HEAD STATE NORMAL DIES VERY SUDDENLY

J. H. Ackerman Passes at His Mouth Home—Was President
Normal for Past Ten Years and Prominent Educator of Oregon.

J. H. Ackerman, president of Oregon Normal school at Monmouth and prominent educator of the state for the last 25 years, died suddenly at 8:30 o'clock Sunday morning following a stroke of apoplexy. He apparently had been in good health when he arose and following breakfast with the family walked out on the porch for the morning paper. He had returned into the house and had read for about 20 minutes, when he was stricken and passed away without warning.

Mr. Ackerman had been president of the normal for the last 10 years and previous to that was state superintendent of public instruction in Oregon for 12 years.

He was born in Toronto, Iowa, November 7, 1855. While a young man he taught school in Wisconsin. He was a graduate of the state normal school at Milwaukee, Wis.

Mr. Ackerman began his career as an Oregon educator in 1885, when he arrived at Portland, and became principal of the Holladay school. Later he was superintendent of the east Portland schools. He served also as principal of the Harrison-street school.

In 1890 Mr. Ackerman was elected superintendent of schools of Multnomah county and served until 1906. He was then chosen state superintendent of public instruction, and held that office until 1911, when he became president of the Oregon Normal school at Monmouth, which was revived after being idle one year.

Mr. Ackerman was a member of the Unitarian church and of the Washington Masonic lodge of Portland, of which he once served as master. He is survived by his widow and three daughters, Mrs. E. F. Carleton of Eugene, whose husband is superintendent of schools there; Mrs. Roy Burton of Salem, and Mrs. Alfred Lund of Corvallis, whose husband is a professor in Oregon Agricultural college.

Funeral services were held at Monmouth at 1:30 Tuesday afternoon, Rev. W. G. Elliott, Jr., pastor of the First Unitarian church of Portland, officiating. P. L. Campbell, president of the University of Oregon, delivered the eulogy. Interment took place in the Salem cemetery, with services at the grave by the Masonic lodge of Salem.

Morrow County Harvest.
J. N. Scott returned Saturday evening from Morrow county where he has been for several days making an inspection of his wheat. Harvest is on generally there, he reports, and yields are proving satisfactory. Some fields are turning out as much as 20 bushels of wheat with the average about 20 bushels. Mr. Scott will return to Morrow county Wednesday to take care of his crop there.—East Oregonian.

Buddy Boyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Boyd and a member of the Boy Scouts who went on the hike up Willow creek Monday, was a little unfortunate. When making camp, he was using an axe which glanced and struck him on the ankle bone. He was brought to town Tuesday and after receiving proper attention was ready again to hike for the mountains and join his comrades who are in camp near the Herrin place and having the time of their lives. Eighteen of the boys left Heppner at about 4 o'clock Monday morning in charge of Scoutmaster Livingston, and they reached camp at 4 o'clock in the afternoon. They expect to return home tomorrow evening.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Couch of Wallawa were in Heppner for a short time on Friday last. Mr. Couch is a local estate dealer and was here to look over some timber lands in the vicinity of the Hamilton ranch, now owned by Al Hendricksen. They were accompanied to the mountains by Mr. Hendricksen, at whose place on Willow creek, near Cecil, they spent a day or so. Mr. Couch is an old newspaper man and was formerly the publisher of the Sun at Wallawa.

M. Fitzmaurice of Condon, who is appraiser for the Federal Land Bank of Spokane, spent several days in Heppner the past week on official business. While here Mr. Fitzmaurice appraised five ranches, leaving for Long Creek on Saturday to take up the white man's burden over there.

Al Hendricksen of Cecil was in Heppner on Monday on his return home from a trip over to Monument. He was quite taken with the Monument country and found the stockmen of that section enjoying a prosperous season, with lots of good feed.

Duel Gurdane departed for Portland Tuesday to visit a few days with his father who is confined in a hospital there. The elder Gurdane is reported to be getting along quite well, but will not be able to return home for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. French, who are on the Ora Adkins place in Eight Mile, were in town Wednesday. Mr. French is getting ready to begin the cutting of the wheat on this place and was here to get some laborers for the harvest.

Lotus Robison, of Hardman, returned last evening from a trip to Portland, where he was the first of the week with a car of beef cattle. He found the market good and realized a fine profit on his shipment.

Willis Ward, who farms the Ed Duran place in Blackhorse, was doing business in this city on Tuesday. He will soon be ready to start up the harvest of one of the best crops ever raised in that vicinity.

