

SENATOR CHARLES HALL

I submit my candidacy to the Republicans of Oregon for the nomination for Governor. Following are some of the principles for which I stand:

1. I have made no pre-election promises and I will make none, except those herein stated.
2. Taxes on general property must be reduced. I favor substituting not to exceed ten departments for the seventy or more existing State Commissions. (Illinois System.)
3. Not only reduction of taxes, but improved marketing facilities and increased credit are essential to insure the prosperity of the farmer.
4. A more equitable adjustment of the automobile license tax with due regard to the actual value of the car. Gasoline tax for highways only.
5. As to my attitude on the labor question, I refer to my employees, and my legislative record.
6. Completion of the State Highway System with special attention to market roads.
7. The public school is one of the fundamental factors in our system of Government. I favor compulsory attendance in the primary grades. Teach pure Americanism to all pupils, beginning at an early age. Continue to strengthen and build up this typical American institution.
8. Strict enforcement of all laws.
9. I am against Japanese land ownership or control.

Senator Charles Hall of Marshfield, who has long been mentioned as one of the strongest prospective candidates for Governor, has announced definitely that he will enter the gubernatorial race. This announcement has been expected by his friends for some time, as strong pressure has been brought to bear upon the Coos and Curry Senator since his name was first mentioned as a prospective candidate.

He was born on a farm in Jefferson County, Pennsylvania, and came to Oregon in 1901. Shortly thereafter he began his business career as a clerk in a drug store at Clatskanie, Oregon. Eventually he acquired ownership of the drug store, sold it and bought a drug store in Hood River, where he lived until 1914. In Hood River his ability for organization asserted itself. During the eight years he spent in that town, he was one of the builders of the telephone system there, the Oregon-Washington Telephone Company, and built the Central Building, Oregon Hotel and the Hall Building, and owned and planted a number of orchards in the Hood River Valley. He also served as Director and President of the Hood River Commercial Club.

His activities were transferred to Coos Bay in 1914 and immediately thereafter a number of new organizations in that district came into being. He organized the Coos and Curry Telephone Company of which he is President today; organized the Bank of Southwestern Oregon in 1917 and was President of that institution until 1921.

Outside of his business activities in Marshfield, he soon became one of the prominent citizens of that district. He was one of the original promoters of the State Highway program. He was elected Senator from the Eighth Senatorial District comprising Coos and Curry counties in 1920.

Senator Hall soon became one of the leaders in state-wide politics as a fearless exponent of the highway program. As a legislator he played a prominent part in all important legislation during both sessions in 1921. He risked censure from the exponents of the 1925 Exposition Bill when he refused to listen to any proposed increase in the road funds for the purpose of financing the Fair. Hall's undeviating course in this latter action brought forth the highest praise from all parts of the State.

Since his debut into state-wide politics, the leadership in various non-political movements has gravitated naturally to him. He is a member of the Oregon Land Settlement Commission and served for three years as President of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce and is now a director of that organization.

Friends of Senator Hall proclaim him as a natural leader, and point with pride to his record of achievements in public and private life. Others concede that his judgment is sound and admit that no outside pressure or logrolling can sway him from any program or movement to which he has dedicated himself.

Mr. Hall was married in 1906 in Portland to Ann English. They have three children, two boys thirteen and seven, one girl nine.

Cecil to attend the party given by the freshmen Friday night. She also remained for the basketball game Saturday.

The second boys' basketball team assembled Tuesday at one o'clock to have their pictures taken.

The high school students, who have been attending the state Christian Endeavor convention at Salem, returned Tuesday night with many good reports.

Mrs. Johnson, the county nurse, devoted Thursday and Friday of last week to examining the high school students. She found several who were not quite up to standard in all things.

Owing to impassable roads, the game with Pilot Rock at Pilot Rock was called off. Hardman also sent word that they would not come here to play on account of diseases here.

The Heppner Independents played the high school team last Saturday. The game was loosely played. The Independents had only three regulars and the high school the same. The final score was 32 to 12 in favor of the high school. The Sophomore-Senior and Freshman-Junior girls got together two teams and played a game that can be summed up in the one word, "bum." The final score was 4 to 2.

The second year domestic art class has been having house planning and decorating, but is very glad to get back to sewing again. Some say they would rather live in Abraham Lincoln's log cabin than to plan a home. The Heppner boys and girls go to Lone Friday, February 24, to play a double header basketball game. The girls are rather enthusiastic about it as they are going to try to even up the past score made here on our floor by the lone girls January 20. The boys won then, and we hope they will again. They will be more likely to if you will follow them down and boost a little for Heppner High.

We see that the old "cry" for annual snaps has begun to appear on the board again. Last year this call adorned the board for weeks and we suppose that it will do the same this year.

My! If there were only a few more birthdays of great people in more of the months, everyone, especially the students and teachers, would be greatly pleased. Last Wednesday morning school was dismissed after a short patriotic program in honor of Washington's birthday. The program consisted of a talk by Mr. Woodson and several patriotic songs by the high school.

Thelma Hall returned to school Monday after being absent for the last week on account of an injured knee received while playing basketball.

