FOR SALE—Good Jersey milk cow, fresh. Phone 25F11.—Adv. 2t.
E. G. Haverstick was a Rhea creek farmer in the city on Saturday.

FOR RENT—Furnished house-keeping rooms. See Mrs. Mattie Adkins.—Adv.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Padberg of Heppner flat were shopping in the city on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shaw were Clarks canyon residents visiting in Heppner Saturday.

Mrs. Alva Jones and her sister, Miss Isabelle Wilson, returned from a visit of a week in Portland, on Tuesday.

Andrew Reaney and Harvey McAlister, prominent residents of Lexington, were visitors in this city for a short time yesterday.

Mrs. Wm. Loudon, of Yakima, Wash., sister of R. A. Thompson, arrived Sunday for a short visit with her relatives and friends at Heppner.

Arnold G. Pieper, prominent young farmer, was in the city on Saturday. He is pleased at the manifest evidence of the final arrival of spring.

W. W. Stabler, who has been buying wethers and lambs in this vicinity for the past two weeks or more, departed the first of the week. He may return here a little later.

Halbert Smith, who resides at Morgan, was brought to Heppner Sunday, suffering from a serious attack of appendicitis. He was taken to the Moore hospital and operated on by Dr. Chick Sunday night, and is now reported to be doing well.

Art Finley and wife were visitors in the city on Saturday. Mr. Finley informs us that he has given up farming down in the "sand" country and expects to get hold of a place nearer to the foothills the coming fall, provided he finds what he wants.

Miss Neva Hayes has been removed from the Moore hospital to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Stacy Roberts where she is nicely located and will be cared for until she recovers from the effect of her injuries received some time since in an auto accident at Pendleton.

Howard Anderson came in from Eight Mile Tuesday to look after business interests here. He was wise and put on his gum boots in anticipation of plenty of trouble in getting over the roads which are in a very bad condition in many places between Heppner and Eight Mile.

Mr. Warren is here from Portland. He is the man with whom Mr. Kingsley traded and he has come to take possession of his business interests. Mr. Warren has lived in Morrow county before so the sage brush is not new to him, and he knows the trials and vicissitudes of the people who farm in this county. Mr. Warren had a general store in Heppner about twenty years ago.—Boardman Mirror. Wonder if this is our old friend Harry; if so, we are glad to welcome him back to Morrow county.

Charles Thomas White, a pioneer resident of Gilliam county, for long years residing on his place at the mouth of Willow creek, died at his home in The Dalles on the 4th of this month, being nearly 84 years of age. He was buried at Arlington by the Masons, of which order he was a member. Mr. White was quite a familiar figure to Heppner people as he conducted an eating house for travelers at Heppner Junction for many years. He is survived by his widow, Mary L. White and four sons and three daughters. Mr. White was also a veteran of the G. A. R. and a member of the Methodist church.

HEPPNER HI LIFE

HEPPNER DEFEATED BY ATHENA AT PENDLETON

Heppner Loses Out in Second Half.

The Heppner boys felt fine when they started for Pendleton but were rather dejected when they got back, which is possibly due to the defeat Athena handed them.

The game started slowly and Heppner scored first on a free throw. Heppner scored again on a field goal by McDuffee and then Athena scored. The score was even until the last few minutes of the half, when Athena began to work her tip off plays and took a six-point lead at the end of the half—score, 16 to 10.

In the second half Kretzer, forward and Harden, center, began to pile up the points for Athena. Kretzer would get the ball in the center of the floor and bounce it up against the backboard; Harden would come in with a rush, catch the ball as it came off the backboard and put it in the basket. The result is to be seen in the score. The passing was poor on both sides and neither side shot well in the first half.

A good many fouls were called on both sides. The technical fouls were divided evenly but Athena had a larger number of personal fouls. Kretzer and Harden were Athena's best men and it was mainly through them that the score mounted so high. Heppner was off-side and "lost" most of the time and no stars appeared except in the last half when Witcraft, guard, got two nice field goals and broke up many of Athena's plays. Final score was 42 to 18 in favor of Athena.

Lineups:
Athena 42 Heppner 18
Veisell F. Doherty
Kretzer F. McDuffee
Harden C. Clabaugh

Lexington Town Team Wins from Heppner 53-32.

The Independent team last Wednesday night played a return game of basketball with the Lexington town team at Leach's hall.

The game started off with a rush and was fast clear through. The small hall was a handicap to the local boys and Lexington scored the highest.

Bill Ridena was star for Lexington and Alvin Boyd for Heppner.

The lineup:
Heppner Lexington
Boyd C. B. Ridena
Gentry F. C. Allyn
Gentry F. C. Allyn
Paul Aiken F. White
Wright G. Johnson
Howell G. L. Ridena

Referee: Dr. Grove.

Just Overheard—in Sewing I.

"Why, I've worried so much my hair's turning red!"

"Doggone! If I get this dress done I'm goin' to have it preserved in a museum!"

"Gee, but that's cute! Wish I'd got one like it!"

"Oh, Miss Norris, what on earth have I done now?"

"Won't we create a sensation town, when we go strutting down there in our new gown?"

"I don't know just how to execute this."

"Let's see—yes, if I keep on, I'll soon have as much done again as I had last Friday."

"Lemme see, too! Oh, yes, wouldn't my name look cute with a 'Madame' before it? Are you going to design in Paris or Hardman?"

Bright Remarks of the K. P.'s.

"There! I've dropped some salad dressing. I'll have to pursue it with the dish-rag."

"Slip me a sandwich, kid, she isn't looking."

"Hey, you big pig, leave some for me!"

"That salad looks awfully sweet. Violet, only this one isn't artistic looking enough."

"Guess I can lick these if I want to."

"I want the one that's got the most on it!"
"This is the most artistic looking four I ever saw."
"Say, why don't you wash the dishes? You make me do everything, dog-gone it!"
"Girls, please don't whistle and sing. This isn't music class."
"Hey you 'bugger,' you've got to wash the dish-pan."
"Oh, Miss Norris, did you burn your finger?"
"Cuss, Miss Norris, cuss!"

A "Frosh" baseball team has been organized and is practicing whenever the weather and field permits. Those on the team are Paul Aiken, Russel Wright, captain, Austin Smith, manager, Clarence Moore, "Red" Dexter, Durward Tash, Claude Hill, Holt Grimes, and Harold Case. They are expecting to play Lexington sometime soon.

Last week Gilliam and Blabee Hardware company finished work on the railing on the cement incline leading to the school house. This is a great benefit to school children especially, and we are very glad that the city council found the means to have it done.
