you must be prepared to ask considerably less for your land than it was held at during and immediately following the war, when wheat and other farm products brought high prices. Regret this as we may, these changed conditions exist, and the farms that change hands the next year or so are the ones in which the buyer can see a bargain, or at least good value. Service That Looks Ahead

The First National Bank service is helpful for the reason that it is planned and applied to care for all your financial and business needs-the ordinary everyday demands and also those unusual in nature.

Today you can prepare for tomorrow by building up a cash reserve and making your plans known to us, so that when the proper time comes, you are in a position to carry out your plans with a cash reserve at hand and the privilege of going over all detail with our officers in a confidential way.