A freshman class meeting was held last week and Leola Bennett was elected vice-president to take the place of Doris Logan. Middies, scarfs, and ribbons adorned the boys of the class of '24 Thursday, Sophomore Dress-Up Day. But the boys were not the only ones dressed in gay attire, for every girl wore a smart gentleman's shirt with a bright tie around the neck. The idea was a purely original one and the three remaining classes enjoyed it immensely. It has been acknowledged that "you'd have to go some" to beat the sophs, when it comes to "dressing up." That evening they met at the home of Prof. James and attended the theater in a body to finish the day right.

The county nurse, Mrs. Johnson, was accompanied by Virginia Dix and Vivian and Lois James last week on her trip to Portland. The girls will have their eyes fitted for glasses.

The domestic science class served a Washington's birthday luncheon to the teachers last Tuesday noon. Small red paper hatchets were used as place cards. The menu was salmon loaf, potato croquette, tomato salad, cake and sherbert.

The total number of pupils served by the domestic science class during last week was one hundred and eighty. This was a decrease of about thirty from the week before.

Last Tuesday, February 21, the long delayed musical-dramatic program was given under the auspices of the Patron-Teachers' association in the high school auditorium. The P. T. A., the high school and the grades were all represented and the program was splendidly given. The main feature of the evening was a farce, "The Burglar," and we think it can be said that it was enjoyed by everyone from the smallest boy to the most sophisticated business man in the audience. The musical numbers were all very good, especially the piano solo by Velma Case. A fairy dance by Dorothy Hill added just the right touch of artistry. As a whole the entertainment was very much a success. About seventy-five dollars was taken in and this will be added to the P. T. A. social fund.

James Joseph O'Sullivan.

James Joseph O'Sullivan, father of Mrs. Lloyd Hutchinson of this city, aged 52 years, died at Emanuel hospital in Portland early Tuesday morning, following an operation for cancer of the stomach, which he underwent on Monday. Funeral services will be held for the deceased on Friday. Owing to indisposition, Mrs. Hutchinson will not be able to attend the funeral, but her husband expected to leave for Portland this morning to be present at the burial. Mr. O'Sullivan had been in the United States for 31 years, and for many years was a resident of Oregon and an engineer. He was the husband of Mrs. Emma O'Sullivan, matron at the Multnomah county farm. Besides the widow he leaves three sons and two daughters, Dennis O'Sullivan and Mrs. Al Hanson of Portland; Mrs. Lloyd Hutchinson of Heppner, and John and Thomas O'Sullivan of Hoisington, Kansas.

law to establish and enforce payment of the amount due him for his services.

The second or supplemental contract covering the additional 110,000 acres and calling for payment of the additional $44,000, the court declares to be ultra vires the board of directors and therefore null and void.

The court then passes to consideration of other expenditures by the board of directors and attacked by the plaintiffs and decides as follows: 1. That the action of the board in voting themselves compensation in excess of $3 per day was unlawful and warrants for the excess amounts should not be paid by the district.

2. That transportation and expenses paid by the directors and their employees in attendance upon conventions and irrigation congresses and not in the actual performance of official duty were not legitimate claims against the district and should not be paid by it.

3. That the expenses of picnics and celebrations are not legitimate charges to be added on the district and that expenses of that nature will be disallowed.

4. That expenses of circulating petitions, attorneys' fees and other charges incurred by the district prior to its organization are not proper obligations of the district and should not be paid out of its funds.

5. That the action of the board of directors in voting $5000 out of the funds of the district to defeat this suit and other pending litigation wherein they were defendants was a palpable abuse of discretion, if discretionary, and that their action was void and cannot burden the district.

6. That counsel performing any actual service for the district as such have their claims to be settled with the existing board, or failing in that they have access to a court of law to enforce their just and legitimate demands.

Finally the court holds that, save as to demands that are not legitimate claims against the district as indicated, there is no sufficient ground to enjoin the collection of the district tax.

This memorandum opinion does not constitute the final findings and decree in this cause, but is a summary of what the final decision of the court will be.

Tom Johnson is preparing to put up a neat little bungalow on his lot on Court street adjoining the J.G. Thomson place. He will begin building right away.

Both Lum Gordon and Will Stewart have agreed upon the weather conditions—they being the local weather prophets—and we are to go "up against" the same brand we are now experiencing, with perhaps some additions of more severe weather in the immediate future. In the old bible times, when prophets did not make predictions that just exactly suit the people, you know what happened, and there is plenty of stones lying hereabouts. We call upon these fellows to dish us up something a little more pleasant, or suffer the consequences.

Arthur Campbell, student of U. of O., who was called to Heppner early the past week owing to the serious illness of his sister, Mrs. Arthur Keene, returned to his studies on Sunday. He expects to return to Heppner a little later in the season as one of the members of the U. of O. orchestra, which will make a short

W. G. Moore, local sawmill man, is rejoicing over the improvement of his line of business. He states that during the past year and more he has not been able to dispose of any of the output of his mill on Willow creek to outside parties, but that now he has orders for all that he can place on board the cars at Heppner. He feels that there is fine prospects ahead for the lumber manufacturer.
