SUNDAY'S BALL GAME WON BY PENDLETON

A ball team representing the Peoples' Warehouse, general mercantile firm of Pendleton, won over the local nine Sunday by the close score of 11 to 12. As was the case in the game the previous Sunday at Lone, Van Marter's ball tossers got off to a bad start, the visitors getting two scores to their none in the first inning and 6 to 0 in the second. The locals came back hard in the third round, however, and held them 0 to 0, and from then on ran in 11 tallies to the mercantile boys' 4, making the last few innings much more interesting to local fans.

Many excuses may be heard for Heppner's bad start but the reason generally accepted is that they did not get down to playing ball till the game was half over. Broughton, who started in the pitcher's box for Heppner, pitched good ball, according to many fans, allowing the visitors only five hits. Several innings he struck them out in 1, 2, 3 order. Moeller was substituted for Broughton in the sixth and succeeded in holding the visitors to a very few hits. Harrison Elliot, who received for Heppner, deserves commendable mention for the good work he did. Especially so, as it was his first game this season with practically no practice.

Neither team played anything like stellar ball, say witnesses of the game, although it is conceded that Heppner has the best team and would have won if it had not been for their bum start. The Pendleton boys were good sports and the best of feeling prevailed throughout the entire game. Umpire Heard's decisions were taken without a frown by either side.

The line-up was:
Pendleton Heppner
Kennard p. Broughton
Hedley c. Elliot
Peters 1st. McLoughlin
Burey 2nd. Van Marter
Stevens 3rd. Witcraft
Snyder, J. ss. Hopkins
Sylvers lf. Peterson
Allen cf. Anderson
Sylvers rf. Bushay
Substitutions: Pendleton—Ulrich for Kennard; Kennard for Allen. Heppner—Moeller for Broughton; Broughton for Peterson.

First Christian Church April 30, 1922.

God will give you Sunday, April 30 for opportunity, improvement, investment; it will be a wonderful gift, a great inheritance. What are you planning to do with it? Play base ball, go auto riding, picnicing, or look after your spiritual needs? Now candidly, what should you do? Think this through, and you will be at the church services. You are invited to be with us. Bible school 10, Communion and preaching 11, Intermediate C. E. 4, Senior C. E. 6:30, song and preaching service 7:30. Let us greet you at the church. See sketch of proposed new Christian church building in Humphreys Drug store window.

PARTIES AT ROAD CAMP ENGAGE IN FREE-FOR-ALL

District Attorney Notson was called to Lone on Monday to represent the State in a trial before Judge Robinson, growing out of a free for all "scrap" which took place at the Jordan Siding road camp on Saturday. Parties to the affair were Adolph Heidler, local foreman for Warren Construction company and Chas. Conner and his wife, who have been in charge of the camp kitchen. Conner was accused by Heidler of making some derogatory remark concerning him, and when called to account a row precipitated and in the mixup both Heidler and Conner received badly disfigured countenances. Conner is a small man and was no match physically for Heidler, so he called for help and his wife came to his assistance with a short iron poker, which Heidler wrested from her and biffed Conner over the head; then Mrs. C. grabbed up a short shovel, and witnesses stated that she waded into the game in good shape, but it was hard to tell which of the men received the most punishment at her hands, but she delivered the goods in a vigorous and effective manner. The hearing was had before Judge Robinson at Lone, and a number of witnesses were examined. The judge thought that Heidler had received pretty severe punishment, though being the aggressor, and he assessed a fine of $10.

EARLY SEEDING SAFE RULE

Too many farmers wait for what they call ideal conditions before they start their seeding operations. Careful investigations reveal the fact that very few farmers who seeded early last fall in Morrow county haven't anything to regret. Poor stands are found most usually to be a result of late seeding or winter killing of bluestem. In order to check on experiences elsewhere the county agent has taken the pains to investigate the conditions in Sherman county this spring and finds that the early seeding is far ahead of the late seeding there.

