Local Happenings

Wanted—Work by woman, day or week; inquire this office.—Advertisement.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Latourell are spending the week visiting in Portland and at Gresham.

Emil Carlson, successful grain raiser of the Gooseberry country, was doing business in Heppner on Saturday last.

Dwight Misner, wheatgrower residing out north of Ione, was in this city on Saturday to attend the Farm Bureau meeting.

Miss Rita Neal, daughter of Mrs. R. A. Thompson, came home on Thursday for a visit during the holidays. She is a student at O. A. C. this winter.

J. L. Harvey and Chas. Nanneman, successful farmers of the Ione country, were in Heppner on Saturday to attend the meeting of the county Farm Bureau.

Miss Helen Barratt, student at O. A. C. returned home on Thursday evening last and will spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Barratt, in this city.

Jasper Crawford came up from Corvallis on Thursday and will visit with the home folks during the holidays, returning to his studies at O. A. C. right after the first of the year.

Miss Mary Clark, who is attending St. Paul's Academy in Walla Walla, arrived home on Thursday evening last and will spend the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark.

Miss Violet Corrigan arrived from Corvallis on Thursday last and will spend the Christmas holidays here with her parents on Butter creek below Pine City. Miss Corrigan is a student at O. A. C.

Ben Juslay, young farmer living near Ione, visited Heppner on Saturday to attend the Farm Bureau meeting. This meeting was quite well attended by farmers from the north end of the county.

Mrs. Jeff Jones departed on Monday for Oakland, Calif., where she was called on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. Ellis Henriksen. Mrs. Jones expects to spend some time in California.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Freund of the Past have been spending the past week at Heppner, being called here by the death of Mrs. Freund's father, Geo. A. Stevenson. They have returned to their home.

Miss Margaret Crawford, who is teaching the school in the Troadon district out east of Morgan this winter, came home on Monday to spend her Christmas vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vawter Crawford.

Miss Leta Humphreys and Roland Humphreys came home from Eugene on Saturday, where they are students at the University of Oregon, and will spend the Christmas holidays with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Humphreys.

John Stevenson returned to his home at Pilot Rock on Friday. He was here to attend the funeral of his brother, George A. Stevenson, and was accompanied by Herbert Driskell, brother of Mrs. G. A. Stevenson, who now lives at Pilot Rock.

Miss Ann Roberts, who is teaching the Ayers school on Butter creek this winter, is spending her Christmas holidays in this city, visiting with her relatives. Miss Roberts is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts of Portland.

Mrs. Glenn Hayes, sister of Mrs. Geo. Stevenson, came down from her home near Pendleton on Wednesday last to be present at the funeral of the late George Stevenson. She returned to her home after spending a few days with relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Keithly arrived in the city from their home in Walla Walla on Sunday and will spend a couple of weeks visiting with friends and relatives here and at Hardman. Mr. Keithly is connected with the Forest office at Walla Walla and is now taking his annual vacation.

J. O. Kincaid, farmer of the Ione section, was in Heppner Saturday to attend the county meeting of the Farm Bureau. Mr. Kincaid is located on the farm of the late J. L. Kincaid, his father, in the lower Gooseberry district and reports that it has been a very dry season out that way, with the fall sown grain coming along well.

The little child of Mrs. Irene Murphy, which was quite severely burned by falling into a bucket of hot water at the home of Al Henriksen near Cecil, where Mrs. Murphy was at work some two weeks ago, is reported to be getting along quite well under the care of Dr. McMurdo at the Gentry Surgical hospital in this city. Mrs. Murphy is desirous of getting work by the day or week, in order to help support herself and child and anyone in the city who can render her assistance in this manner will be doing a good deed. She comes quite well recommended as a housekeeper and is willing to work.

Keith's impersonation, shows a sisterly affection for him. Keith finally makes a clean breast of the affair, departs and journeys down the Saskatchewan. The climax of the picture is summed up in the surprise that awaits Keith—"At The River's End."

The roles of both John Keith and Derwent Conniston are portrayed by Lewis Stone, who reaches heights seldom attained in dual-roll depiction. He is supported by such popular stars as Marjorie Daw, J. Barney Sherry, Jane Novak, Charles West and Togo Yamamoto.
