SPEEDING MAY BE STOPPED

By RICHARD LLOYD JONES.
 THE "Safety First" movement has done much to lessen danger everywhere except on our streets and country roads. There the auto still still climbs. The Safety First movement has always been to make it safe for the auto rather than the pedestrian. We say "Don't jay-walk," but never "Don't jay-ride."

THE DEAD LINE FOR OREGON

THE question of consolidating boards and commissions and giving the people of Oregon a more efficient state government is not new. Two legislatures created commissions to investigate and prepare bills and twice $10,000 was spent in investigations to reduce taxation.

DAME NATURE TEACHES FARMING

THE silent but irresistible forces of nature have brought the comforts of man to their present standard and in all probability eventually will compel the application of a higher science to food production. The old-fashioned farmer may resist the last "your new-fangled notions" but Dame Nature will have her way despite the reactionary tendency.

DR. GRANT COULD RESIGN

WITH determined tenacity, the Rev. Dr. Percy Stickey Grant holds his place on the front page in company with movie drug addicts, tiger women, Washington scandal-mongers, and similar providers for our daily thrills. The ever-ready doctor gives every evidence of the deep enjoyment he feels in achieving this distinguished eminence, and shows no desire to commit self-deposition by resigning from a church whose hands he defies and whose faith he denies.

THE STILL SMALL VOICE

WHEN the son of a millionaire can shoot to death an American sailor boy and walk out of court without even the formality of a trial—when the mother of his victim must stand outside the court, as she weeps in vain, see the man who killed her son drive his luxurious home in a high-powered motor car, telling his wife he is "so happy," it is time this country resumed its method of administering the law, or at least establish some form of recall that would enable the people to drive from both bench and bar those who administer a sacred trust.

hot on the trail, get dangerously near to solving the crime. Then the young slayer gives himself up and confesses the cowardly assassination.
 Ordinarily, such a message to society would be looked up, tried for murder, sent to the electric chair, to prison for life, or acquitted according to the facts developed. But this was not an ordinary murder. There were millions ready to save the young man from even the shadow of the chair. Father with his influence and untold wealth got into action. Forty thousand lines of broad advertising were placed with every influential newspaper. The young man was turned loose without even the semblance of a trial.
 The mother of the murdered boy? The voice of the mother was the still, small voice; so still, so small, that she cried as in the wilderness.
 It will be to the eternal shame of America if the plea of this unhappy mother is drowned by the clink of gold. Governor Smith, of New York, has promised a new investigation. Every mother in America should write a letter to the governor of the great state of New York demanding that the investigation be searching, at least that it be more thoroughly undertaken than the travesty of justice that set free the gilded assassin.

Live Cecil News Items

A St. Valentine dance will be given in Cecil Hall on February 10th. All welcome. Good music provided. Mrs. T. H. Lowe will supply the midnight supper. Menu, "Lovers Delightful" sandwiches, "Cupidity" pickles, "True Lovers' Knots" cookies, "Hearts are Trumps" cakes, "Matrimonial" coffee.

Jack Hynd and Geo. Krebs arrived at their respective homes at Cecil on Wednesday after attending the wool growers' meetings at Spokane and Pendleton. Both gentlemen thoroughly enjoyed their outing, but were glad to be back on their farms again.

Messrs. A. and Geo. Henriksen were called suddenly to Portland on Tuesday to their mother who had been taken seriously ill and passed away on Thursday morning. Dearest sympathy is extended to the bereaved families.

Dick Logan of Four Mile is busy joy riding on his new motorcycle while the weather is not frosty for plowing, but Dick says Dad has said "soon as it thaws out you come back to the farm, young man."

Fred Ely, the genial postmaster of Morgan, accompanied by E. Balcomb, who is now at the Morgan store in partnership with Martin Bauernfeld late of Corbett, Ore., were callers in Cecil on Wednesday.

Herbert Hynd and sister, Miss Annie C. Hynd of Butterby Flats accompanied by Miss Mildred Henriksen of Strawberry ranch, were the week-end guests of Mrs. Jack Hynd at Heppner.

Harold Ahalt, government trapper, and Joe Marcus, one of the leading lights in Morrow county's sporting world, were bound for Heppner on Friday.

Mrs. Phil Brady and son, Master Minor, of Adams Cottage near Lone, were calling on Mrs. Geo. Krebs at the Last Camp on Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Henriksen of Strawberry ranch, left on Friday morning for Portland to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. Henriksen, Sr.

Hank Howell, B. Gaunt and Adamson Bros. of Heppner have been busy during the week at Minor & Krebs' ranches tagging sheep.

Henry Edwards, campmaster for Hynd Bros. at Butterby Flats, has been spending a few days with his friends in Heppner.

