

Local Happenings

E. E. Bartholomew, wife and two daughters were in Heppner over Friday from their home at Singen, Wash. and visited with Mrs. Mary Bartholomew, his mother. They went on from here to Walla Walla on Saturday where they have a son attending Whitman college. Ed states that he is doing pretty well as a land owner in that part of Washington bordering on the Columbia river, his farm being given over largely to the raising of garden produce. He rents his land, mostly, to truck gardeners and finds the returns coming along quite easily. Asparagus grows fine in that locality, is of excellent quality and the market for this product is always good. A great deal of fruit is also produced, and the section where Mr. Bartholomew resides is a great garden spot, if not a very extensive one, and irrigation is not required.

This office acknowledges a pleasant call on Saturday from R. E. Cherick, principal of the high school at Pine City. Mr. Cherick, who states that he is off politics at the present time, was a candidate in his home county of Clackamas last spring for representative in the legislature, but could not overcome the strength of the triple Ks in that section, and went down to defeat. He has followed school teaching for a great many years, and is also the owner of a farm in Clackamas county.

Final settlement of the estate of Peter Carl Nelson in this county was had before Judge Campbell Monday. Allan Thomson was administrator of the estate and presented his final account, which was approved by the court and the administrator discharged. F. J. Kerwin, of Vancouver, Wash., attorney for the estate, was present, as was J. R. Teller, father of Mrs. P. C. Nelson. The larger portion of the estate is in the state of Washington, at Vancouver.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Olden visited in the city on Tuesday for a short time. Mr. Olden, who was a very sick man for the most of the summer, suffering an attack of erysipelas and its bad after effects, is now well on the way to complete recovery. For a time it was feared that he would lose his eyesight but that stage of the disease passed safely by and he will soon be himself again, a result that his friends are pleased to note.

A. J. Frita, formerly associated with F. A. McMenamin in practicing law in this city, was here over the week-end from Portland, where he is located at the present time. Mr. Frita, while taking time to get located in a good field for the law, is representing the Union Savings & Loan association of Portland, and while in Heppner he disposed of considerable stock in this company. He expects to return to Heppner again soon.

Earl Hall and family left on Monday for Portland, where they expect to make their home in the future. Mr. Hall has been the efficient bookkeeper at the store of Minor & Co. for the past two years, and he and Mrs. Hall have made many friends in this city who regret that they are leaving. They will be joined later by Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cypert, parents of Mrs. Hall, who will also make their home in Portland.

E. J. Bristow, wife and daughter and Judge Frank Robinson, all of one, were here on Saturday for the Rodeo and to enjoy the festivities with the Heppner folks. In his home town, Ed sells dry goods, groceries and big pumpkins and squashes over the counters at the store of Bristow & Johnson, but he never fails to take a little time off to enjoy himself when there is something going on that is in reach.

Walter Rietmann was among one people in Heppner Saturday. He took in the performance at Gentry field, which he pronounced good for a local show. Mr. Rietmann is one of the successful farmers of his section, but feels that he might be a little more successful if the price of wheat would advance enough so that the farmer would be getting something above the cost of production.

Lon Markham, who at one time was a leading farmer of this county, was down from his home at Freewater over the week-end, and was an interested spectator during the three days of Heppner's rodeo. Mr. Markham, in former years, was able to perform some of the riding stunts witnessed during the performance, and his exhibitions were sometimes pulled off in the middle of Heppner's main street.

Strayed—From my pasture during July, 4 head horses, about 2-year-olds B brand on left shoulder; also 2 head mules; 1 a yearling horse mule branded PK connected and upside down; 1 mare mule, 8 years old, branded S1 on left shoulder, color brown, and weight about 950. Walter Rietman, Ione, Ore. 31.

A. H. Switzer, Arlington attorney, was here yesterday on legal business at the court house, where he filed an action for divorce for a client. Mr. Switzer was formerly at Heppner and also at Corvallis, having been seeking a location for his health. He is pleased with his location at Arlington. —London Globe-Times.

W. B. Finley and son Ralph were visitors in this city on Saturday. Mr. Finley states that he received good returns from the crop raised on the Finley ranch this season. The farm is rented and it produced a fair crop of good wheat. Mr. Finley now makes his home near Hermiston.

Apples—I am offering Spitzbergers $1.00 a box, f.o.b. Hood River, terms, cash with order. Sent by freight unless otherwise stated. Parcel post is 54 cents to Heppner. Orders received before Saturday, shipped the following Monday. B. L. Clark, R. 1, Box 88, Hood River, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Keithly drove over from Walla Walla on Thursday and were here during the Rodeo, visiting friends and thoroughly enjoying their stay of a few days. Mr. Keithly is still connected with the forestry office, with headquarters at Walla Walla.

