HEPPNER'S heritage was pretty thoroughly discussed at the Brotherhood meeting on Monday evening when some steps to think of it, our heritage has been very much lessened in these latter years, and our borders greatly circumscribed.

That our people are much concerned about this condition as it exists at present, was manifested in the meeting Monday night, yet there were no steps taken toward a remedy.

We can never expect to restore to the town that extensive trade territory once enjoyed, for a very great portion of this has been taken over and absorbed by other points because of the reaching out of branch lines of railroad and the construction of highways.

TEST YOUR EDUCATION.

THE best college is not measured by endowment. It is measured by the man and woman it turns out.

The college will oftentimes pass a man and woman who are not really educated. Many men have been honored in college who have been dishonored by society because with all their high gradings in classes they have not learned how to march with the masses.

Has education given you sympathy with all good causes and made you responsive? Can you look an honest man or pure woman straight in the eye? Do you see anything to love in a little child?

Are you good for anything to your neighbor?

Can you be happy alone? Can you look out on the world and see anything except dollars and cents? Can you be a brother to your neighbor?

Can you read the history that is written in the rocks that boldly shoulder the broad current and bend the river in its course?

How many college A. B.'s can honestly say "yes" to these 22 questions? If you cannot, is it not time to ask yourself which has failed, you or your college?

To help you conceive the purpose of life and to pursue that purpose is the mission of every school and college.

Business generally has started off with a healthy boom. From all parts of the country come reports of increased activity.

The farmer, however, lags behind, despite the fact that he is the wholesale producer of food and clothing.

It will be regrettable if the selfishness of the money power declines to recognize this fact and compels the farmer to line up in Congress to demand a healthy trade.

THE FARMER MUST HAVE JUSTICE

WHILE labor as a unit is studiously keeping away from politics, conditions are driving the farmer into politics because the farmer sees no other way of accomplishing anything like justice.

The money power of the East has frowned on the Farm bloc, but it may be that this over the longer term will be bringing back to Heppner a help of trade that is now going elsewhere.

"REPARATIONS" FROM A LABOR UNION.

The Manufacturer. In 1921 a coal mine in Fayette county, West Virginia, was put out of business by the United Mine Workers of America.

That settlement is an event of the first importance in the long story of the determined efforts of the unionized miners to subject the non-union miners of West Virginia to their autocratic control.

charged many atrocities. The following disorders, depredations, terrorism, increasing in intensity until at last all the employees were run off the property and the plant was destroyed.

At last, on Feb. 15, 1921, the power station was dynamited. That put the plant out of business for that day.

Now the treasury of the United Mine Workers must pay $400,000 for that "victory." The facts here narrated ought to be understood by the great American public that believes in fair play.

TAX FREE SECURITIES AND THE FARMERS.

Tax free securities are a better investment than first mortgage loans on farms. They force the farmers to pay higher rates of interest.

Those who are sincerely solicitous for the farmer think well of this—95 per cent of the loans outstanding, owed by the farmers, is money belonging to foreign entanglements.

The farmers are finding it difficult to borrow money, and when their loans mature—and they are maturing all the time—if they cannot finance a renewal, it means sales of homes and farms on the sheriff's block.

A farm loan firm that for years has done an extensive business in first mortgages on land reports that a few days ago the estate of William Field created by his will more farm mortgages.

HOMEY PHILOSOPHY for 1923

IF HAPPINESS is the aim of human beings why not dope out what brings it into our lives, and having found out turn ourselves into a bunch of go-getters.

Perhaps the greatest measure of happiness comes from personal achievement.

We're all stuck on ourselves. Very well then, let us achieve. Can't be done, says you? Nonsense.

There is always something a man can do perfectly. If he can't play the harp, he can tackle the freighting banjo, but let him learn to play the instrument so perfectly no man can say he is handling out jazz and trying to palm it off as Beethoven.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to sincerely thank all those who so kindly and generously assisted us during the illness and funeral of our beloved wife and mother and little daughter and sister. We can never forget the kindness and sincere sympathy.

Poem by Uncle John

When the soft snow comes, drifting through the dogwoods in the dells—and the chimes is going abegin on the farm—there's a world of inspiration in a pocketful of shells.

When the soft snow comes, drifting through the dogwoods in the dells—and the chimes is going abegin on the farm—there's a world of inspiration in a pocketful of shells.

Punchettes

THE different evangelical denominations are committing a crime against their aged and infirm ministers. It is their duty to make adequate provision for their sustenance, comfort and happiness.

No class of men gives so unselfishly, untriflingly, and heroically of their time, talent and substance as do ministers. They are an educated class, spending practically twenty-one years in fitting themselves for the greatest places on earth and for the greatest service ever rendered to mankind.
