BRIEF DIGEST OF AN ACT PASSED BY THE SPECIAL SESSION

Providing for the supervision and regulation of the transportation of persons and property for compensation over any public highway by motor vehicles.

The new automotive legislation is interpreted as affecting all corporations, persons or companies owning, controlling, operating or managing any motor vehicle used in the business of transportation of persons or property for compensation over the public highways of the state, excepting being made to such vehicles as operate exclusively within the limits of an incorporated city or town.

The Public Service Commission, in its administration of the act, is authorized to supervise and regulate such features as rates, services and facilities from the standpoint of their reasonableness, safety and adequacy and to exercise jurisdiction in such matters affecting the relationship of such companies with the passenger and shipping public.

All companies or individuals subject to the act and engaged in the operation of this class of public transportation must first obtain from the Commission a certificate or permit setting forth the terms and conditions covering such operations, also to file a surety bond or liability insurance and good faith undertaking. The maximum license fee is fixed at ten (10) dollars per vehicle.

The necessary application blanks, including a request for pertinent data, accompanied by copies of the laws are furnished by the Public Service Commission promptly upon request. The County Clerks and County Judges of the various counties have been supplied with copies of the new law for the information of the general public.

The Commission requests the co-operation of the automotive industry and the general public in the introduction of and compliance with the new law in matter and spirit.

Heppner's Xmas Offering to Near East Relief Is Sent In

J. J. Nye, treasurer of the Near East Relief committee for this county, notified $264.34, Heppner's Christmas offering to the sufferers of the Near East. Of this, the fourth grade of the public school gave $3.00; the Brotherhood, $25.21; the Hebekah Lodge, $15.75; the Christian Sunday School, $13.37; and the Federated Sunday School, $147.91. There will be no more clothing drives, but clothing is needed, and persons having clothing they are willing to donate may send the same at any time by parcel post to the Near East Relief, 602 Stock Exchange Building, Portland, Oregon. Whenever a shipment has accumulated, it is sent forward by the first ship. Anyone desiring to assist with money may make payment through Mr. Nye.

HEPPNER HILIFE

Edited By JUNIOR ENGLISH CLASS

Twelve men have been chosen for the basketball squad, as follows: Ferguson, Witteraft, Wright, Lee, Paul McKee, Duff, Boyd, Clabough, Doherty, Allen, Cason, Copenhaver, and Husek.

Doughnut basketball will continue, although there has been a new alignment of players in the senior division, leaving three teams.

Messrs. Philip Mahoney and Everett Wilkinson motored to Lexington last Saturday to see if the Lexington high school boys could play a game here that night. They agreed to come here and play us, but the car they were to come in was disabled by a frozen radiator and the game had to be called off.

One of the main attractions at the P. T. meeting next Tuesday afternoon will be characteristic folk dances of several countries given by some of the girls in physical culture class. The list includes an American minuet by Florence Cason and Velma Case, a Russian dance by Elaine Siesbee, a Norwegian dance by Dorothy Pattison and Lucia Henge, a Spanish dance by Dorothy Hill and a Scottish dance by Ethyl Mikesell. The work will be supervised by Miss Moore.

All students returned to school last Tuesday after a vacation, and are now looking forward (?) to the semester exams which will begin next week.

An informal dance was given by the alumni and students of O. A. C. in honor of the Senior of December 29 at the Fair Pavilion. Invitations were also extended to the Juniors. The hall was decorated in the O. A. C. colors, orange and black, and a three-piece orchestra furnished the music. Punch was served by two girls wearing O. A. C. rosettes caps. It was pronounced the best dance of the season by every one who attended, and we hope there will be more like it.

CECIL ITEMS OF INTEREST

Geo. A. Miller of Highview was calling on the mayor on Friday.

Mrs. Hazel Logan and children from Ione are visiting friends at Four Mile.

Carl Troedson and W. Swanson from their ranch near Ione, were calling in Cecil vicinity on Friday.

Miss Inez Easton of Myrtle Point was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Krebs at the Last Camp.

Miss A. C. Hynd was the guest of Miss Mildred Henriksen at Strawberry ranch on Monday and Tuesday.

Everett Logan and family of Fairview ranch have moved into the Logan cottage at Cecil for the school term.

Herbert Hynd of Butterfly Flats and Clifford Henriksen of Willow Creek ranch were Arlington visitors Friday.

Cecil Thorne and Walter Pope were calling on friends around Cecil during the week, before leaving for Eight Mile.

C. A. Miller of Heppner honored Cecil with a visit during the week and was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Krebs at the Last Camp.

Miss Georgia Summers, student of Franklin High School at Portland, arrived at the Last Camp on Saturday to spend her vacation.

