EASTERN OREGON BOYS' CONFERENCE

Third Annual Conference to be held at Heppner, October 14, 15 and 16—Many Good Speakers—Banquet at Patrick Hotel a Feature.

The Third Annual Conference for Older Boys of Northeastern Oregon will be held at Heppner, October 14, 15 and 16. The purpose of the Conference is to bring together the older boys from the different communities and cities to discuss some of the vital questions pertaining to boy life today. The theme of the Conference is "The Price of Leadership." There will be some fine addresses by strong speakers and leaders besides plenty of time given for discussion, and papers by other boys on other subjects.

Mr. A. E. Yount Interstate Boys' Secretary for the Y. M. C. A. of Oregon and Idaho, who is directing the Conference, said that he had secured Jas. W. Palmer, Assistant General Secretary of the Portland Y. M. C. A. for two of the principal addresses on Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Palmer will also read the singing throughout the Conference. A. P. Pittner, Institutional and Educational Director of Westminster Presbyterian Church, Portland, will also be one of the speakers and W. W. Dillon, Executive Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Oregon and Idaho will take an active part in the program throughout the Conference.

Howard M. James, Supt. of Schools Heppner, is heading up the local organization. The good people of the entertainment city are providing full entertainment for all the delegates, besides a splendid banquet Saturday night. The only expense to boys attending is the car fare and $1.00 registration fee, which is used to help defray the expense of the program. The Conference opens Friday afternoon at 5:00 with a song and introductory meeting. At 5:30 there is scheduled a short address on "The Challenge" followed by the appointment of the nominating committee to nominate officers who will be elected at the evening session and will preside over the Conference throughout. The evening session opens at 7:30 and after the address of welcome and response, the election and installation of officers, the principal address of the evening will be given on the subject "The Price of Leadership" by A. P. Pittner. Saturday morning there is to be two short addresses—one on "The Price of Intellectual Leadership" by Mr. Pittner, and one on "Boys and the World Program" by J. W. Palmer, and two discussion periods. The Conference photograph will be taken at noon, and after lunch there will be an open discussion followed by delegation meetings. The time from 3:10 on until 4:15 will be given over to recreation, there being a football game scheduled between Heppner and Hermiston. At 4:15 the banquet will be held in the Patrick Hotel and will be the big social feature of the entire conference. Sunday will probably be the best day of all. The delegation will attend church and Sunday School in the morning with their host and hostesses. Then at 3:30 there will be a big mass meeting for all boys of the conference and other older boys of Heppner at the Federated church. This meeting will be addressed by W. W. Dillon on "The Price of Christian Leadership." The closing session of the conference will be held Sunday evening at 7:30 at the Christian church, when there will be short talks by boys and leaders, and a short address by Jas. W. Palmer. This meeting is open to the public generally.

Mr. Yount expects to see between 150 and 175 boys registered at the conference.

Freeman Hammond's "Second Childhood" Declared to Be Classic of Modern Lyceum

Distinguished Young American Artist, Heading Freeman Hammond Company, to Appear in Local Lyceum Series in Near Future.

Mr. Freeman Hammond, one of the most promising young artists of the platform, has made a most enviable reputation for himself during the past two seasons, through his intensely human little sketch "Second Childhood." It is said to be one of the finest and most artistic impersonations ever offered by any one. It will be given here in the near future when the Freeman Hammond Company appears.

Mr. Hammond's characterizations are splendidly done in his every effort. He works in costumes and grease paint and does every one of his characters with an ease and naturalness that is indicative of a wonderful art. With Mr. Hammond appear two clever assisting artists in dramatic and musical numbers.

OH DEATH, WHERE IS THY STING?

MORROW CO. PRODUCTS TO BE AT STOCK SHOW

Having business that necessitated attention, Secretary Smead returned to Heppner the latter part of last week, after making arrangements to have the exhibits of Morrow county products which were shown by him at the State Fair, taken to Portland, where they will be prepared and placed on exhibition at the coming International Live Stock Exposition, to be held November 5 to 12.

For this show, Mr. Smead is anxious to have some more good Morrow county potatoes, in bushel lots, to be added to the display. He desires that they be brought in to him at Heppner, and he will arrange to pay for them. If any have suitable tubers to be placed on display, bring them in to Mr. Smead as soon as possible, for he desires to have them ready for shipment to Portland not later than the 1st of November.

Mr. Smead expects to return to Portland right after the first of the month in order to get the exhibits placed in the show pavilion, and he fully expects to get a large share of premiums for Morrow county, which will be added to those already captured at the State fair.