The matter was also taken up with D. E. Stephens, superintendent of the Moro Experiment station, to learn what their experience from the station had been the past season. Mr. Stephens is conducting an experiment on the date of seeding by sowing wheat at two-week intervals beginning with September 12th. While the September 12th seeding was a little bit too early for best results, September 26th and October 10th dates of seeding have given the best stands up to date. Mr. Stephens also states that it has been his experience in the past that the best yields had been obtained from the wheat seeded prior to October 20th, which will mean that the average farmer will have to begin his seeding approximately two weeks prior to that time.

Federated Church.

There will be the usual services at the Federated church on Sunday, April 30: Sunday school at 9:45; preaching at 11:30, by Bishop R. J. Cook, of Helena, Montana; Junior Endeavor at 5; Senior Endeavor at 6:30, followed by preaching at 7:30. Come, worship with us; you will enjoy every service.
E. L. MOORE, Pastor.

Bluestem Is Not Winter Hardy

Bluestem is a true spring wheat therefore it cannot be expected to withstand severe winters. Many fields of bluestem have winter-killed the past year and many others are supporting a very poor stand, many of which have been thickened up by spring seeding.

Bluestem has its advantages in that it is a milling wheat which is in demand and in that it has given exceptionally good yields in some sections of this county, however, many of these advantages can be outweighed by the disadvantage of winter killing. Many farmers have stated that they expect to sow a true winter wheat from now on and such action is worthy of consideration.

In some sections Hybrid 128 will yield along with bluestem, in others Turkey-red can be substituted. The advantage of a true winter wheat certainly shows up in practically every section of the county this year.

You will thoroughly enjoy the delightful May Breakfast the Christian Endeavorers will serve at Odd Fellows hall, Friday morning, May 5, from 6 to 9 a. m. Try it out.

Father P. J. O'Rourke, pastor of the Catholic church at The Dalles, was a visitor in Heppner for a few days this week. He was formerly pastor of the church here, and has many friends in this parish.

