OUTSIDE"
Out there in the frozen trail of Alaska, "The Girl," alone and friendless, struggles among strong, ruthless men who recognize no code of honor—
And when the struggle seems hopeless and poverty and despair are slowly grinding her to death—
Into her life come five men, each one a master-crook. Then something happened.
Be there Sunday and see what it was.

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, JULY 13 and 14
EARLE WILLIAMS in
"THE FORTUNE HUNTER"
It's Earle Williams making love again. He's the greatest love maker on the screen.
You'll die laughing when you see "Blinky" down the "plain" soda. It is one of the knockout scenes in the superfeature made from the same name that had us roaring a few years ago.

FRIDAY, JULY 8th

STARRING
LYONS AND MORAN

SAY! It may be all right for a friend to ask you and the girl you love to impersonate himself and his wife for an evening so that they can make a million but you'll feel afterwards as if that million ought to be coming to you. Come and see a couple that doubled into all kinds of trouble.

The Biggest Hit of the Season.

I ought to know —
I grow tobacco

You can't beat a Camel, because you can't beat the tobacco that goes into Camels.

That's why Camels are the choice of men who know and love fine tobacco. They know what makes Camels so smooth, so fragrant and mellow-mild.

They'll tell you that the expert Camel blend of choice Turkish and Domestic tobaccos makes a cigarette smoke you can't equal—no matter what you pay.

But it doesn't take an expert to tell Camel quality. You'll spot it the very first puff. Try Camels yourself.
