Does It Pay? Advertising has made the Victrola dog famous. It has made the cash register a big brother to retailers all over the world. It has introduced the world to a substitute for sole leather. It is displacing the truck horse with 40-horsepower trucks. It has helped you to an appreciation of Stetson hats, Walk-Over, Douglas and Emerson shoes. It has made the hand-written letter an oddity in business. It has put hair oil on heads where no hair oil would do any good, and on heads where no hair oil was needed. It has put Castoria down your throat, left bristles in your gums, and then came along with a Rubber-set and took them out. It has put Zozodont, Pebeco and Pepsodent on your teeth. It has put a Gillette against your hayfield. It has put Murine in your eye, sold you Cuticura for pimples, Pears for the bath and Ivory for the tub. It has put Arrow collars around your neck and Ingersols around your wrist. It has jammed your feet in Holeproof sox, put Paris garters on your legs, and Tiffany rings on your fingers. It has stuck Robert Burns cigars between your teeth, worn out your jaws on Wrigley's and posted you on what to buy to cure corns, warts, bunions and ingrowing toe nails. Go anywhere you want to, do anything you wish, and advertising has had a hand in it—absolutely. And then some people ask "DOES ADVERTISING PAY?"

The man away from home It is inevitable that a man who travels much and the wife who remains at home should worry to some extent. But, so far as any human agency can serve, a Perfect Protection Policy in West Coast Life will relieve this. Under its provisions a wife is absolutely protected, no matter what occurs. And she has the comforting knowledge that no form of disability can rob her husband of a steady, assured income. The coupon will bring you information about other provisions in this splendid policy, without the slightest obligation. E. C.