Fence building on the highway at Cecil is progressing rapidly under the supervision of G. H. Hartvigson.

Mrs. Joe White was visiting at the home of Mrs. Melville Logan near the Willows on Wednesday.

Phil Brady of Athlone Cottage near Lone has been hauling corn from Cecil warehouse for his stock.

Roy E. Stender of Seldomsen was doing business in Cecil on Thursday.

Gooseberry Road Work. Work has progressed rapidly under ideal weather conditions for the past week on the Gooseberry road. A large number of teams and men (including Ed Bristow) are doing lots of good work on lone hill and the neighboring section under the careful superintendency of District Road Master M. E. Morgan. This badly needed work will prove a great boon to the ranchers when hauling their crops to market—lone independent.

Brow Wrinkler. "What is the difference between a young man, an old man and a worm?" "There is no difference—the chickens get them all."

not discard one of its deepest-rooted tenets to suit the convenience of one of his love affairs. Having failed to cause the church to amend its laws on the subject of divorce, Dr. Grant attacks other dogmas of the church: the things he revered, he believed and pledged himself to preach he declares he does not believe and now denounces. When he is asked to recant or resign, he tells us he is being martyred at the stake of creed for his progressivism.
 He is merely a malignant. The world has no sympathy for the preacher—or for any other man—who having voluntarily assumed an obligation of honesty and service seeks to escape it by publicly and privately defaming the other party to it while holding employment with the other party and accepting its hire. From such a man, the world turns in contempt and loathing.
 If Dr. Grant no longer believes in the tenets of the Protestant Episcopal church, and, therefore, cannot preach the doctrine he vowed to teach, he should resign. As a blatant, heretical, vow-breaking, placeholding, salary-demanding church buster, he does not present a very pleasant spectacle.—The Spectator.

Poem by Uncle John

FOR THE UNDER DOG.
 THE richest trait of any soul, in dividends at trifling cost, is when the man that wins control is tender toward the man that lost. . . . I hate the beast that rends again the valiant though the vanquished form.—The man who joys in giving pain,—who keeps the fires of malice warm. . . . In this old world of give an' take, we know the fittest may survive,—we may surpass, but should not break, the heart that fair would stay alive. We've passed the age of tooth and claw, when Cave-man tactics held the meek,—we now obey the higher law, by which the strong upholds the weak. . . .
 The Ego's transient badge of power may only last him for a day, and Justice holds the coming hour, when he, like chaff, shall blow away. The man who conquers in the game may honor reap, and love enjoy,—but he who acts not above blame, his selfish instinct would destroy! Well may the powerful hand beware, if hatred lures to heinous crime.—For he who sits in kingly chair may howl for mercy in this time.
 "That which men sow, they also reap" is true in State, in Heart, in Mind; Let us be mindful what we keep, in words that wound or ties that bind.

Punchettes

Smart Boy, Smart Boy! Tommy—"Play store with me, mamma!" Mother (with a headache)—"All right. But you must be quiet—very quiet." Tommy—"Sure, we'll pretend I don't advertise."

DEBAUCHERY PREVENTABLE.

SOMEONE has said that the mother of debauchery is not joy, but joylessness. If that is true, then you have a reason for the debauchery that has soaked the world in blood and death. There is no joy in sordid materialism. There is no joy in extreme selfishness. There is no joy in loose passion, greed, and gluttony. There is no joy in materialism, murder, war, disaster. The real joy that feeds the soul is the joy that comes from the spiritual, things and from the spiritual conception of things, and from participation in the spiritual things of life. Therefore, if materialism has produced debauchery, if the joyless life has resulted in the drunken debauchery to drown the monotony and to awaken the sleeping cords of happiness, then let the people understand that they can come away from that deadly monotony. He who eats of the material food will hunger. He who eats of that Bread which cannot be provided by the world never hungers, and he is never cursed with a joyless moment or with a dull, monotonous hour. He has happiness that cannot be purchased, and he has pleasure continually. The debauchery of life can be prevented by the spiritual power and food that come with the salvation furnished by Christ.

HONEY PHILOSOPHY for 1923

BUSINESS is bad. Isn't that good? Willis is busted. Grant news. Willis has the measles. Smile, mother, smile. Try to get him well, of course, but smile. When clouds are dark, when the bank roll's gone, when wolfish landlords press for rent and there's not a cent to meet it, when all the world seems sad and weary smile as you never smiled before, for there is joy right in your lap. Be not the hypocrite. Christ was crucified. Let us not pose as Christians if we wish at carrying the cross an' dodging the burden every time it seems to come our way. If we all take a hand at the burden the load will be very light, an' the road leads to human love an' happiness.