A. M. Phelps makes a fine exhibit of about a dozen different varieties of dahlias at his store, many of them the finest specimens we have ever seen. They were all raised in the back yard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Phelps in this city.

Henry E. Clark and family of Ione were here at the end of the week to take in Heppner's Rodeo, and enjoy a visit with friends and neighbors. Mr. Clark was also in Heppner again on Monday, and this office acknowledges a very pleasant visit.

E. J. Merrill of Hardman passed through town on Monday, returning home from Eugene, where he was during the past week with his daughter, Miss Cleo, who has registered as a student at the U. of O. for the year.

R. L. Bengt and Howard Anderson returned home on Sunday from Portland, where they attended a meeting of the officers and directors of the Oregon Grain Growers association.

Ralph Akers and family were here from Ione on Saturday, helping to swell the large number of visitors from their city that took in the Rodeo for the last day.

Women are commonly supposed not to have a sense of humor but you know differently when you gaze upon some of the funny-looking men they have picked out.

Mrs. C. E. Woodson returned home Friday from Eugene, where she had been with her daughter, Miss Margaret, who is located for work at the U. of O. for the year.

David H. Grabill, pioneer resident of Ione, was up to Heppner on Saturday, and we were glad to have a short visit with him.

Lost—Eastman kodak, No. 2-A, between Heppner and Art Parker place. Finder please leave at this office. Reward. 2t.

Rufus Farrens and family motored up from Ione the last of the week and took in the big show for a day or two.

For Sale—Six first class weanling pigs. Cleveland ranch, 4 miles east Heppner, on Willow creek. Phone 48 F11.

D. O. Justus brought in a fine lot of beef cattle for shipment to the Portland market on Sunday. Frank and Adrain Engelman, of Ione, were business visitors in Heppner on Tuesday.

Candidate for Representative Visits Heppner

James T. Llewellyn, of Umatilla county, democratic candidate for joint representative in the 22nd district, comprising Umatilla and Morrow counties, visited in this city on Friday and Saturday of this week, making the acquaintance of the voters here.

Mr. Llewellyn is one of the pioneers of the district, being a leading farmer of Adams, where he has extensive land holdings in what is known as the best farming section of Umatilla county. He boasts of being a real dirt farmer.

In 1863 he crossed the plains with his parents by ox team, landing in Umatilla county and he has grown up with the development of that section. His business experience was gained through the running of a general merchandise store for a number of years, but for the past thirty years has given his attention strictly to farming, and at the present time is one of the heavy taxpayers of Umatilla county. Mr. Llewellyn is basing his campaign strictly upon the reduction of taxes issue, and he seemed to make quite a favorable impression on the voters in this end of his district.

P. T. A. Meeting.
The next regular meeting of the P. T. A. will be held on October 10th in the high school auditorium, and the program will be as follows: Piano selection, Mrs. Moore; exercise by 4th grade, directed by Miss Queenberry; discussion on Good Reading, led by Mrs. Livingstone, followed by Mesdames Woodson, Cohn, George Thomson and Parker.
BLANCHE FAHY, Sec.

Hears From Brother.
Mrs. John T. McDevitt of Ione, is in receipt of word from her brother, Edd Doherty, who a few weeks since left here for his old home in Ireland that he had arrived there safely, and that he had a splendid voyage. It had been rumored that Mr. Doherty had died upon reaching New York, but this is disproved by the letter received from him by his sister this week.

FEDERATED CHURCH.
Sunday school 9:45; classes for all ages. Preaching services 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Special music at both services. Prayer meeting for praise, prayer and testimony every Wednesday night at 7:30.

Next Sunday will be Rally Day in our Sunday school and we have a goal of 250 for which we are working. If you are not in any Sunday school, come and help us reach the goal. In accepting the pastorate of the church I find a splendid spirit among the people of harmony and cooperation which has so much to do in building up a great work for the Master.
J. B. L. HASLAM, Pastor.

The greatest tragedy that could happen to a reformer for revenue only would be to have his reform succeed and put him out of a job. Old age isn't respectable just because it is old. Nothing is less so than an old reprobate.

Willie's mother wished him to be a preacher and kept telling him so. Willie had other ideas about it. One Sunday, however, after an unusually long morning service, he announced, "I believe, after all, I'll be a preacher." His delighted mother embraced him and then asked, "What made you change your mind so suddenly?" "Oh," he replied, "I've decided I'd rather stand in the pulpit 'n' shout than sit in the congregation 'n' listen."