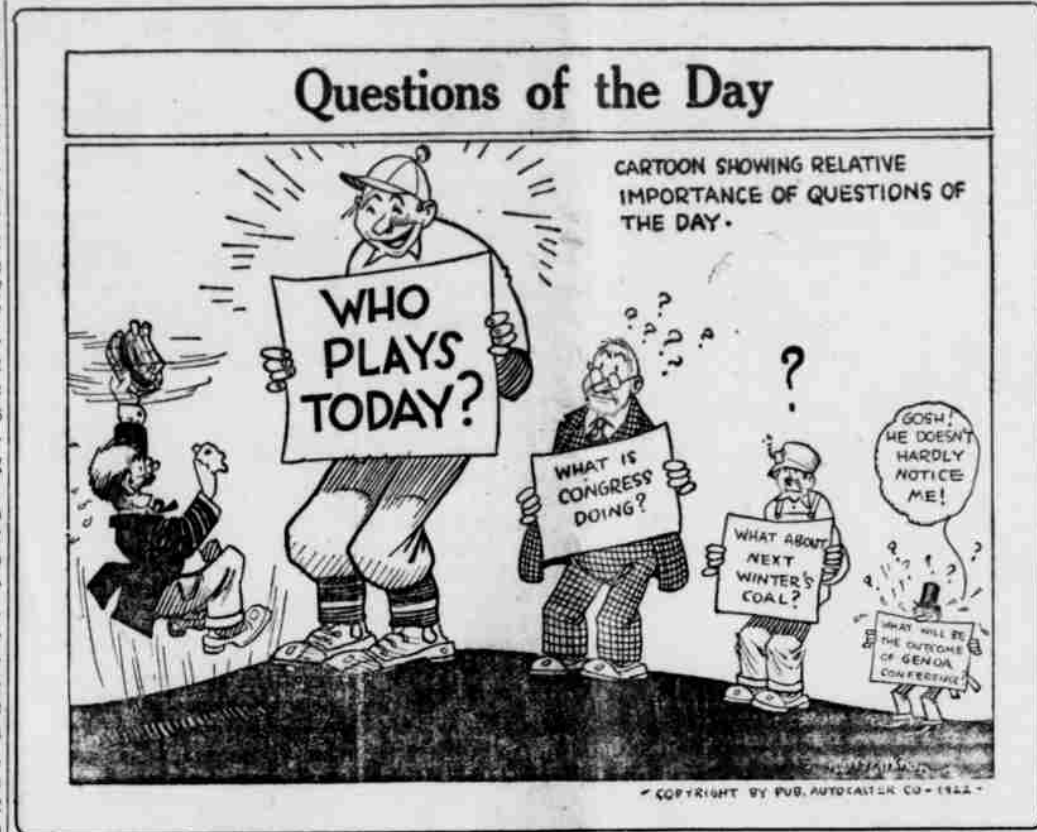

Jobs Are Plentiful But Men Are Scarce Says Agency Head

Jobs are plentiful in Pendleton, not men, according to J. Applegate, manager of the local Pioneer Employment Co., office at 115 E. Webb St. He has calls for many more men than he can supply and has shipped several hundred out of Portland to fill road construction jobs within the past few months. Mr. Applegate has just closed with the contractors in charge of the Arlington highway construction project whereby he furnishes all laborers therefor.

With the establishment of the Pioneer Employment office here, Pendleton has taken on added prestige as a distributing point for labor in eastern Oregon. Mr. Applegate has been here since last September and has firmly established his business. He is associated in business with G. A. Burley, general manager of the Pioneer Employment Co. of Portland, with which office the local man is co-operating.—Pendleton Tribune.

Get Clothing Ready.

The clothing for the Near East sufferers should be gotten ready. Chairman Notson informs us that arrangements for gathering up the clothing will be made and the collecting done early in May. If you have any cast-off clothing that can be used by the sufferers of the Near East, get it ready.

Ex-Army Chaplain Dies Here As a Result of Shell Shock

Rev. James Malloy, a guest at the home of Father Cantwell, pastor of the local Catholic church, for the past month, died in this city on Wednesday night last, after an illness of about a week, the cause of death being shell shock, from which the reverend gentleman had been a sufferer since his service as chaplain in the World War.

Father Malloy came to Heppner a little more than a month ago to visit with his former schoolmate, Father Cantwell. He was traveling in this country in an effort to regain his health, and in the meantime delivering lectures on the war and boosting for the soldiers' bonus measure. He was a native of Ireland, but his home was in New Zealand, and at the breaking out of the World War he returned to England and entered the service as an army chaplain, continuing throughout the war. He was in many of the big battles in Belgium and France, and was with the army at the Dardenelles and in Mesopotamia; was wounded severely several times, gassed, and his nervous system badly wrecked by shell shock. His efforts at restoration proved futile, however, and death resulted from this breakdown.

The remains were taken to The Dalles on Tuesday, where burial was made on Wednesday, he having no immediate relatives in this country so far as could be ascertained.

Neighbors of Woodcraft Entertain Woodmen Brothers

Maple Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft entertained the brothers of Woodcraft, together with husbands and wives at I. O. O. F. hall on last Thursday evening. A chief feature of the evening was the big banquet that followed the rendition of a splendid program. The program was under the guidance of Mrs. Emmet Cochran, and was enjoyed by about 150 people. It was as follows:

- Salute: "The Flag" and flag drill—Mrs. Young at piano; honor guards, Mrs. Boyd, captain, Mesdames Richardson, Fell, Ferguson, Hootman, Cason, Stevenson, Stapleton, and Adkins.
- Song—Mrs. Neva Clabough
- Butterfly dance—Betty Irwin
- Reading—Miss Grey
- Song—Mrs. Marie Cochran
- Whistling solo, Miss Elizabeth Phelps
- Reading—Miss Quisenberry
- Song—Delbert Clabough
- Piano solo—Mrs. Loa Taylor
- Dance—Dorothy Herren
- Song—Mrs. Emmet Cochran
- Grand March—Mrs. E. J. Starkey

County Treasurer's Notice.

