

Slats' Diary.

By ROSE FARQUHAR.

Friday—Jimmy which is Mrs. Gillem's nephew and is visiting her now at the present time can ask more foolish questions than any I ever seen or heard of. This morning he sat Jale where does a wink go to after you open your eyes. Jale couldn't answer him. And even I had to keep in silence this one time.

Saturday—I guess I am lucky to be living with the parents I got at that even if they do make me work too much at times. Joe White pa gives him a dime every time he mows the lawn and makes him put the money in a saving bank. Then when they are enough dimes his pa takes them out and pays to have the lawnmower sharpened up.

Sunday—Little Jimmy up at Gillem's house is a trade in the Dark at night. The other side Mrs. Gillem put him to bed and he wanted her to leave the light on but she said When I go out you must remember they is a Angel stays here and watches over you. Jimmy answers and says if it's all the same to you you can take the Angel and leave the light.

Monday—ma sent me down to the hardware store to get sum carpet Tax and they was a lady cum in and ask if they had 1 of these Vacuum Cleaners that would sweep and clean rugs and Carpets and dry yure hair and clean out Fether beds and etc. The clerk said to me why didn't she pay a couple more $ and get one that would trim yure corns and wait on the table. & we both laffed at it.

Tuesday—A stranger tried to sell pa a foil handed automobile today. He said the reason he was selling it was because it had just killed his wife, so he didn't have no more use for it.

Wednesday—Went out riding & had a lot of Tire trouble with a few punctures and blowouts and etc and pa cussed. When pa gets mad he cusses and when ma gets mad she cries. Only pa's cussing never gets him anything.

Thursday—They was a lady at are house tonite and we tried to get her to sing but she wouldn't. When she left pa said. I wanted to hear you sing Awfully. She answered and said that she never sung thataway. I no ma was provoked.

There were two men named Brown in a certain village. One lost his wife and the other a head at the same time.

The vicar's wife said, as she supposed on the bereaved Mr. Brown.

"I am so sorry to hear of your great loss," she said sympathetically.

"O, it ain't much matter," was the reply, "she wasn't up to much."

"Indeed," said the surprised woman.

"Yes," continued Brown, "she was a rickety old thing. I offered her to my brother, but he wouldn't have her. I've had my eye on another for some time."

With that the outraged woman fled.—Chicago Tribune.

NOTICE.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

WHEREAS, the State Game Commission of the State of Oregon is authorized under Section 8, Chapter 66, General Laws of Oregon, 1921, to close any open season or open any closed season in any county or district of the State of Oregon for the shooting and possession of game animals and birds:

NOTICE is hereby given that the State Game Commission of the State of Oregon has made and entered and does hereby issue the following

ORDER

That the open season as defined in Chapter 153, Section 2, of the General Laws of Oregon of 1921, for hunting, hunting, taking or having in possession, alive or dead, the following named game animals and game birds respectively, shall be as follows to-wit:

The open season for deer throughout the entire state shall be and is hereby declared to be from August 20th to October 31st of each year, both dates inclusive.

The open season for quail and Chinese pheasants in all sections of the state where there is an open season therefor, shall be and is hereby declared to be from October 15th to October 31st of each year, both dates inclusive.

The open season for grouse or native pheasants in all sections of the state where there is an open season, is declared to be from August 20th to September 20th of each year, both dates inclusive.

The open season for sage hens in all sections of the state where there is an open season, is declared to be from July 15th to July 31st of each year, both dates inclusive.

The open season for prairie chickens in all sections of the state where there is an open season, is declared to be from October 15th to October 31st of each year, both dates inclusive.

NOTICE is also hereby given that the changes in the open seasons made by this Order in no wise affects the big limits or other regulations provided by law respecting the hunting for, killing taking or having in possession, alive or dead, of such game animals and game birds.

Any and all persons hunting for, killing, taking or having in possession, alive or dead, any deer, quail, Chinese pheasants, grouse or native pheasants, sage hens or prairie chickens in the State of Oregon, in violation of this order, will be prosecuted as by law provided.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS.

Notice is hereby given that Ordinance No. 67 provides a penalty for any person allowing rubbish of any kind to accumulate upon lots of which they are in possession or on the streets adjacent to such lots, and inasmuch as the grass is becoming dry and a fire hazard it is urgently requested that all persons owning lots or in possession thereof will keep the grass cleaned from such lots and the streets adjacent thereto, and thus avoid our past experience with fires. If any person desires to burn such grass or rubbish or have the same burned please notify Chief of Police or the Fire Department before burning the same.

Dated this 28th day of June, 1922.

Our Service Will Please You

You may increase your engine power 20%

Too heavy an oil, or one lacking in certain qualities, may reduce the power delivered to the wheels of the automobile as much as 20%.

The ideal oil is the thinnest oil which will keep the bearing surfaces of the mechanism separated.

Providing this oil has "oiliness," stability and purity, it will give perfect lubrication, and permit the development of the maximum power, speed and gasoline mileage of the car.

"Oiliness" — Stability — Purity

Zerolene meets the conditions perfectly. It has great "oiliness," due to the crudes from which it is made, and our own patented process of high vacuum distillation.

It has great stability, as a result of which it resists engine heat and forms only a minimum of carbon of a soft, flaky nature which blows out with the exhaust.

And it is pure. This company has always considered the removal of all detrimental properties and compounds as essential in making Zerolene.

Zerolene of the correct grade gives perfect lubrication and permits the development of the maximum power, speed and gasoline mileage of the car.
