PREACHER IS MANY SIDED
Chautauqua Speaker is All Around Man

James Hardin-Smith is a real honest-to-goodness man's man. He not only holds down the job of preaching to a great metropolitan church with its multitude of activities, but has found time for participation in civil affairs and fraternal orders. He travels extensively, he is a great student and spends his summers on the Chautauqua platform. He is one of the leading inspirational lecturers in Chautauqua work and will this year appear at the local assembly where he will deliver his most famous address, "Taste the Apples." This deals with the broad human qualities of optimism, patriotism and character building. It has something for every man and woman and boy and girl. Delivered as Hardin-Smith does it, it is bound to be long remembered and have a solid influence in bettering all who hear it.

ADVOCATES "SETTING UP" EXERCISES

Beatrice Eves Heskett Gives Health Lecture.

In line with the policy of the Cadmean Chautauquas to include in its programs all matters of general interest to a community, Beatrice Eves Heskett has been secured for this year's program. She is a Wellesley graduate whose educational work in the University of Nebraska and other large schools and upon the Chautauqua platform has placed her in the front ranks of American women health advocates.

Appearing in trim gymnasium costume for her Chautauqua address, she points out the need for physical training to be accomplished through recreation centers, public play grounds, graded and high schools, colleges, and in the home. She illustrates some simple exercises and shows how any man or woman or child may be kept in perfect health with a minimum of effort and expense.

Tilman Hogue was in town from Gooseberry yesterday and laying in harvest supplies. He will start up with his combine today, beginning the harvest of about 300 acres.

STAR THEATER

SATURDAY, JULY 23

EDITH ROBERTS in

"The Fire Cat"

An up-to-the-minute love-drama of a fiery little beauty and the fine young American who saved her from herself—a story greater even than that wonderful romance, "Lasea," in which Edith Roberts scored a triumph.

SUNDAY JULY 24 SUNDAY

Hobart Bosworth in

"His Own Law"

Scene from "His Own Law" starring Hobart Bosworth

No mitten book contains the Spartan code of honor this penetrating, swift-going picture depicts, with the greatest male actor before the screen in the principal role. It's a super-love story of two big, proud, fighting men and a beautiful girl.

WEDNESDAY and THURSDAY, JULY 27 and 28

BESSIE LOVE in

"A Fighting Colleen"

The feature with a Brogue, a Combat, a Political Campaign and a pretty Love story.

Also a LARRY SIMON Comedy

Because of the Chautauqua, we will have no show on Thursday and Friday, July 25 and 26. We have excellent programmes Saturday and Sunday, however, and will appreciate your attendance.
