

A football game will be played between the teams of the Heppner Post and the local Post, American Legion, on Saturday. The Heppner team is now under training by Cecil Lissallen and they are going to put up a good fight, while the local boys have been having daily drills and will be in shape to meet their antagonists in good style. It promises to be a fine game. Another game between these eleven will be played at Heppner on Thanksgiving, according to present plans.

Twenty-five young men of the local high school have signed up in the new young mens Bible class at the Christian church and several more will doubtless join. High school credits will be given for work done in this class. They call themselves the Live Wire Class. Officers are Don Case, president, Reid Bussick, vice-president, Everett Smith, secretary and Austin Smith, treasurer. W. O. Livingstone is teacher.

Glenn Jones, Clarence Hesselstine and Harry Hawley were in the mountains for a few days the past week in quest of deer. They camped in the vicinity of the Hamilton ranch and before returning, Glenn was fortunate enough to get a fine buck.

R. J. Carsner, cattleman of Wheeler and Morrow counties, had just recently purchased the hands of W. E. Straight and W. R. Barratt & Son, of this section which he adds to his hands. He feels optimistic regarding the outlook for the cattle business.
