MORROW COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER Foreign Advertising Representative THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

DETERMINATION IS A PRICELESS ASSET.

By RICHARD LLOYD JONES.

SINGLENESSE of purpose is the foundation of all success. It is the man who knows exactly what he wants and insists on getting it who usually gets it.

We are too prone to look upon money rather than mind as our goal. Money harms only the man who has not learned to help himself.

It is the mind that mints money. Money never makes mind. To be born with a silver spoon in your mouth is not a handicap unless you let the spoon gag you.

Faith is not a virtue. It is nothing to brag about. It is an asset only as a compelling power to drive you out of it.

The poets praise a false philosophy when they sing of the glory of poverty. Be honest and admit it is a glory nobody wants. Everybody who is covered with that glory is trying to get rid of it. The whole struggle of the world is to scramble away from it.

But the test of men comes not while enmeshed in poverty but when freed from its fetters. The man who doesn't know what to do because he has no money is hardy less well than the man who doesn't know what to do because he has money.

The young man who facing life has to be fed and clothed by a rich parent may command a measure of thoughtless sympathy but he commands no more of the world's admiration than the young man who has to be clothed and fed by charity.

It's the man who stands alone and does not see others as a crutch to hold him up who commands respect. It is the man who has found how to help others in the march through life, who wins the admiration of others.

Youth's problem is not what are you starting but where are you starting for. Your fortune depends not upon what you have in hand but what you have in your head.

Real nobility is the fruit of heart culture, not less than hand culture, and your heart grows big only as you force into it the affection of other hearts.

Determination is a richer asset than dollars. It is the one indispensable tool that is needed for the successful completion of every job you may desire or are compelled to tackle.

Emerson reminded us that "keeping everlastingly at it brings success." Determination forces you over the road of concentration for the success of the forces of intellect thrown like the searchlight upon just one thing and held there.

The searchlight gets control of all the rays of light and purposefully directs them. Concentration is the control of the cultivated mind.

Nobody cares whether Lincoln or Edison, Emerson, McCormick or Agassiz had a back account because everybody knows they had a brain account. They cultivated and concentrated their brains upon a great determination to do something so well worth while that they rose above the poverty, above the sickly fortune into the indestructible wealth of the world.

WEALTH IS SPREADING OUT. LOOSE talk often catches the ear and sometimes facts take a long time to catch up. It is safe to say that most persons have the impression that the rich are getting richer and the poor poorer every day; that the concentration of great wealth is a growing menace that the United States must reckon with. But the cold hard truth will not down. The Bureau of Internal Revenue shows that all classes of Americans with incomes below $50,000 show increases, while all classes having incomes in excess of $50,000 show decreases, and this in spite of the fact that the mass income of $18,224,639,355 in 1918, increased in 1920 to $23,735,629,183.

When the figures for this year are at hand it will be found the poor are getting richer and the rich getting poorer. Figures show that 64.39 per cent of the aggregate personal incomes were in classes from $1,000 to $5,000 a year and 37.32 per cent in classes from $1,000 to $10,000. Incomes in excess of $10,000 per year footed up only 22.58 per cent. These disclosures may be a sad blow to our agitators and long haired political economists. The plain truth is that the American is living on a higher standard than any man in the world, that his income is far in excess of the income of any other national. If he must pay high prices he has the money to buy and will have a little left for a rainy day if he exhibits any of the characteristics of thrift.

NO TIME TO HALT.

THE undivided loyalty and support of members of the wheat growers' associations is necessary today as never before. After a life of three years, during which development has been steady, if not as rapid as had been expected by some, it now appears that the time has come when very large increases in the pools will be obtained.

One new state association has just been put under way; at least one more is in prospect for the near future. In Montana and in North Dakota, heavy increases have been secured. During the winter, both of the states should handle two or three times as much wheat in 1923 as they did during the last marketing season. Colorado is adding members at the rate of 150 or 200 each week, and Nebraska is experiencing a satisfactory if not quite so extensive, growth.

It has always been recognized that maximum success from cooperative wheat marketing can not be achieved without a good-sized share of the nation's wheat production in the pools. That is the reason for the long-term contract—it takes years to build pools large enough to mean success and the first organizers realized the necessity of providing time for the work.

That cooperative marketing of wheat even when pools are small brings real results, has been well proven on the Pacific coast where the associations have operated the longest. No one will deny that the organizations have stabilized costs and prices and have increased them, compared with prices in other parts of the country. But some members feel that the price of wheat is the lead of the thousands of unorganized producers who also have received benefits from the work. There is an inclination to say: "If George won't help, let's go back to the old plan and teach him a lesson." Probably not on the part of many members, but some of them undoubtedly have this in mind.

Let's not talk about going back to the old haphazard plan of marketing just now. The year 1923, unless all signs fail, is going to see the largest increase in wheat pools which has been accomplished in any twelve months since the original association was formed in Washington and northern Idaho. The year 1923 is going to be the vital year for cooperative wheat marketing. The active support of every member is necessary if the success which appears just within reach is to be achieved.—The Producer.

