Mrs. E. M. Shutt and son Lawrence departed for Portland on Thursday of last week to spend a couple of weeks or so visiting with friends in the city.

Seed rye for sale at the Scott & McMillan Warehouse, Lexington.—Adv.

STRAYED—Two-year-old mare mule brown with bay points, brand DM on left jaw. Reward for information leading to recovery. DWIGHT MINSER, Ione, Oregon.

Owing to practically a cash demand by the wholesale houses, from this date, Nov. 8, 1921, without any exceptions, our business will be conducted on a cash basis. WM. HAYLOR.

Commissioner Barratt returned home from Portland on Saturday after attending the meetings of the Highway Commission in Portland during the past week. He came in by way of Pendleton and Pilot Rock.

Sunday, Nov. 6th, was a day of splendid results at the Federated Sunday School. More than 150 were present. The Queen Esther class number was a real treat. A cordial invitation to all 9:45 each Sunday morning.

Mrs. John H. Wilt was suddenly stricken with heart trouble last Saturday and for a time was in a very serious condition. At present she is much better and it is hoped the crisis has been passed.—Ione Independent.

Lawrence Palmer, who farms quite extensively near Lexington, was in the city on Monday. He reports that he has his fall seedling practically done and the summer fallowing is in fine shape. He was accompanied to Heppner by E. S. Duran.

Rev. Dulois, Episcopal Missionary for Eastern Oregon, was in Heppner for several days this week, looking after the interests of his church in this city. He held services at the Episcopal church both morning and evening on Sunday.

Jas. Carty, extensive land owner of the Tub Springs country, and one of the many residents of the north end that are interested in the outcome of the John Day contest now before the court at Heppner, was in the city the first of the week.

S. E. Nolsen went down to Lexington on Tuesday evening, where he delivered an address before the Parent-Teachers Association. Some sixty or more were in attendance and the meeting was a very profitable one. The Association at Lexington has a membership of over forty and is doing a good work for the school there.

Dan P. Smythe, an attorney of Pendleton, and also interested in the sheep raising industry as a part of the firm of Smythe Bros., has been in Heppner during the week. He is also one of the attorneys representing the land owners in the suit against the John Day irrigation directors. Smythe Bros. own quite a body of land within the boundaries of the John Day Irrigation District in Gilliam county.

Under auspices of Ione Post of the American Legion the Ellison-White Chautauqua Association will put on five evenings of superb entertainment at Ione beginning on the evening of November 21st. From the announcement appearing in the last issue of the Ione Independent we are sure that the people who take advantage of this Chautauqua will be well entertained and amply repaid for the small price of their season ticket, which is $2.00.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wheelhouse came up from their Arlington home on Monday and spent a day or two in this city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Shurte. Mr. Wheelhouse, who was last winter elected as one of the directors of the John Day Irrigation District was called to the city to appear at the trial now being heard before Judge Phelps, as a witness on the part of the land owners of the district. Mrs. Wheelhouse is a sister of Mrs. Shurte.

The Beaverton Feed & Produce Co., capital $10,000, was this week organized at Ione. The business of the company will be to deal in produce, hay, feed and grain and to manufacture cereals for the market. The principal office and place of business will be at Ione and the incorporators are: H. M. Olden, R. A. Farrer, H. R. Smith, J. R. Olden, H. V. Smouse, M. E. Cotter, Henry Stender and Claude C. Chick. Judge F. A. Robinson is secretary.—Ione Independent.

Ralph Crego, commander of the American Legion Post of Heppner, this week received his Victory Medal which contains two battle clasps—Ypres-Lys, and Defensive Sector, and he is quite proud of the decoration. The medal should also contain one more clasp, that of the Meuse-Argonne, in which engagement Mr. Crego took part, and he will have this added. Any ex-service man desiring to get his medal, can get the proper blanks by applying to the Post, the officers of which are glad to render any assistance possible in these matters.

Dwight Minsar, Ione farmer, was in the city on Monday, somewhat interested in the John Day case now being heard before Judge Phelps. Mr. Minsar did quite well at the wheat raising game the past season, disposed of his crop quickly, spent his money and is in the game up to his eyes for another good crop. It is just a little dry out his way and a good rain would help the grain in the ground to come forth as it should, yet Mr. Minsar has no kick remaining and feels the future holds bright prospects. We hope that next year he will be able to get that new suit of clothes that he has been pronouncing himself.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay King arrived Wednesday morning from Butte, Montana, to be present at the funeral of Mrs. King's sister, Mrs. Irene Miller. Mr. King states that conditions in Butte at present are very bad, owing to the entire closing down of the mines there. Many families are in a destitute and starving condition and it is taxing the charitable institutions of the city very heavily to care for them. Strong organizations have been formed, however, and the situation is well in hand, Mr. King states, and they hope to get through the coming winter months with all properly cared for. The Butte community is dependent very largely on the copper mines, and when these are not being operated it leaves thousands of families in destitute circumstances. Mr. King states that the prospects for the opening of the mines in the early spring are now bright, and when this takes place the situation in that city will improve rapidly.

