

Local Happenings

Harvey Ewing, whose home is now in Idaho, a short distance north of Krumett, and who has been spending the most of the week at Heppner looking after business, states that his son, Jas. H. G. Ewing, is now a practicing attorney at Casco, the county seat of Valley county. James was formerly a resident of this county and lived with his father at Cecil for a number of years, later attending Willamette University at Salem and taking his law degree from that institution.

W. B. Potter and wife, Mrs. Della Hallock, Mrs. Frank Roberts, of Portland, and Mrs. Taylor Dodson of Bellingham, Wash., returned to their respective homes on Friday. They were called to the city to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Ann Minor.

S. E. Nelson departed for Pendleton on Monday to attend a district convention of the Red Cross. While away Mr. Nelson will also take in the Round-Up and then go on to Hot Lake for a medical examination and treatment.

Ben Buschke, who farms the Biggs place in Casco canyon, was a visitor to Portland last week, returning home on Thursday. He states that he did not find a great deal of evidence of prosperity in the metropolis, so far as business is concerned, though there seemed to be much building activity in the residential districts.

This office enjoyed a short visit from Bert Johnson and Oscar Donnan, two of the leading farmers of the area. These gentlemen state that the wheat production of their section is pretty short this season, though the quality is good. They are now preparing for the fall seeding and hope that next year's crop will be better than it was this year, otherwise many farmers will be looking for different jobs.

Edward Nelson left on Thursday last for Corvallis, where he will be a student again this year at O. A. C. He has been spending the summer months at home and working in the harvest fields, and returns to school ready to take up his work for the year in a vigorous manner.

Dr. B. F. Butler and family were visitors over the week-end in this city. They were returning to their home at Monmouth after a visit to the upper country. Dr. Butler was formerly located here in the practice of his profession as a dentist.

F. A. McMenamin and family departed for Portland Sunday morning. They will take up their residence in the city where Mr. McMenamin will have a law practice. R. M. Andrews has charge of Mr. McMenamin's Heppner office.

Harvey Ewing, formerly a resident of Morrow county, and owner of a part of the Henriksen farm at Cecil, was a visitor in Heppner Saturday. Mr. Ewing now resides in Idaho, where he has land holdings.

Star Theater

Program from Sept. 21st to 28th Inclusive

THURSDAY AND FRIDAY, SEPT. 21-22
WALLACE REID in
"THE HELL DIGGERS"
A story of a land where the vanquished go down and the game of life is played without rules.
A romance of gold and the wilder west, and fighting men and love. Wallace Reid in a different role.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 23rd
JUSTINE JOHNSTONE in
"A HEART TO LET"
Adapted from the novel "Agatha's Aunt" by Harriet Loomis Smith. A comedy of desperate disguises and happy discoveries. The story of a girl who hadn't a red cent, but possessed a million dollars worth of courage.

Also Movie Chats

SUNDAY AND MONDAY, SEPT. 24 & 25
COLLEEN MOORE in
"COME ON OVER"
By Rupert Hughes. Sparkling comedy of love. She waited months for her sweetheart to write "come on over," and he kept losing jobs, so she came unbidden. That's where her troubles and laughs begin. A story with Rupert Hughes at his best—homey, human and a howl.

RODEO DAYS
During these days the show will start immediately after the Rodeo each afternoon, about five o'clock, and run continuously until the usual evening closing time. We offer