Morrow County Will Have Its Biggest Average Yield of Grain

From the early reports coming in, it is now evident that Morrow county will this season harvest its biggest average yield of grain. Heretofore the average has never been far above 15 bushels per acre, but should the present yield hold good we confidently expect that it will exceed 20 bushels for the entire county. Thirty to thirty-five bushels are reported from different sections now and the threshing is just getting well under way. Threshing is now speeding up in the north end of the county, and there is every indication that the Lake, Lexington and Morgan sections will have the largest yields in their history, the lighter lands in many instances bringing the average far above former years. Some slight damage has occurred to spring sown grain in different parts of the county, owing to the recent hot spell, yet this will not be in proportion to what it has been other seasons.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Strait are in the city today from Boardman. Mr. Strait is hard at work on the new ferry at that point and expects to have it operating by the first of August.

Mrs. Lena White and daughters, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smead for a couple of weeks, left for their home at Portland on Friday last.

Mrs. Frank Anderson and children departed this morning for Tillamook and will spend the remainder of the summer at the coast city.

NEWS NOTES FROM THE UMATILLA FOREST

Gardane District.

Rangers Woods and Langdon have been repairing the Heppner telephone line. Time does not permit a thorough overhauling, but sufficient maintenance work is being done to give service during the dry weather of the fire season.

The fire season is now on and gives promise of being serious. Nearly every day a new fire is reported, but so far nearly all fires have occurred in the low range, outside of the forest and are being handled by the State fire wardens. The Federal foresters are co-operating through their lookout men in detecting the fires and, as far as their own duties permit, they are assisting in suppression.

Robert Ritchey went on duty at Arbutus mountain last Monday as lookout man and smoke chaser. When his fire duties permit he will work at maintenance of improvements.

Frank Bloss, army vocational training man, arrived this week and will take up the duty of lookout at Tamarack mountain in the Heppner district.

Woods and children are now visiting with Ranger Woods at Ellis Ranger station. She hopes to be on the ground and ready for buckberries.

Guard Cartel has been handling the administration of the Gardane District during the past week while Ranger Woods was away on official business in Heppner. He has been stopping at Ellis Ranger station during this time.

Kathryn was a lovely girl, just blooming into womanhood. She was dearly loved by a host of friends in this community, all of whom are greatly saddened by her untimely demise.

Carl Everett Leathers and Frances Marian Pyle of Packers Mill, were united in marriage at the court house in Heppner on Wednesday. Judge Wm. T. Campbell officiating. The young people will make their home at Hardman.

Archie Jones, a young man from Monument, was operated on at the Moore hospital the past week by Dr. McMurdo, and had his appendix removed. The doctor used the local anesthetic in this case and it proved very successful, the patient lying quietly and laughing and joking with the physician while the carving process was taking place and realizing no pain whatever. He was able to leave the hospital yesterday.

Hotel Closed to Public.
Pat Poley of The Dalles, who holds the lease on the Hotel Patrick in this city, posted a notice the last of the week that the hotel would be closed to the public on Sunday night. The notice stated that this action was taken on his part as a protest against the unreasonable rates charged for water and light service, as well as other commodities necessary to the operation of the hotel, to remain closed until a satisfactory adjustment can be made. Mr. Poley came up from The Dalles Tuesday to look after the affairs of the hotel, but left no word as to just what he would do in regard to the reopening of the hotel. We understand that he has stated, however, that the hotel will remain closed until he can secure some substantial reduction in the rates being charged for some of the very necessary commodities he is compelled to use.

L. A. Hunt Is Manager.
L. A. Hunt is county agent of Morrow county, was chosen as manager of the Oregon Haygrowers' Association at a meeting of the directors held here on Saturday evening. The association is made up of Umatilla and Morrow county hay growers. The Oregon and Washington associations will handle their sales through a joint sales agency, but in territory not common, Mr. Hunt will be in charge of the sales. His headquarters will be in Heppner and he will resign as county agent—East Oregonian.

Chas. Vaughn and wife and B. P. Stone and wife returned on Wednesday afternoon from an auto trip north. They left just before the 4th and went to Tacoma, where they took in the big auto races and received some thrills for the races were exciting. From Tacoma they took in the National Park, and then went to British Columbia, taking in Victoria and Vancouver, and altogether had a very enjoyable time.

Since the closing of the hotel, business is looking up in the restaurants, rooming houses and numerous private residences where accommodations for the traveling public can be found.

Eldest Daughter of Editor Pattison Dies

Kathryn Pattison, aged 17 years, 6 months and 7 days, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Pattison of this city, died on Tuesday, July 12, 1921, at the home of her parents. Funeral services were held under the auspices of the Christian Science church of this city at the Federal church at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, Mr. C. L. Freeman officiating. The remains will be shipped to Portland tomorrow for incineration at the Portland Crematorium.