OLD PIRATE SHIP FILMED FOR THE LAST TIME

What film directors and producers of today strive for most in the production of motion pictures is reality and a closeness to details. Should a certain scene of the unusual be required and it cannot be secured, then it must be built. For the filming of "Half a Chance" the new Pathe Special, Jesse D. Hampton, the producer, saw that the script called for a shipwreck, and after considerable searching the old Freemont was secured.

The Freemont, which was originally a filibustering ship, has had almost as much historical significance since it became lawless, and entered the film. On one occasion an inexperienced director made arrangements for its use and engaged a large company for the picture to be produced. The trip was to last three days, but on the last day a terrific storm blew up and the director requested the skipper to turn back to Balboa harbor. The skipper realized the danger and agreed only to assume all responsibility.

As the seafarer predicted cross winds and tides hit the boat and it was necessary to land the frightened company with the breaches hoisted, the director was badly damaged and the director was a wiser but a far poorer man. Since then the old hull has made an artistic study against the rocks of Balboa beach.

When Jesse D. Hampton found such a vessel was required for "Half a Chance" he purchased what was left of the old craft. Simultaneously with the closing of the deal, the Government decided that the wreck was an eyesore and was blocking the mouth of the harbor and would have to be removed. Hampton finally prevailed upon the Government, however, to allow the craft to remain intact for one month longer. Robert Thornby, director, succeeded in completing the required scenes and by this time the old filibustering Freemont was no more.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE. Whereas, the Grim Reaper has put in his sickle and cut down Henry D. Mikesell, the beloved husband of one of our faithful members, a man respected as a citizen, loved as a neighbor and friend, and honored as one of the defenders of his Country; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of Rawlins Relief Corps No. 23 extend to the bereaved widow in the hour of their sorrow, that a committee be appointed to write, on behalf of the Relief Corps, a letter of condolence to the widow, expressing our sympathy with her in her bereavement; and be it further

Resolved, That we mourn the loss of Henry D. Mikesell as a worthy citizen, a good neighbor, a faithful friend, an honored hero of the Civil War; and be it

These meetings have been arranged by the Farm Bureau in order to give members a chance to learn just what the Association has been doing and to give them a chance to ask questions in order to promote a better understanding between members and their Association.

Mr. A. H. Lea, manager of the Oregon Association, will be present at both these meetings and every farmer interested in growing wheat should plan to attend.

The meetings will be held as follows: One, Friday, October 14th, 2 p. m. Waters Hall. Heppner, Saturday, October 15th, 2 p. m. L. O. O. F. Hall.

FIRST LYCEUM NUMBER FRIDAY, OCTOBER 21ST

The first number of the lyceum course to be given at Heppner during the winter by the Ellison-White Lyceum Bureau, under the auspices of Heppner High School and the Patron-Teachers Association, will be the Freeman-Hammond. A supply of season tickets is on hand, and there is to be a thorough canvass made of the city to dispose of these. The entire course will cost $505 and there should be no difficulty in covering the major portion of this by the season tickets. All entertainments are to be given at the High School auditorium.

D. W. BOITNOTT IS NOW LOCATED IN LOUISIANA

In a letter recently received from D. W. Boitnott by C. E. Woodson, Mr. Boitnott states that he is now superintendent of schools at Jennings, La., a city some 185 miles from New Orleans and having a population of 4000 whites and 1000 negroes. Jennings is about 45 miles from the Gulf of Mexico and the nights are cool, while the days are hot. His work in the schools is all supervision and he has three fine buildings under his care. Had planted winter and fall garden and the citrus fruits do well. Mr. Boitnott is much improved in health and will soon be well, and then it is the West again for him—Oregon being good enough, and he is coming back the very first chance, never to leave.

Ferry to be at Castle Rock.

A. B. Strait was over from Boardman the past week and secured from the county court the right to change the location of his ferry from Boardman to Castle Rock, some four miles west. Mr. Strait says the change was made necessary owing to the low state of water some of the time at Boardman. Mr. Strait has completed a good boat and he will now be ready to operate the same at the new point on the Columbia.

J. B. Huddleston, sheepman of Lono Rock, was in Heppner for a couple of days this week.

UMATILLA FOREST NEWS, FOR GORDANE DISTRICT

At last the fire season is over. Heavy rains began falling September 19 and continued with one or two flurries of snow for nearly a week. The dust has been settled and the air washed clear of smoke and dust. The grass is starting on the lower ranges.

Nearly all sheep men report the loss of sheep. The stormy weather set them to scattering and as soon as the rains were over, mushrooms, of which the sheep are extremely fond, came up. The sheep are so very fond of the mushrooms that they will leave the best of feed and go into the heavy timber in search of them and become badly scattered.

Guy Boyer reports the loss of nearly six hundred sheep on driveway No. 4. He was coming from the Rush creek country to Heppner when he mixed with another sheep outfit. His dogs became worn out and after they were separated the dogs left him. The herder and camp tender were unable to hold the sheep and they scattered badly.