Mrs. J. A. Gentry was hostess to more than 100 of the residents of the city on Sunday afternoon who visited the newly-opened hospital at her residence. She has converted her residence into a splendid hospital with accommodations for a large number of patients. An entirely new surgery has been installed, which is under the care of Dr. McMurphy, and the elegant home is an ideal location for the care of the sick and afflicted. Miss Clowry, who is a trained nurse of years of experience, will be in charge of the nursing and will be furnished competent assistants at all times when needed. The building itself contains all the necessary modern conveniences, the rooms are light and airy and spotlessly clean and the hospital is indeed a credit to any community. We feel sure that no one could possibly be disappointed with the surroundings, and much praise was showered on Mrs. Gentry by the visitors touching the splendid appointments of the hospital. Light refreshments were served to the visitors.

Armistice Day Program at Lexington. There will be an Armistice Day program on Friday evening at the Leach Hall in Lexington, consisting of musical numbers and two reels of films. This entertainment is to be free. A chicken supper and hot doughnuts, served cafeteria style, will be given by the Ladies Aid of the Congregational church.

NOTICE. Lost on highway between Heppner and the Wilcox, a grip containing samples of leather, puttees and knives. $10.00 reward for return to R. A. SAMPRON, Ione, Ore.

FOR SALE. I am offering for sale at my farm, 7 1/2 miles north of Lexington, the following: Bed, springs and mattress; 1 child's bed, kitchen cabinet, cupboard, rocking chairs, library table, carpets, one of them practically new, oil stove and oil heater, some bed comforts, curtains and towels, one Columbia graphophone and records, dishes and cooking utensils, some wash tubs, buckets, etc. 1 pump jack, 1 John Deere 14-inch, 2-bottom plow. This sale will take place on Saturday, November 5, 1921, at the hour of 2:00 p. m. Terms of sale will be cash. J. A. AUSTERN.

WE SELL. Weyenberg Shoes for Service. And back them up with the manufacturer's guarantee.

WEYENBERG SHOES are built for service. Solid leather throughout and built for comfort with every needed reinforcement to prolong the shoes' life and usefulness. Easy on the feet—hard to beat. No matter what your work there's a WEYENBERG SHOE for you.

David A. Wilson. Everything in Men's Furnishings.

The Cash Variety Store. Kiddy Kars, $2.00 and $2.50. Stamped Night Gowns, Pillow Cases and Towels, Dillies and Lays. Big Values For Little Money.

LIST YOUR LAND NOW. Those who have Wheat Farms, Alfalfa and Stock Ranches for sale should call at my office and list the same at once, so as to get in on the fall and winter demand. I have sold a couple of big wheat ranches just lately, and I have prospects who are looking for others. Wheat ranches especially are going to be in demand this fall and next spring.

IF YOU REALLY WANT TO SELL. You must be prepared to ask considerably less for your land than it was held at during and immediately following the war, when wheat and other farm products brought high prices. Regret this as we may, these changed conditions exist, and the farms that change hands the next year or so are the ones in which the buyer can see a bargain, or at least good value. My exclusive time will be devoted to the real estate business, and business entrusted to me will receive prompt and efficient attention.

E. M. SHUTT. THE REAL ESTATE MAN. UPSTAIRS IN COURT HOUSE.

CECIL ITEMS OF INTEREST. Mrs. H. J. Streeter was visiting in Ione on Friday, accompanied by Mrs. Geo. Hardesty of Morgan.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Lundell and family spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Tyler near Rhea Siding.

T. W. May of Lone Star ranch accompanied by his brother L. D. May of Moro, were calling in Cecil on Sunday.

H. J. Streeter was running a delivery wagon between Morgan and Cecil on Saturday and looked well at his new work.

Galen Faulkner made a short stay in Cecil during the week before leaving for Condon where he will work during the winter.

C. A. Minor and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Thompson of Heppner were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Krebs at the Last Camp on Monday.

Miss Grace Pelmetier, teacher of Fourth Mile, arrived in Cecil from Condon Thursday where she had been taking in the teachers institute.

Ed Martin, header for many years for Hynd Bros., left on the local for Pendleton where he will spend his vacation before returning to work for the winter.

Ed Bristol, one of Ione's leading merchant princes, his wife and family, and Judge Robinson, Ione's great authority on law, were calling on their friends in Cecil on Sunday.

Cecil was well represented at Rhea Siding school at an evening's entertainment on Saturday evening given by Miss Edith Swick and her pupils. Everyone had an enjoyable evening.

Miss Annie Hynd of Rose Lawn, Sand Hollow, who has been visiting in Portland for a week or two, visited her friends in Cecil for a few days before leaving Sunday on the local for Heppner.

Bill Thomson and his Essex roadster made a short stay in Cecil on Sunday. Bill wore a weary face and was full of trouble. First and the greatest affliction of all was his latest lady love refused to ride in the roadster to the county seat. Next, Bill's nerves were so shaken that he couldn't drive. We heard it took him three days and nights without any rest to push his roadster to Cecil, where he was soon resuscitated and sent on his way rejoicing to his home in Heppner.

Mrs. W. G. McCarty is visiting at the home of her son, Willis McCarty and his family in The Dalles.