Miss Pattison had been sick and confined to her home for the past four months, being compelled on account of her illness, to miss the last three months of school and to forego her duties as editor of the High school paper. She was a senior in Heppner High school, secretary of her class and a general favorite among the pupils.

Having stood well in her classes and received the required number of credits she was granted her certificate of graduation from the school, her classmates all hoping for her early recovery and full restoration to health, that she might be able to resume her studies and realize her aspirations from an educational standpoint.

The immediate cause for death is reported as meningitis, though she was a sufferer in the beginning from neuritis and undoubtedly passed through a period of very severe pain before death finally came to claim her as a victim.

Kathryn was a lovely girl, just blooming into womanhood. She was dearly loved by a host of friends in this community, all of whom are greatly saddened by her untimely demise.

GROW GOOD BEES AND PRODUCE MORE HONEY

Professor H. A. Scullen, of Corvallis, who has been in the county for two days during the last week is authority for the statement that the state of Oregon at the present time produces about sixty car-loads of honey each year. This is quite a surprise to many of our local producers who are a little inclined to imagine that honey is sold by the pound instead of the car load. When we figure what a pound of honey ordinarily costs when we buy it for the table we can easily conceive what the immense returns are from this quantity of honey.

There are many things which the amateur bee-keeper does not take into consideration in the handling of his colonies. A good coat of white paint is worth while to the hive; in the first place it saves the hive from the weather; in the second place white as a color throws off more heat than any other color and the bees keep cooler therein. In addition to this there should be a shade board of some kind on top of the hive so that the bees in the hot weather will be as cool in the hot weather as possible. Another point that should not be overlooked is that there should be ventilation between the top of the honey frame and the top of the hive at least a half or three-quarters of an inch, the cap, however, should fit comparatively tight.

It is not generally realized that the tendency of Italian bees is to drift back to the small black bee that is usually called the German bee and is not so vicious and is more prolific.

The worker bee will, in the winter months when there is no real work being done live all winter, but in the summer and during the busy season the worker bee lives from six to seven weeks only, while it is true the queen does live all the way from four to seven years yet an old queen is a very poor asset to a hive.

Professor Scullen gives four fundamentals for profitable bee keeping: 1st—Good working conditions. 2nd—Good weather conditions. 3rd—A flower crop for honey within reach of the hive. 4th—Storing instinct must be dominant in the bee.

The second condition depends upon location but anywhere in Morrow county fills the bill. Under the third, to have flowers handy any of the creek ranches or irrigation district ranches can qualify. The first condition, a good working force of bees requires real care of the hives and the securing of a good queen. Fourth, this is pretty largely a result of good care and queen as well. There is no question but most of the queens in Morrow county should be killed off this fall and a new queen substituted. They will cost $1.00 or $1.50 apiece but will undoubtedly be a good investment as most of our bees are wild bees, only a few imported bees being in the county at the present time.

A "Juvenile Party."
On July 9 the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McMillan at Lexington was the scene of a gay lawn party. Mrs. Brown of Lexington, and Miss Warner of Walla Walla were the guests of honor. All guests were dressed in juvenile costumes and juvenile games were played. During the evening each "little boy and girl" was presented with an all-day sucker to their great delight. The decorations were such as to bring joy to the heart of any youngster. Bountiful refreshments were served and at a late hour the thirty-five guests bided their hostesses, Mrs. C. Warner, Mrs. H. E. Warner and Mrs. J. F. McMillan a lingering good night, and while wending their way homeward wished they might be youngsters again. H. M. B.

Mrs. Chas. H. Curtis departed on Monday for Stockton, California, after a visit of two weeks at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Smead, in this city.

Jack Hynd, "Mayor" of Cecil, is in Heppner today.

Morrow County Wool Clip Practically All Disposed Of

W. W. Smead informs this paper that the Morrow county wool clip of some 1,150,000 pounds has practically all been disposed of. Fine wools have been bought up at prices ranging from 17 to 19 cents, per pound, and as there was little demand for the coarse wools these have been shipped to Portland, to be disposed of when the demand for such wools is stronger than at present. Mr. Smead was the only local buyer in the field and he secured about 425,000 pounds, while 125,000 pounds were purchased by The Dalles Scouring mills. Mr. Smead represented a Boston firm. There is some wool to come in yet from the interior, but the warehouses will soon be cleaned and ready to receive the incoming wheat crop.

CECIL ITEMS OF INTEREST

J. W. Osborn made a business trip to the county seat on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Wait of Tentville spent the week-end with friends in Canby.

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Streeter and family spent Monday visiting with friends in Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Funck and children of Morgan were calling in Cecil on Thursday.

Mrs. E. J. Logan of Portland arrived in Cecil on Wednesday accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Welina Combs. They intend visiting among their friends in Morrow county before returning to the city again.

