

Local Happenings

W. R. Irwin returned home Thursday last from a stay of several weeks at the Irwin cottage at Rockaway. He states that it has been two months since that portion of the coast has had any rain and it is getting very dry all over Tillamook county as well as other portions of the surrounding country.

Walt Crosby now drives a new Ford and made his regular visit to town Saturday. He has driven a Ford for a number of years already and had hoped that all this time he would not have to go up and down the road between Heppner and the Willow creek farm single and alone, yet this appears to be his lot so far. A new and up-to-date "super-four" car should bring better results, Walt thinks.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gemmill departed for Helix on Sunday where they will visit for a short time at the home of Mr. Gemmill's brother, Chester. From there they expect to drive to Portland for the remainder of their two weeks of vacation, returning via The Dalles, where Paul will take in the big state gathering of the American Legion as one of the delegates from Heppner post.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Perlick of Blackhorse were in the city for a few hours on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Perlick just recently returned from a visit in Los Angeles, where she has a sister residing. They are now getting ready for their wheat harvest which will be gathered in with a combine, and they look for a good yield. Mr. Perlick farms the E. S. Duran place on Blackhorse.

Twenty bushels of hybrid wheat to the acre is the yield of the H. C. Robertson ranch west of the Jarman ranch this year. According to Mr. Robertson that district is producing a fine crop this year, no apparent damage having been done by the extreme heat in June. -Echo News.

STRAYED OR STOLEN—Roan brindle milk cow, both ears cropped, branded F on left hip; left ranch about June 27; had strap around neck with chain attached. Suitable reward for information leading to recovery of animal. J. W. Harrison, Phone 44F22, Heppner.

Charley Becket was in town from the Eight Mile farm Tuesday. He is now in the midst of his wheat harvest, and states that some of his grain is pretty badly affected by the hot weather that struck it just at maturing time. He will have a fair yield notwithstanding.

Oscar "Skeet" Bergstrom, who suffered minor physical injuries and a severe nervous shock as a result of the auto accident two weeks ago, in which Robert Steery, of Ione, was killed, left the Moore hospital the end of last week and is again on his feet.

A little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Lawson, residing some four miles south of Heppner, fell from a horse late Saturday evening and received a broken arm. She was brought to Heppner and Dr. Chick set the broken bones.

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hughes and children, accompanied by Mrs. Ella Vale and son, were visiting in Heppner Saturday. Mrs. Vale recently came down from Walla Walla for a short visit at the Hughes home on Butter creek.

Robert Carner, Morrow and Wheeler county stockman, was in the city the first of the week. The dry weather is raising havoc with the cattle and sheep ranges and the grass is drying up fast, is the report of Mr. Carner.

$5000 REWARD is offered to anyone who finds this horse: A sorrel gelding with a roached mane; white stripes in face; stands well up; weight 1500 to 1600; 9 years old; no brand. Notify C. R. Tyson, Wallula, Wash. 7t.

Dr. John Huston returned to his home at Portland on Sunday. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Elizabeth Huston, who will spend several weeks visiting with relatives at Albany and other parts of the valley.

Evans Bros. this week purchased of Latourel Auto Co. a Woods Bros. separator which was taken out to the farm on Tuesday. They have a Fordson tractor and this machine will be used in running the separator.

J. O. Turner has threshed out his field of forty-fold on his place north of Swagart buttes and got a yield between 25 and 27 bushels. He is operating with a two-man combine and getting along well with the harvest.

HEMSTITCHING—I have installed a hemstitching machine at my apartment in the Gilman building and will give all orders for work in that line my best attention. Your patronage is solicited. Mrs. C. C. Patterson. ad-1f.

I have a little device I put on a separator which makes it impossible to overfeed it and will do good job of threshing. Patent applied for. For further particulars, see S. L. STEPHENS, Lexington, Oregon. 2t.

Roy Pickens and family returned home Saturday from their vacation of a couple of weeks which was spent over in the Washington country, at points in the Yakima valley and in the Cascade mountains.

Mrs. Delbert Clabough and Miss Alma Devin left Saturday morning for Portland. Miss Devin will be gone for a week and Mrs. Clabough will remain longer. They are visiting with friends.

Don Case left on Friday for a vacation trip to Mt. Hood, where he spent several days of pleasure. During his absence Frank Turner had charge of the bus. Don returned to the job yesterday.

Mrs. George Dykstra returned on Sunday from Portland and other valley points. She spent a month visiting at the home of Arthur Dykstra, formerly of Heppner, who now resides at Halsey.

Stephen M. Irwin and family returned from a two weeks vacation at Rockaway beach Sunday evening, driving up in their Overland car, and Stephen has resumed his place at Minor and Co.

Miss Elsie Watkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Watkins of this city, departed Tuesday morning for a visit of a couple of months at Silverton and other Willamette valley points.

Mrs. Henry F. Blahm of Walla Walla who has been spending the past week visiting with friends and relatives at and near Heppner, returned to her home on Saturday.

John Higley and Dr. E. Z. Grove made a flying trip to Pomeroy, Wash., Saturday evening in John's Buick roadster. They returned home Sunday night.

WANTED AT ONCE—Man and wife to work in harvest; wife to do cooking; man to sew nuclei on small combine. Inquire F. E. MASON, Lexington, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Becket, who visited with relatives in Heppner and at Eight Mile during the past week, departed for their home at Portland on Sunday.

Dr. D. R. Haylor, eye specialist of Portland, will be at the Haylor jewelry store, July 30-31, and August 1-2.

Clair Hopper and Jack Mulligan motored over to Condon Saturday afternoon and spent a part of Sunday in that city.
