IF WE all get up at nine o'clock tomorrow morning, convinced that at ten o'clock we were all going to die—and we weren't, the troubles of the world would be solved in thirty days. The desperate effort to accomplish before the end, in science, in art, in industry, in invention, in economics, in human conduct and all other factors of the national life would unfold a world of happiness and comfort and usefulness that would spell contentment and disclose in an hour what brotherhood really would do for us if we ever tried it. Giving to the grim reaper, if he was out of commission, we'd be a seething mass of selfishness, thievery and debauchery. If we lived here forever—my what an awful bunch we'd be.

er, "the idea that there is a God never for a moment has entered my head."
"Same way with my dog," replied the seaman, "but he doesn't go round howling about it."—Young People.

Advertising has made the Victrola dog famous.
It has made the cash register a big brother to retailers all over the world.
It has introduced the world to a substitute for sole leather.
It is displacing the truck horse with 40-horsepower trucks.
It has helped you to an appreciation of Stetson hats, Walk-Over, Douglas and Emerson shoes.
It has made the hand-written letter an oddity in business.
It has put hair oil on heads where no hair oil would do any good, and on heads where no hair oil was needed.
It has put Castoria down your throat, left bristles in your gums, and then came along with a Rubber-set and took them out.
It has put Zozodont, Pebecco and Pepsodont on your teeth.
It has put a Gillette against your hayfield.
It has put Murine in your eye, sold you Cuticura for pimples, Pears for the bath and Ivory for the tub.
It has put Arrow collars around your neck and Ingersols around your wrist.
It has jammed your feet in Holeproof sox, put Paris garters on your legs, and Tiffany rings on your fingers.
It has stuck Robert Burns cigars between your teeth, worn out your jaws on Wrigley's and posted you on what to buy to cure corns, warts, bunions and ingrowing toe nails.
Go anywhere you want to, do anything you wish, and advertising has had a hand in it—absolutely.
And then some people ask "DOES ADVERTISING PAY?"

ROBBERS!!
Robbers do not disturb people who have nothing. A man with a thousand dollars in the bank and only a check book in his pocket has nothing for robbers to take; yet his check is as good as the money which his neighbor carries in his pocket.
It is not safe to carry money on your person when among strangers. Neither is money safe in the house. Money in the bank is safe and is always available by means of a check book. And this assurance of safety costs you nothing.
We invite you to place your money with us on checking account. We offer a safe and convenient place of deposit.
