

HEPPNER HI LIFE

Edited By JUNIOR ENGLISH CLASS

Let's Go! Everybody Go! Where to? Why, Lexington! When? Armistice Day, November 11! What for? Football game between Lexington and Heppner!

A P. T. A. meeting was held last Thursday afternoon at 2:30. This was a special meeting for the purpose of arranging for the Art Exhibit being held this week.

NOTICE! Wanted some pictures from the Art Exhibit for the new classroom. American History and Civics Classes.

STUDENTS' PIE SOCIAL A SUCCESS. Total of $47.47 Taken In.

"Look her over boys! She's a peach! Nothing less than $2.50 for this one!" Auctioneers Don Case and Duck Lee started off last Saturday's pie social with a bang; the first pie went for $2.50 and as each lady stepped up on the platform between the light and the curtain, the bidding for the right to eat the pie with the maker of the shadow on the curtain would begin. The pies went well at first but along toward the last they did not go so well, owing to the fact that the would-be purchasers were short on "dough" or already had one or two pies, and girls, to attend to.

After Cashier Mahoney had pulled in the last nickel and "Dad" Wilkinson had delivered the last pie, a contest to determine who was the most beautiful girl present, who was the starchiest girl, the homeliest man and the man with the dirtiest face. Florence Casen received the largest number of votes as the most beautiful girl present and was presented with a fine box of candy. Coramae Crawford was proclaimed the starchiest girl and received a box of powder. Carl Casen voted himself the homeliest man and received a necktie for his pains, and the final price of a bar of soap went to Lowell McMillan as the dirtiest faced man. The pie social then broke up and all those concerned proceeded on their various ways.

The Juniors and Seniors aren't the only ones who know something of journalism and are doing newspaper work. The fourth grade has been having a splendid newspaper which is published in class every two weeks. This is their English work and the articles written are saved from day to day. It is the wish of Mrs. Casen, their teacher, that all the students be represented in this work. In each number there is an editorial by the editor, society notes, news from the high school and even a continued story. The editor is elected by the pupils of the room every two weeks. The editor of the first number was Roderick Thomson, and of the second Katherine Hieabe.

High school students wish them the very best success and hope they will continue their good work.

The high school orchestra is considering playing a number of pieces in public in the near future to raise funds for music.

"Well, they must be crazy. Look at their socks!" "Why, look! Her stockings aren't alike!" "Where'd you catch 'em?" "My! Don't the Juniors think they're smart?" "What's the grand idea?"

These were some of the comments heard when the Juniors emerged from the safe shelter of their homes on Friday, November 4.

However, they were not crazy but were only trying to celebrate Junior Loud Sox Day!

An Armistice Day program was given in the high school auditorium, Thursday, November 10, at one o'clock. The high school chorus sang several of the songs that were popular during the war. "In Flanders Field" was recited by one of the high school students. Attorney S. E. Notson gave a very interesting and instructive address on "The Ideals and Results of the World War" and the flag salute was given by the high school students.

The Freshman pennant arrived last Thursday, and the Sophomores spent the best part of their time between Thursday and Monday trying to find it. However, it was well taken care of, and presented very formally to the Freshman class on Monday morning when the Freshman boys put it up in the assembly.

Don't forget that this is art exhibit week and that season tickets are only 25c!

The outcome of the Freshman English debate of last week was in favor of the negative or second-hour class.

The question was, Resolved that every high school student should be compelled to participate in athletics. Mr. James acted as judge.

The Heppner Grammar School defeated the Lexington Grammar School at Lexington last Friday. The game ended with the score 40 to 13. Charlie Rossmore was the star player throughout the game.

Isaac Dexter, one of our strongest football boys, has been seen limping considerably lately. This is the result of the Hermiston game. We all hope "Isky" will be able to help us win from Lexington.

Faces sobered and smiles disappeared last Friday morning when Mr. Heard announced that the football game between Heppner and Condon, to be played here last Saturday, had been called off on Condon's thin excuse that "men have to work on Saturday, and consequently can't play." Our estimation of Condon's team since then is not very high, as we had already gone to the expense of advertising and had also planned a rally for Friday night. The Freshmen had the word ready in the field in hopes that a game might be held. Twenty-three people, representing the whole school, called up the office between five and six o'clock only to learn: "No game, no rally!" We wonder if it is safe to advertise games any more, only to be turned down in this manner.

Another one of our schoolmates has left us. Leo Flower, who is now going to school at Monument.

For the past week the assembly and class rooms have been frequently visited by pupils from the grade rooms who are selling tickets for the Art Exhibit. There are eight rooms in the ticket selling contest, which are divided into two sections. The opportunity room is listed with section one, which consists of the smaller pupils. The grade that sells the most tickets in each section will win a picture for its room.

Mrs. Clark's second grade, the fifth, sixth, seventh and the opportunity room had no tardy marks for the month of October. The second grade also had the highest per cent attendance, which was 92.5.

Yell practice was held in the high school assembly last Wednesday noon, although it took our sergeant-at-arms, an eighty-pound Hercules, to make some of them yell. Duck Lee made a very good leader, as mounted on a chair, with his arms waving frantically.

he led us in our football song, "Team O' Mine"

The football team of Pendleton high will play the team of our high school on Saturday, November 13th. This is a boost for Heppner high school to be able to play one of the teams of the larger towns.

S. W. Spencer, cashier of Farmers & Stockgrowers National Bank, returned on Friday from a stay of several days in Portland, where he was called last week on business.

FORMING GOOD READING HABITS. If parents wish their children to form good reading habits they must first form such habits themselves. And there is no better way to do this than to bring into the household a periodical that will be of interest to every member of it; that will supply the best reading for old and young. Among the periodicals of this description, The Youth's Companion is unique. Not only does it aim to entertain and inform boys and girls in their teens as its name suggests, but there is not a page in it that parents can pass over with indifference.

The 32 issues of 1922 will be crowded with serial stories, short stories, editorials, poetry, facts and fun. Subscribe now and receive: 1. The Youth's Companion—52 issues in 1922. 2. All the remaining issues of 1921. 3. The Companion Home Calendar for 1922. All for $2.50. 4. Or include McCall's Magazine, the monthly authority on fashions. Both publications, only $3.00. THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, Commonwealth Ave. & St. Paul St., Boston, Mass. New Subscriptions Received at this Office.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION—ISOLATED TRACT. Public Land Sale. Department of the Interior, U. S. Land Office at The Dalles, Oregon, Nov. 3, 1921.