Misses Malinda and Sara A. May arrived in Cecil on Saturday and will spend their vacation with their parents at Lone Star ranch.

Ed Nelson of Heppner is a busy man these days helping H. J. Streeter with his wood saw. Ed spent Xmas with friends at Pilot Rock.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Phillips of Portland arrived at Willow Creek ranch on Monday and will work for A. Henriksen during the coming busy season.

Warner Stender and sister Miss Florence arrived on Saturday at Ione and will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender for some time.

Arthur Turner returned from Hubbard, Ore., on Friday where he has been visiting friends, and will now resume his work at Dotheboys Hill ranch.

Miss Mildred Henriksen, student of Canby school, arrived at Strawberry ranch on Saturday and will visit with her parents before returning to her studies.

Roy Scott, carpenter for Jack Hynd, and Geo. Brander arrived Saturday at Butterfly Flats with a fine bunch of sheep from Hynd Bros' ranch at Trouton.

W. G. Palmater of Windybrook was seen in Cecil on Thursday delivering turkeys we are told, but we think it must have been canaries by the size of the box he was carrying.

David Hynd of Sand Hollow and campmaster Geo. P. Anderson arrived at Butterfly Flats on Saturday with a fine bunch of cattle from Hynd Bros' ranch at Ukiah which will be wintered at Cecil.

Mr. and Mrs. Oral Henriksen and daughter, Miss Anna Josephine, left on the local for Heppner for their ranch above Heppner after spending the holidays with their parents at the Willow Creek ranch.

The roof of our school building is in a very poor condition. When the weather does not act just right, we often receive a shower from above.

Several Latin plays, one of which is to be presented to the assembly, were procured by Miss Moore, Latin instructor, while in Salem recently. The Latin and Caesar classes will learn the play as part of their class work.

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH
Lord's Day, January 8.

Had God forgotten you at the beginning of this week your funeral would have been held on Tuesday, but he remembered you, and you are still alive and active. It's a square deal not to forget Him, as we make our plans; it is far better to include in yours the attendance on the Sunday church services. You will be cordially welcomed at the First Christian Church, Bible school 10 a. m., communion and preaching at 11, and Christian Endeavor and preaching service in the evening. "Come and worship with us and we will do things good."

A. B. Strait was over from Boardman Wednesday to present a new petition for a ferry franchise to the county court. Mr. Strait has moved the location of his ferry again and desires to get a landing on the Oregon side of the Columbia at Boulder, which is just opposite Alderdale in Washington. If this franchise is granted, it will not be necessary for the Portland Chamber of Commerce to take away that road money from Pendleton in order that the Walla Walla cut-off on the Columbia highway be constructed. The Yakima and all contingent Washington territory that tourists is interested in can route their tourists via the Strait ferry and save lots of travel. Mr. Strait is convinced this new location is just the ideal one for a ferry.

R. H. Lee and family are new arrivals from Portland. Mr. Lee being the fireman on the Heppner local at the present time.

Rabbit Shooters and "Gun Men" Please Take Notice

At a meeting held in the office of County Agent Calkins last evening, a rabbit hunt was organized to take place on Sunday next. Some fifteen people were present at this meeting and signed up for the hunt, and it is desired to get as many more as possible. Those who will take part in this hunt are requested to leave their names either with C. H. Latourel at his garage, or at the store of Patterson & Son. On Saturday afternoon, Mr. Latourel and Capt. J. W. Cook will choose teams from the list of names and complete the organization for the hunt. No guns of larger calibre than .22 specials will be allowed, and the losing team in the contest will "set up" the eats to the winners. The contest gives promise of being a hot one, and in the meantime Mr. Rabbit better be seeking out safe places for hiding, for his tribe will be greatly reduced when the assault is made. The hunt will take place in the north end of the county.

Live and Let Live

One of the most appealing features of "Live and Let Live," William Christy Cabanne's powerful Robertson-Cole production to be seen at the Star Theater Sunday is the humanness of the characters which move throughout the story. There are no "movie" of fictitious types, no dark, smirking villains "still pursuing," no curly-headed, strong-armed heroes or simpering, sobbing little ingenues. There are instead the simple, kindly folk one meets in every-day life.

Patrons-Teachers' Association Meeting.

The regular monthly meeting of the Patrons-Teachers' Association will be held in the High School auditorium on Tuesday, January 10, at 2:30 in the afternoon. The program will be as follows:

Playlet, "Washington at Valley Forge" and dramatization of "The Mountain and the Squirrel" by the 4th grade.

Piano duet by Willetta Barratt and Doris Mahoney.

Folk dances by Miss Moore's class. All members and friends are urged to attend.

