Forest Service Active In Road and Trail Building

During the past year the Forest Service, U. S. Department of Agriculture, made allotments of $448,308 for the construction of 644.19 miles of roads in the North Pacific District (Oregon and Washington), according to a statement just issued by the District Forester's office. During the same period $43,348 was allotted for road maintenance, $158,732 for trail construction, and $59,674 for trail maintenance in the district.

Figures just received from Washington, D. C., show that during the year 1921 the Forest Service constructed 724 miles of minor roads at a cost of $549,868 and 2969 miles of major roads were constructed for the Forest Service by the Bureau of Public Roads at a cost of $4,626,326.

In addition 3,607 miles of major and minor projects were maintained at a cost of $1,871,162, which $65,356 was secured from local authorities. Forty-two hundred and ninety-four miles of trails were maintained at a cost of $113,683. This represents a total of $11,917,149.

The construction of roads and trails during the year 1921 of $6,456,694, which includes $2,153,522 cooperative funds secured from states and counties.

Expenditures to January 1, 1922, for constructing 3,729 miles of major roads total $15,301,373, of which $5,681,451 are cooperative funds. Likewise 4,856 miles of minor roads were constructed by the Service at a cost of $2,762,570, including $773,922 of cooperative funds. To date $1,917,149 have been expended in the construction and maintenance of 12,448 miles of trails. The total thus far expended upon equipment amounts to $651,598, while $920,134 was expended upon overhead and administration by the Bureau of Public Roads and Forest Service.

To date a total expenditure of $22,216,724 for the construction of 4,786 miles of major roads, 6,711 miles of trails, and the maintenance of 3,607 miles of roads and 5,737 miles of trails has been made.

Jack Mulligan returned during the week from his holiday home, spent at Victoria and Vancouver, B. C.

Mrs. S. W. Spencer returned on Saturday from a visit of a week with relatives in Portland.

SUMMARY OF THE NEW PENSION LAW

Report on Bill Effecting 2138 Veterans in Oregon and Similar Number of Widows, is Furnished by Senator Stanfield.

This new law provides:

Section 1. That any officer or enlisted man who served in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps for 90 days or more during the Civil War, and was honorably discharged, or, having served less time but discharged for disability incurred in service and in line of duty, and every honorably discharged person who served 90 days or more in the war with Mexico or on the coast or frontier thereof, or en route thereto, shall be paid a pension of $72 per month, such payment to be made in accordance with the pension roll, without further application.

Section 2. That the widow of any such soldier, having been legally married to him prior to June 27, 1915, or if legally married after said date, lived and cohabited with him for at least two years and continuing until his death, shall be paid a pension of $50 per month, and an additional pension of $600 a month for each child of his under 16 years.

If such widow dies or remarries pension shall be paid such child until 16 years old, unless such child is insane, idiotic or otherwise mentally or physically helpless, in which case the pension shall be paid during the life of such child.

The additional pension on account of his children shall only be paid the widow for such period of her widowhood that she is charged with the maintenance of such child; otherwise it shall be paid to the guardian.

A widow or guardian to whom increase of pension has been, or shall be, granted on account of minor children, shall not be deprived thereof by reason of their being maintained in whole or in part at the expense of a State or the public in any educational institution, or in any institution organized for the care of soldiers' orphans.

$50 pension is also granted to widows of any person who served in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps in the War of 1812.

All provisions of this section apply to all pensions heretofore granted under any law, public or private.

Section 3. That $50 per month shall be paid to former widow of such soldier, sailor or marine of the Civil War who remarried after death of such soldier, sailor or marine, if such subsequent marriage or marriages have been dissolved by death or divorce for any cause other than adultery.

Where a pension has been granted to an insane, idiotic or otherwise helpless child under 16, a widow or former widow shall not be entitled to pension under this Act until the pension to such child or children terminates, unless such child or children be members of her family and cared for by her; and upon granting pension to her, pension to child shall cease; and this provision shall apply to all claims arising under this or any other law.

Section 4. That the benefits of this Act shall extend to and include all persons enumerated in Section 4693, Revised Statutes of the United States, who served during the Civil War, and also any person who is now or may hereafter become entitled to pension under the Acts of June 27, 1890, February 15, 1895, Joint Resolution of July 1, 1902 and June 28, 1906, or the Acts of January 29, 1887, March 3, 1891, and February 17, 1897 on account of service during the Civil War and the war with Mexico, and the widows and minor children of such persons.

Service under this section shall be proven as specified in Section 2, Act of March 4th, 1917, and the Act of September 1st, 1922.

Pensions to soldiers of the various Indian Wars now or hereafter on pension roll under Acts of July 27, 1922, June 27, 1905, May 30, 1908 and March 4, 1917, increased to $30, and their widows to $20 per month.
