County Clerk Waters spent several days in Portland the past week with his family. He arrived home on Monday.

He was accompanied as far as Portland by Dr. Grove, who expected to spend a few days in the city. Jap traveled in a red "bug" purchased during the week from Emery Gentry, which will doubtless prove a great aid to him in the pursuit of his studies, particularly when he is given an assignment that will require that he make haste to the city limits or the surrounding country districts. When dad went to school he walked.

Chas. Devin, extensive wheat raiser of the lone section, was doing business in this city on Monday. Mr. Devin, with his family, recently made a visit with the parents of Mrs. Devin in Montana. He made pretty close observation of crop conditions while on the trip and states that by comparison Morrow county is doing better than much of the famed wheat country of the Walla Walla and Palouse which fell far short of all normal crop this season, and returns from wheat will not be 50 per cent of the usual yield.

Wm. Stauffer, who has been spending the past week at Lexington, was a visitor in Heppner on Monday. Mr. Stauffer still has his land holdings near Lexington, where he farmed for many years before removing to Hood River, his present home. He states that while the apple crop has been good in Hood River valley this season, the producers are not going to make money, tho he believes they will break even on the game. His Morrow county farm turned out a pretty fair crop and he has no complaint to make.

Homer Harrington left Tuesday for Pendleton to spend a few days before going on to Portland where he will spend the winter. Mr. Harrington was connected with Eben's store for about six months. While in Joseph he mastered the art of catching the big rainbow and other speckled beauties that inhabit the waters of Willamette lake. Before leaving he was considered one of the fishermen of the town and stated that no summer will be complete for him without a fishing trip to the lake.—Joseph Herald.

F. A. McMenamin returned from Portland Friday, after getting his family comfortably located there and his two elder daughters placed in school for the winter. Mr. McMenamin states that he expects to make Heppner his headquarters and can be found here the greater part of the time during the fall and winter, and his office will be maintained here as usual.

J. S. Carter writes from Portland that it may be some time before he is able to return to Heppner. He has undergone another operation for his mastoid trouble and is not doing as well as he should, and it may be necessary to undergo another operation, but as to this his physicians are not yet fully decided.

John Jenkins motored over from Boardman the first of the week to consult with the county judge and roadmaster concerning roads in his district. Mr. Jenkins, who has been in rather poor health for some time is now getting much better. He was a victim of ptomaine poisoning early in the summer.

Garfield Crawford and his little daughter, Jane, left Heppner Monday for Portland on their return trip to Fort Worth, Texas. They will visit at several points on the way south, going through California, and will arrive at their destination in ten days or two weeks.

Fred Vogler, manager of Northwest Auto Co. of Portland who handle Reo, Dor and Cole 8 cars, is in the city to remain until after the Rodeo. He was formerly engaged in other lines and often made this territory as a traveling salesman, and is well known here.

Otis Patterson, of Conyon City, passed through Heppner on his way to the Round-Up on Thursday and was here again on Sunday on the return trip to his home town. He took time to look up a few of his old-time friends while going through town.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hayes of Portland came over from Pendleton the first of the week, where they have been to see the Round-Up, and spent a few days visiting with friends and relatives here.

Miss Leta Humphreys departed on Friday for Eugene, where she will resume her studies at the University of Oregon, expecting to be in school there for the full college year.
