

Local Happenings

Walter Draman and family of Parkers Mill were visitors in this city on Saturday last.

Grover Goff who is a ranchman of the Gardane district, was doing business in this city Saturday.

Eugene Gentry, one of the hustling farmers living just outside the city limits of Lexington, was in Heppner on Monday to attend to business matters.

FOR SALE—116-acre cattle ranch near Fossil, Oregon, at $7.00 per acre. Write to Mrs. F. A. Cody, 116 Straughan Ave., Boise, Idaho.—Advertisement.

TAKE NOTICE—The Guild of All Saints church will hold a window sale at Miss Smith's variety store on Saturday, November 19th, beginning at 10:00 a. m.

E. S. Simonton, of Lexington, was a pleasant caller at this office while in the city Tuesday, and had his name added to our subscription list. Mr. Simonton is farming the Andrews place out in the Alpine district.

Wm. Huebner, Sand Hollow farmer and poultry raiser, came to town Tuesday, bringing in a consignment of eggs. Mr. Huebner supplies this market with a lot of fine eggs, making the trip to town about once a week.

Tudal Robison of Eight Mile was in the city Monday to qualify as administrator of the estate of the late Chas. H. Bullis of Hardman. Mr. Bullis died having quite a little property interests having quite a little property interests to be administered upon.

W. T. Craig, who farms a short distance out north from Ione, was in this city on Monday to look after some business matters. Mr. Craig would be pleased to see some rain out his way; it would be of much benefit to the grain that is beginning to come up.

George Perry recently bought the Nate Cecil place near Cecil from C. C. Clark, of Arlington, and expects to move on to it soon with his family. This is a fine little place right on the creek, all under ditch and set to alfalfa and George will make him a good home there.

Mr. Anderson Hayes of this city was united in marriage to Miss Edith Davis in Portland on November 10th. Miss Davis formerly taught school in the Hayes district on Rhea creek and it was at this time that the young people became acquainted. After a short honeymoon they will be at home on the Hayes farm on Rhea creek.

G. H. Campbell and W. Ross Smith, representing the Masonic Mutual Life Association of the District of Columbia, were in Heppner a few days this week in the interests of this fraternal association. They have been calling upon members of the Masonic order in this city and soliciting their support of the Association.

Cleo Brenner, who formerly lived in the Eight Mile section and for a number of years raised wheat on the Brenner farm, came up from Roseburg the end of the week and has been here for a few days looking after business affairs. Mr. Brenner is now engaged in

LIST YOUR LAND NOW

Those who have Wheat Farms, Alfalfa and Stock Ranches for sale should call at my office and list the same at once, so as to get in on the fall and winter demand. I have sold a couple of big wheat ranches just lately, and I have prospects who are looking for others. Wheat ranches especially are going to be in demand this fall and next spring.

IF YOU REALLY WANT TO SELL you must be prepared to ask considerably less for your land than it was held at during and immediately following the war, when wheat and other farm products brought high prices. Regret this as we may, these changed conditions exist, and the farms that change hands the next year or so are the ones in which the buyer can see a bargain, or at least good value. My exclusive time will be devoted to the real estate business, and business entrusted to me will receive prompt and efficient attention.