Notice is hereby given that registered Morrow County Warrants on the General Fund, up to and including September 30, 1921, will be paid upon presentation at my office on May 10th, on which date all interest ceases on said warrants.
T. J. HUMPHREYS, Treasurer.

Walter Duncan was in the city a few days the first of the week, coming over from Condon, where he now has a good position with the Barker estate company, and where he expects to remain indefinitely.

F. M. Griffin came up from Lone on Tuesday evening and remained over Wednesday to attend the I. O. O. F. anniversary celebration.

I. O. O. F. ENJOY AN- NIVERSARY PROGRAM

Willow Lodge No. 66, I. O. O. F. of this city, celebrated the 103rd anniversary of the order on Wednesday, beginning with a meeting of the lodge at 3 p. m., and received an official visit from Grand Marshal M. L. Watts of Athena.

Owing to the fact that the people over the county are so busy just at this time with spring work—the season being backward and it being necessary that plowing and seeding be rushed—the attendance from lodges over the county was not large. Yet there were 150 or more representatives of the various branches of the order sat down to the banquet in the dining hall at the stippled hour in the evening. This feature of the program was one long to be remembered because of the great abundance of the fine eats spread out before the three-linkers and their families.

At 8 o'clock the popular program, to which the public was invited, was presented to a crowd of about 250 lodge members and friends. This program was of a high order and greatly enjoyed, each individual number being rendered in excellent style, and all performers doing themselves much credit. The program rendered was as follows:

- Ritualistic exercises (anniversary) by Lodge
- Piano solos—Mrs. Loa Taylor
- Reading—Miss Addie Quisenberry
- Whistling solo, Miss Elizabeth Phelps
- Address—M. L. Watts
- Grand Master of Grand Lodge of Oregon
- Vocal solo—Mrs. Helen Walker of Lexington Address, "Odd Fellows and Odd Fellowship"—S. E. Notson
- Indian Club exercises—Miss Ina Moore
- Deputy Grand Master Bowman was scheduled for an address, but a telegram received shortly before lodge opened, announced that he was necessarily detained at home.

Heppner Boy With Winning Debate Team of Willamette

In the Portland Telegram of Saturday evening appears the picture of the Willamette University debating team, composed of Robert Little, Salem; Sheldon Sackett, Sheridan, and Robert Notson, Heppner, with the following comment:

"Willamette University's three men debate team has just passed through the debate season undefeated. The team won a two to one decision over the University of Redlands, Cal., and a unanimous decision over the University of Denver. They elicited the highest praise from the veteran University of Redlands team, which had not been defeated for two years. The University of Denver team lost only one debate this season, that the Willamette, Robert Notson, of Heppner, Ore., Sheldon Sackett, of Sheridan, Ore., and Robert Little, of Salem, Ore., make up the team. Sackett, a senior, is a three year man in debate. Notson, a member of the team last year, is a sophomore, while Little is a freshman from Salem high's championship team of 1921."

The Heppner folks are proud of their representative on this team and extend hearty congratulations to the winners.

Mrs. Walter Cason went to The Dalles on Monday for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John F. Vaughn.

Residence in East Heppner Completely Destroyed by Fire

The residence in east Heppner, belonging to Frank Monahan and located on the place formerly occupied by the J. W. Cowins soda works at the Murphy spring, was totally destroyed by fire on Saturday afternoon. The house was occupied by the families of Ross Langdon, forest ranger, and John V. Vegas, an employee of Sam Lining's auto repair shop. The fire spread so rapidly, and was so far away from town that it could not be reached by the chemical engine, and but little of the effects belonging to the families was saved. Some bedding and other household articles belonging to Mr. Langdon were saved but the Vegas household effects were a total loss. No insurance on either house or contents was carried.