MRS. LLOYD HUTCHINSON, Sec.

Former Heppner Tailor Dies.

Word was received here on Monday by Guy M. Anderson, secretary of the local lodge of Elks, announcing the death of Louis Pearson, a member of the Heppner lodge, and formerly engaged in the merchant tailoring business in this city. Mr. Pearson retired from business here shortly after the big fire of 1918, in which his place of business and stock of goods were destroyed. When he left Heppner he was in failing health, but had been much better since going to Salt Lake. His death was from heart disease.

Revival at Lexington.

Evangelist F. Wallace Cook is now with the Church of Christ at Lexington. The meeting began with him Sunday with a packed house both morning and evening. The spirit is fine and a great gathering is expected as well as much help to the church and county. Evangelist Cook is making good all that is expected. He is a very live speaker and full of Bible knowledge in the old gospel. Services are held every evening except Saturday at 7:30 o'clock. The Bible School marks to reach the one hundred next Lord's Day. Not only is everyone invited to come but you will all be glad that you came. Arthur A. Harriman, Pastor.

Relief Corps Will Install.

The annual installation of officers of the Relief Corps will be held at 10 o'clock on Wednesday, January 11th, at 2:30 p. m. Refreshments will be served and all members are requested to be present. A special invitation is extended to the veterans of the Grand Army.

BERTHA DREW GILMAN, President.

Miss Opal Blizges, of the local telephone exchange, is spending the week in Portland enjoying her vacation.

First Legion Smoker Friday Night Was Snappy Affair

A good crowd attended the first Legion smoker of the season at the Fair pavilion last Friday evening, and they were entertained by several good bouts. The first match on the card, between Copenhagen and Witcraft, went to the opener on two straight falls. Witcraft was too light and a trifle young for such an old hand as "Cope" but shows promise of being a very clever mat man when he has had time to develop.

The four-round boxing match between Johnson and Eads was snappy one, and although Johnson seemed to have the edge, Eads made him extend himself. These two will take on the best slugger at Ione the last of this week, Johnson meeting Alast and Eads taking on Sperry.

Of the two feature events of the evening, the wrestling match between Harry Turner and Harvey Bauman was far and away the best. While both men took one fall, they were working all the time, and were very evenly matched although Turner outwings Bauman by a score of points. The other feature, four rounds of boxing between Leu-alten and Valentine, was rather disappointing because the boys did not show the pep that was expected of them.

A fast match between Bucknum and Ward took well, Bucknum winning the decision. It is expected that the Heppner post will entertain a team from Ione soon, and when that comes off there will be something worth while attending. For the local boys want to even up their football record.

Ralph Sperry and Woman Companion Hurt in Crash

Patrolman Ralph Sperry, 231 Knott street, is in St. Vincent's hospital with a broken collar bone and Mrs. Josephine Nellie, his companion, is in the same hospital badly hurt, the result of an automobile smashup at East Eleventh street North and Schuyler street about 5:20 last night. At the time of the accident Patrolman Sperry was supposed to be on duty.

Margaret Cook, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Cook, 436 East Eighteenth street North, who drove the automobile that was struck by Sperry's machine, alleged in her accident report that Sperry was drunk and that a pint bottle of liquor was taken from him after the accident.

Sperry's car struck the Cook car on the right rear wheel, spinning it around and shaking up the occupants. His machine then overturned, pinning him and Mrs. Newkirk beneath it. Miss Cook was unhurt—Tuesday Oregonian.

LOCAL NEWS HAPPENINGS

For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world; but that the world through Him might be saved—John 3:17. Suggested by Livingstone.

Sam Turner returned home from Portland the first of the week. He enjoyed a few days of the vacation season in the big city.

Elmer Peterson and Theo. Hughes, U. of O. students who have been spending the holidays with the home folks, returned to Eugene on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Keithly returned to their home at Walla Walla on Saturday, after spending ten days visiting with relatives and friends here and at Hardman.

Born—At their home in the E. F. Swagart neighborhood northeast of Lexington, Tuesday, January 2, 1922, to Mr. and Mrs. Dan Wray, a 9-pound daughter.

J. E. Mangrove runs a small farm on lower Itona creek and he reports conditions quite good in his locality. He was in Heppner on Wednesday looking after business affairs.

Dr. McMurdo reports the birth of a 10½-pound son to the wife of Guy Fuller, at the home of Adam Knoblock on Rhea creek, Dec. 26. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Fuller is at Monument.

Mr. Frank Turner took charge of the school in the Kelley district Tuesday morning, and will finish the term. Miss Gertrude Lee, who was teaching this school, resigned at the holiday season.