AMERICA BOOMING ALONG.

THE man who is not sold on America is the man who does not think true we are an electric people, emotional to a degree, and subject to all the annoyances of temporary maladjustment. Now we are joyful, viewless, and we are looking to the top, now we are wistful—in the depths of the valley.

Clear vision, however, sees nothing but the steady advance. While the blasts of winter have been chilling us, railroad traffic has been increasing until it reached the highest point ever experienced for the season. Panic talk about unemployment has given place to grumbling about the inability to get help. For the first time in the history of the country the cotton spindles in use in January have exceeded 35,000,000. Textiles are booming, iron and steel reports show enormous activity and automobile manufacturers predict their biggest year.

Even with all of this improvement conditions are still unsettled. There is still talk of merchants travelling on dangerous ground. The glooms contend that merchants will be caught with high price merchandise on their shelves that the public will decline to buy at the prices asked. More than likely, however, the alert merchant will have bought and banked his profits before the pessimists awaken to the fact that we are living and working in the greatest country in the world.

We control practically all the gold in the world and what is more important we are coming to set the moral and business standards of the world, which summed up in plain homely, spells the certain reward of dominating progress.

TAXATION TASKMASTERS.

THE fight against exorbitant taxation has been a merry one in western states and is still going on. There has been a cessation in the volume of legislation in some states as high as fifty per cent. In Utah and Idaho all propositions to increase taxes on the mining industry were defeated, and substantial cuts made in the overhead, by salary reductions and abolition of useless offices.

In California the fight to force through a reduced budget is still on, and Governor Richardson is backed by the metropolitan and country newspapers in his aggressive fight to slash the budget.

In Oregon consolidation bills were defeated by the old guard with the cry that no economy was possible by abolishing scores of boards and commissions. A higher gasoline tax and a state income tax were enacted.

Legislatures are still wasting money like drunken sailors on clerical assistance, maintaining inequalities in paying for the same work at different salaries, and office help at all kinds of rates that are not paid in private business and well managed corporations.

The people do not realize that these practices create social discontent among the workers and are destructive to equal rights before the law, the surest way to promote bolshevism and undermine the political structure.—The Manufacturer.

Walter Bell, brother of Mrs. C. H. Latourel, was here the first of the week, looking up a house for his family. He is connected with The Dalles and Heppner Truck Line, and by the first of April expects to make daily trips with freight between these two points.

OUR HOSSLESS HOMES.

SMITH has got a souper-six, and Jones has got an eight; Brownson keeps a four-seater a-standing by his gate. . . Biggs has got a tourin' coup, an' Baggs has got a truck. . . Jefferson sez the 'lectric is the finest job he's struck. . . The butcher drives a roadster, that's playin' hell with us; The grocer drives a limousine that chokes ya as they pass! The barber puts his surplus in a seven-seater bus, O, everybody's got a boat, and that's includin' us! Granny steers her chummy-car with doors of bevel plate. . . Baby wants a winter-Ford—he'll have it, sure as fate! Sister—she's the suffragette—that lives on a rooster tite—band to have an auto-hears' the minute she's out-tried! Makes a feller fidget like he never done before—what we might amount to, if we weren't so beastly poor!

HOMEY PHILOSOPHY for 1923

WHEN a fellow's late for business and offers as an excuse the fact that he put his teeth in water which froze in the night and so it took him ten minutes to thaw them out before he could eat his breakfast, it speaks well for his imagination, and maybe better for his sense of humor. What's more, we can all laugh. But when the laugh is ended we come to see that excuses are poor crutches on which to lean. That chap grows who, when wrong admits it. Excuses are ugly patches on an ill-fitting suit that can be made quite dapper if its faults are seen and a hitch taken in here and there.

ONE may imagine when tithing is a church ritual. Of course, such an imagination is born in ignorance. Tithing is not a part of the ritual; it is not statutory nor is it a by-law. The law requiring tithing is fundamental. It is eternal. It existed long before the Ten Commandments were given, and was written into the constitution of man's relationship to God. It is not only fundamental, but is absolutely essential.

The first family of the universe paid their tithes. Abraham paid his tithe to Melchizedek, and so on all down the ages. Christ did not abrogate, repeal nor suspend this fundamental law and principle. He required it; brought it over into the dispensation of Grace, and it is required of every Christian.

If every church in the country were composed of members who were conscientious, faithful tithers, there would be no need of the treasuries of the churches to evangelize the world and to rectify every church deficiency on earth.

Every man in the church who today refuses to tithes is a deliberate robber. The benefits of tithing ought to settle the question. There isn't any conscientious tither who doesn't get more out of his nine-tenths than the robber gets out of the ten-tenths that he unjustly and unwisely and unfairly uses. There isn't a tither on the page of history that has ever been a beggar or who has been clothed in rags or who has walked the streets in disgrace and dishonor. Every man who keeps God's law is absolutely honest with God has bestowed upon him divine blessings, and he enjoys that peace, prosperity and happiness which comes through no other source. Will a man rob God?