Del McRoberts, State Fire Warden at Parkers Mills, recently passed through this district enroute to Ukiah. He stopped for a visit with W. S. Casteel at Ditch Creek Ranger Station and spent the following night with Ranger Woods at Ellis. Mr. McRoberts said that he had been very lucky this summer; he had only seven fires.

Alf Gentry, the Satter on the Five Mile range, has completed his work for the season and left the Cattle range. He made his reports and turned his books over to Ranger Woods at Ellis Ranger Station the last of September. Mr. Gentry put out 31,000 pounds of salt. This being nearly seven pounds per cow from June 1 to September 30.

The Ellis-Ukiah road has been improved at the crossing of Turpentine creek near Ellis Ranger Station. This ditch has been cleaned out and water through the meadow and all the water led into one channel and a small, but substantial log bridge constructed. The Forest Officers were assisted in this job by Alf Gentry. This has been one of the worst places on the entire Ukiah-Ellis-Heppner road. Vehicles of any kind could navigate it only during extreme dry weather and cars usually did not try. Last year only one car got bogged down here but that was due to the fact that only one car tried to cross. Road work is now the order of the day in this district. Since completing the Turpentine bridge Ranger Woods and Guard Casteel have been blasting stumps out of the road between Ukiah and Ellis. A few more days and they expect to work past the Station and will work westward.

Red Cross Nurse to be at Lono.

Miss Ione Holmes, representative of the Northwest Division of the Red Cross, who has been in Heppner for the past two weeks, will take her departure on Monday, going to Lono, where she expects to spend the day. While at Lono Miss Holmes would be pleased to meet any ex-service men who were not able to come to Heppner, or did not get to see the Clean-Up squad while they were in the county. That she might talk over any claims they have against the government. Miss Holmes is prepared to make out all proper applications for claims and vocational work. Call on her while she is in Lono Monday.

Lexington Parent-Teachers Association to Hold Meeting

The October meeting of the Parent-Teachers Association of Lexington will be held Wednesday evening, October 13 at the high school auditorium. If the services of the Public Health Nurse can be secured for that evening, but nothing definite can be found out until Tuesday evening. If this speaker can be secured, notice will be placed in the stores Tuesday evening, if not the meeting will be postponed until the time of the regular November meeting. It is hoped a large audience will be present if it is possible to secure the services of the nurse.

At Henriksen of Cecil spent a couple of days in this city the first of the week. He is now driving a fine new car which replaces the one destroyed by fire some time ago.

Newly Appointed Minister to Siam Makes Short Visit Here

E. E. Brodie, the recently appointed minister to Siam, president of the National Editorial Association and editor of the Enterprise at Oregon City, accompanied by Elbert Bede, president of the State Editorial Association and editor of the Cottage Grove Sentinel, made this city a short visit on Tuesday afternoon and called upon the Heppner editors.

These gentlemen have been touring the state in the interests of the associations which they represent, and also getting the sentiment of the Oregon press with reference to the 1925 fair proposition. Mr. Brodie is enthusiastic over this proposition and thinks the prospects for the success of the big fair at Portland are very bright. It is his opinion that the people of Oregon will enthusiastically support the 1925 exposition, once they begin to get the right view of it and understand just how it is proposed to finance it. This problem will come before the people of the state next May for their solution, and between now and then it is proposed to put on a thorough campaign of education. As now figured out, Portland will be called on to furnish the greater portion of the money out of the millage tax to be voted, and it is estimated that the additional tax burden to be assumed by the people outside of the big city will amount to about $1 per $1000 per year for three years.

New Proprietor of Joseph Herald.

O. G. Crawford, brother of the editor of this paper, is now into the newspaper game on his own hook, having recently purchased the Herald at Joseph, Wallowa county, and getting out his first issue the past week. Concerning this deal, the Enterprise Record Chief-tain says:

"O. G. Crawford, for some years a member of the Record Chief-tain force, has bought the Joseph Herald and is now on the job. He bought the property from O. L. Smallwood, who was eager to get away and take charge of a paper he has purchased in Denver, Colorado."

As Mr. Crawford has had much experience in all departments of country newspaper work he is well qualified to make the Herald an excellent publication. He knows Wallowa county and its people, having lived here as a boy, and he later attended O. A. C. He starts on his duties with the hearty good wishes of the Record Chief-tain and of his many Enterprise friends.

Mrs. Crawford will remain teacher of music in the Enterprise school, and the family will meet often as the new highway has brought the two towns close together."

J. H. Frad, formerly a resident of Heppner and an extensive farmer of this section, was in the city a few days this week from his home in Portland.