W. T. McRoberts underwent an operation at his home in this city on Wednesday. Dr. Chick performed the operation, and in the course of ten days or two weeks Mr. McRoberts should be able to get out again.

A short letter received from Mrs. Carrie Vaughn this week states that she is with her brother at Centralia, Wash., who has been very sick but is now improving. They are having lots of winter over there at present.

One of the little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Farley had her hand broken one day this week, while coasting near their home in this city. Dr. Chick looked after the injuries, and the little lady is getting along all right.

A farmer residing in the Fairview district south of Ione, was in the city for a short time yesterday. He is hoping for a heavy fall of snow; says it will be a mighty good thing for the grain that is coming up.

Mrs. Tom Johnson, who has taken the place of Miss Bunge as county nurse, was called to Pendleton for a few days this week. Miss Bunge resigned her position here as county nurse and returned to her home in the east to be married.

A very enjoyable social time was had by the alumni and students of O. A. C. at the Fair Pavilion on last Thursday evening. Students of Heppner high school were specially invited guests and some fifty couples were present to enjoy a few hours of dancing.

Mrs. M. D. Clark returned from Portland on the first of the week. With Mrs. W. P. Mahoney, Miss Vera Mahoney and Mrs. A. L. Ayers, Mrs. Clark was on last Friday evening initiated into the White Shrine, a new "side degree" of the Order of Eastern Stars.

John G. Nilsson, for many years a resident of the Ione section, died at that place on Monday evening after an illness of some duration. Mr. Nilsson was a carpenter and huller by trade and had followed this line for many years in this county. He was a member of the I. O. O. F. and Masonic orders. His funeral is to be held at Ione at 2 o'clock today.

Friends of Vernon Wald are glad to know he is out of the hospital and is at home at Stannfield, getting along very nicely. He has been in the St. Anthony hospital at Pendleton for the past two months with a broken leg. A horse bucked into a concrete watering trough with him. He threw himself clear except his foot which caught, breaking his leg just above the ankle. It was a bad break and by the time he reached the hospital it was in very bad condition.

Bootleggers to Portland.

H. P. Sweetland, deputy U. S. Marshal, arrived in Portland on last Thursday evening, and on Friday morning returned to the city, having in charge Harley and Elmer Matteson, who will have to answer before the U. S. district court on a charge of violating the prohibition law.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Mahoney returned from Portland last evening. They have been spending several days of the past week visiting in the metropolis.

SANTA CLAUS VISITS LEXINGTON SCHOOLS

The teachers and pupils of Lexington school were very pleasantly surprised by a visit from Santa Claus Friday morning, December 23.

When the teachers arrived at school in the morning, each teacher's desk was filled with candy and oranges for each pupil in her room, with an extra box of choice candy for the teacher. A little American flag was in the middle of each huge pile. Santa also left a long letter to be read to the pupils, telling of his hardships in reaching the school houses. Many little hearts were made glad by this generous and big hearted Santa Claus.

The first of a series of educational films from the Extension Department of the University of Oregon was shown Tuesday evening, Dec. 27, at the movie hall. These pictures were shown under the auspices of the Parent-Teachers' association of Lexington. It is hoped that a program of this kind will be held once a month during the remainder of the school year. About 200 parents and children were present.

A delightful Christmas program was given Christmas night by the Sunday School and choir of the Congregational church. This Sunday school also remembered the Near East sufferers and sent in an offering of $40.36 to the relief fund.

The Lexington high school boys are practicing basketball in the movie hall now.

The pupils of the high school and the grades will give a program consisting of drills and calisthenics in the near future.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teachers' Association will be held Tuesday afternoon, Jan. 10, at 2 o'clock in the High School auditorium instead of Tuesday evening on account of the series of meetings being held in the Christian church here.

Mrs. Livingstone of Heppner will address the meeting on the subject of "Good Literature." She is a very able speaker and we are expecting to hear something good. A good attendance is urged.

The members of the C. E. of the Christian church of Lexington held a watch party last Saturday evening, Dec. 31. Devotional services were begun shortly before the ending of the old year and were continued until the beginning of the new year.

Friends of Vernon Wald are glad to know he is out of the hospital and is at home at Stannfield, getting along very nicely. He has been in the St. Anthony hospital at Pendleton for the past two months with a broken leg. A horse bucked into a concrete watering trough with him. He threw himself clear except his foot which caught, breaking his leg just above the ankle. It was a bad break and by the time he reached the hospital it was in very bad condition.

Revival Will Begin January 15

Harmon and Gates, national evangelists, will begin a series of revival meetings at the First Christian Church here, January 15, and plan to continue as long as the interest in that work justifies. This is a strong team, and the community has every reason to anticipate a great revival of religion under the inspiration of their leadership.