Mrs. Jack Hynd and son Herbert and daughter Violet M. of Butterfly Flats left on Sunday to join the "Mayor" at Rose Lawn, Sand Hollow where W. G. Hynd joined the party and all left for Ukiah and the springs for a few days vacation.

J. H. Crane of the Oregon Hassam Paving company of Portland was in Cecil on Wednesday looking after his company's interests. Rock crusher closed on Saturday as work is completed at the Cecil end of the road. Arrangements are being made to transfer all the machinery to Morgan as quickly as possible.

Through the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Krebs of The Last Camp the residents of the Cecil community were invited to hold a celebration on their beautiful lawn on the Fourth. A large party was in attendance and games and amusements of every description were thoroughly enjoyed by all. Ladies served dinner and supper from well filled baskets. George Henriksen of Strawberry ranch was the orator of the day was ably supported by the "Village Constable, John."

Bee Association Organized.

County Agent Hunt returned on last evening from a visit to the north end of the county. At Boardman on Tuesday an organization of the honey producers of the county was perfected with ten members, which will be affiliated with the state organization. The object of this association is to promote scientific study of bee culture and the keeping out of disease. Officers elected were: B. F. Atterberry, president; Paul Smith, vice president and Chas. Dillabaugh, secretary. Meetings were held at both Boardman and Irigoin, and several of the bee farms on Willow creek were visited. Mr. Hunt was accompanied by a professor from O. A. C. who is a specialist in bee culture.

There will be a double-header at the Star theater tomorrow evening—two good shows. "The Bottom of the World" and "Beatrice Michelena" and her own company in "The Flame of Hellgate." You will want to see both these pictures, and the first mentioned is a wonderful revelation of life and conditions in the vicinity of the South pole.

H. G. Sigbee returned Wednesday from a trip of a week to Portland and other outside points on business in connection with the Star theater.

MUCH OF DRY GRASS ABOUT CITY BURNED

A Fire Response Made to Request of Mayor—Under Direction of Fire Chief Curran Fire Risk Has Been Greatly Reduced.

All business houses in Heppner gladly responded to the call issued by Mayor Noble for a half holiday on Tuesday, and there was a unanimous compliance with the order to come out and help clean up the catches of dry grass all over town. It was thought at first that the half day would be sufficient to get over all the city, but when the work was started it soon developed that the task was a bigger one than anticipated, so it will be necessary to get out the fire truck and tackle other portions that could not be reached on Tuesday.

As it was, the most hazardous sections were burned over and the fire risk on account of the dry grass on vacant lots and around residences and business houses was reduced to the extent of about 90 per cent.

Under direction of Fire Chief Mike Curran, the fire truck with all available hose, and some of the smaller hose trucks were brought into use, and a part of the time there was a good breeze blowing, the water was always at hand and there was no chance for the fire to get out of control.

There remains yet a large amount of dry grass on the side of the hill just west of the city and this was not tackled on Tuesday for fear that it might get away from the fire fighters and get into the grain on the hill. However, Chief Curran believes that he can handle this situation and will take hold of it some quiet evening soon, when he can put a cordon of men along the cattle trail to keep the fire from getting beyond and into the grain field. The north end of the city will also have to be worked out.

There was revealed in the progress of the work Tuesday, the fact that there is a great deal of rubbish of one kind and another piled up on various back lots and thrown into back alleys, that is a real fire menace. This should all be gotten together somewhere and incinerated and this additional risk done away with. We hope some steps will be taken by the authorities to see that this is done right soon. Much of the old lumber is useless and fit only for kindling wood, and the owners of this should help to clean up by preparing the stuff for their kindling piles and storing it away in the woodshed for use during the coming winter. If they are not disposed to do this, let them give it to someone who will.

The mayor and Chief Curran are very grateful to the citizens of the city for their unanimous response on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tindal Robison of Eight Mile and Mrs. Chas. Becket, their neighbors, were visitors in this city on Tuesday.

TELLS TRUTHFUL STORIES.

Made "The Story Lady" Famous

The stories told by Georgina Faulkner, the famous Story Lady, always teach a lesson or illustrate some truth children should learn. Her stories are truthful stories thought of ten dealing with mythical characters. Miss Faulkner will appear in her famous Mother Goose costume at the Chautauqua this year on the fifth afternoon when a special matinee for the children has been arranged with only a ten cent admission for all "kid dies" under twelve. She first won recognition through her work with the settlement children in the Chicago playgrounds. She has been editor of the Story Page in the Ladies Home Journal, Chicago Tribune, Chicago Herald, has written many books of stories including the official Red Cross book for war work among children and has made a large number of Victor phonograph records.