Miss Lulu Hager is visiting with the Dr. J. W. McFall family in Pendleton, and will later accompany them on an auto trip through California expecting to leave about May first and spending the summer touring in the south.

Boardman Cows Tested.

The cows on the Boardman project will be tested for tuberculosis beginning with Monday of next week. These cows are tested by a veterinarian from the State Veterinarian's office free of charge. It is up to the county agent to make all preliminary arrangements and get the veterinarian out to the different farms.

The state and federal government help to bear the loss of the animals which react from the tuberculin test.

A number of members of Willow Lodge No. 66, I. O. O. F. motored to Lone Monday evening and attended a special meeting of Lone lodge to greet grand officers of the order.

LOCAL NEWS HAPPENINGS

"For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation."—Rom. 10:9. Suggested by Livingstone.

Frank Turner and his shearing crew went down to the M. S. Corrigan ranch on Butter creek yesterday, and today begun the shearing of the Corrigan sheep. It has taken some time to get a shearing crew together, owing to a controversy on between shearers and owners as to price; and there has also been some other features entering into the matter concerning just who and how the shearing of many hands was to be financed. The agreed price of 10 cents per head, fixed last January, seems to not suit some of the union shearers, and they have been wanting more and asking for 12 cents, claiming that the advance in the price of wool and sheep justifies their receiving more pay for shearing. Mr. Turner anticipates that he will have no further trouble in getting men for the run of the season, now that the start has been made.

Henry J. Simmons, editor and proprietor of the Fossil Journal, and school superintendent of Wheeler county, was a visitor in Heppner on Tuesday. Mr. Simmons came over to interview Prof. Curfman, of Lone, regarding the superintendency of the Fossil schools for the coming year, and having business at Heppner, he spent a few hours in this city. We acknowledge a very pleasant call from him.

Bishop R. J. Cook, of Helena, Montana, has been a visitor in Heppner all this week, at the home of his son, Capt. J. W. Cook, local agent of the Standard Oil company. Bishop Cook is at the head of the Methodist church in Montana, where he has been located for years, and is credited with having done a great work in that state. He expects to return home the first of the coming week.

J. S. Carter and wife went to Pendleton Saturday, where Mr. Carter expects to undergo an operation for mastoid trouble. He has been a constant sufferer from this trouble for the past three or four months, but was not considered to be in a fit condition, physically, to undertake a major operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhea Luper and Mr. and Mrs. Albert T. King arrived from Portland Tuesday night, being called here by the sudden death of Mrs. Frankie Luper, mother of Mrs. King and Rhea Luper. Mrs. King and husband reside at Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Luper reside in Salem.

Joe Potter, who lived in Morrow county for many years, and was well known here a dozen years or more ago, is visiting in Heppner and contemplating making his home here again. Since leaving Heppner, Joe has lived for the greater part of the time at Walla Walla.

Roy Ashbaugh of Hardman returned from Portland on Monday with his little son who has been under the care of a physician in the city for the past month. An operation was performed on the lad's head, and he is now getting along well.

Sheriff Geo. McDuffee is in Pendleton this week, an interested spectator at the trial of Charles Von Der Ahe, charged with the murder of Matt Jepson. This trial, which is proceeding before Judge Phelps, is attracting large attention.

Gilliam County End of Highway Located by Commission

County Judge L. E. Fowler and county commissioner Sherman Wade returned last night from Portland where they were in conference Wednesday with the state highway commissioners over road matters in the lower end of the county, when it was finally decided to locate the Oregon-Washington highway in Gilliam county down Willow creek, along the foot of the bluffs. The original survey through the creek bottom cut up several alfalfa fields, making the right-of-way costly to the county. Re-locating the route near the bluffs saves this cost to the county, as the commission so located it with the understanding that all claims for right-of-way damages will be waived.

This probably disposes of the proposal to locate the O-W highway from Rhea Siding to a point on the John Day highway south of Arlington. The settlement of the matter as agreed upon at Wednesday's conference appears to be satisfactory to all concerned—to the Willow creek people, to Arlington, to Morrow county, and to the Gilliam county court.—Condon Globe-Times.

MRS. F. LUPER FOUND DEAD IN BED TUESDAY

Mrs. Frankie Luper, for years engaged in the millinery business in this city, and well known throughout this section, was found dead in her apartments at the rear of the millinery store on Tuesday morning, at about 9 o'clock, death evidently coming to her during the latter part of the night, and she must have expired some seven or eight hours before discovery.

Occupying the apartment with Mrs. Luper, but in a separate bedroom, her milliner, Miss Osil Grey, states that she and Mrs. Luper retired at about the same hour and the latter was in the best of spirits and seemed to be well. Mrs. Luper had been having nightmares and on previous occasions Miss Grey had aroused her from the attack, and it was probably from one of these spells that Mrs. Luper passed away, as Miss Grey heard her making a slight noise in the night and hearing nothing more she did not get to her bedside. Miss Grey overslept and it was nearly 9 o'clock Tuesday morning when she entered the room of Mrs. Luper and noticed she was still in bed. Going to her she found her dead and gave the alarm.

The death of Mrs. Luper came as a severe shock to her relatives and friends.

Mrs. Luper was born in Oregon, on her father's donation land claim in Lane county, near Eugene. She was the daughter of Catherine Milliron and Elijah Whitfield Rhea, and at the time of her death was aged 62 years. Her early life was spent in Lane county and with her grandparents, as her mother died when she was but two years old. She was married on January 11, 1882 to James N. Luper, and together they made their home on a farm near Irving, Lane county, where their two children, Leta and Rhea were born.

Mrs. Luper and husband came to Morrow county in 1900, and the summer of 1903 she opened up a millinery store in this city, in which business she was quite successful and eventually she became the owner of the building where she had her store, as well as a nice piece of residence property in the eastern part of town.

She is survived by her husband, James N. Luper, her daughter, Mrs. Alfred T. King of Portland, and son, Rhea Luper, of Salem, besides the following brothers and sisters: C. A. Rhea of this county, T. A. and J. P. Rhea of Hillsboro, Oregon; Mrs. Eliza Brackett and Mrs. Lillian Pies of Portland, Oregon; Mrs. Pete McCarter of Vancouver, B. C.; Mrs. Andrew Tillard of Douglas, Wyoming; Mrs. Ada Wyatt of Santa Cruz, Calif.; Mrs. Nellie Barnard, and Mrs. Estella Veatch of Fossil, Oregon.

Funeral services were held at the Masonic temple this afternoon, Rev. W. O. Livingstone delivering a short address, and the other services at the hall and at the grave being in charge of Ruth Chapter No. 32, Order Eastern Star, of which the deceased had been a prominent member for years. She was also a member of the Rebekahs and the Neighbors of Woodcraft.

MOST OF WOOL AT HEPPNER PASSES TO BUYERS

There has been some lively selling of wool at Heppner this week by the Morrow county producers, and we are informed that on Monday and Tuesday the most of the present season's clip was contracted, the price paid being 30 cents, or thereabouts. The clips represented by Arthur Minor, both fine and coarse, brought the 30 cent price straight through, we understand, and but little wool was taken over at a less price. One dollar per fleece was advanced on the contracts, and Phill Cohn was the principal buyer.

Mrs. Dr. Hayden died at her home in Monument on Tuesday night, death being caused by cancer from which she had been a sufferer for many months. The remains were brought to Hardman for burial, the funeral being held there today and Mrs. W. O. Livingstone of this city conducting the services. Mrs. Hayden was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ingram of Hardman, and is survived by her husband, who is a practicing physician at Monument, her father and mother and several sisters and brothers.

Mrs. Emma Smith, mother of Mrs. W. O. Livingstone, departed for Canyon City, Colo., on Tuesday morning, and will spend a few months visiting with a daughter residing there.
