MORROW COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

Foreign Advertising Representatives: THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

FORGING AHEAD.

MORROW county's road program for the year is getting under full way, and when completed will facilitate greatly the accessibility of Heppner by the outside world.

The county program the main project is the Heppner-Hardman road, which it is contemplated will be finished from Heppner over Heppner hill to the corner of the Hendricks place. This will be good water-bound macadam, and an improvement long desired by farmers of that section.

AMERICAN LEGION VS. SYNDICALISM

THE American Legion, a patriotic order of ex-servicemen, is combating the I. W. W. by every means it is lawfully possible to employ.

The proposed general strike in the lumber industry, that is to paralyze logging camps and sawmills on May 1 will be carried out by the Wobblies if recent plans made by them are successful.

CHOOSING A COLLEGE

PRINCIPALS and teachers of rural high schools should help the students that intend to continue their studies beyond high school, to select the college or university that seems best fitted for each individual student's needs.

influence the entire trend of one's later life. The rural high schools can help in this. A list of 1,640 normal schools, colleges, universities, and professional schools giving the name, location, and name and address of the president of each may be had free from U. S. Bureau of Education, Department of the Interior, Washington, D. C.

FAIRM LABOR SUPPLY SHORT

ONE YEAR ago there was a surplus of farm labor of about twelve per cent, and now the Department of Agriculture reports a shortage of about the same percentage below requirements.

WHERE IT BEGAN

GEORGE W. PEAVY, who is dean of the school of forestry, Oregon Agricultural College, and was formerly in the United States Forest Service, has written a pamphlet on "The Commercial Forests of Oregon" in which he gives the real reason for the slowness with which the people of America have waked up to the fatal results of forest destruction.

POLITICS VS. THE CONSTITUTION

IF PRESS dispatches are correct, the "book" question will come to the front as a campaign issue in 1924. It seems ridiculous that our great republic should be torn apart politically over a principle basic to our constitution which guarantees freedom and protection to the individual.

HOMIE PHILOSOPHY for 1923

ISN'T it strange how the old copy book maxims work out. Here we have a New York State legislator who suggests a law to compel the courts to declare a man or a woman sane or insane whenever an examination is demanded.

LOST—Chauffeur's badge, No. 536. Finder please return to W. M. Kirk, city.

Slat's Diary

Pug and Jake gets into a fit and Jake blocked Fugs eye and Pug knocked 4 teeth out for Jake & it wood of ben a lot better fit only they was 2 men cum along and divides them and made them stop. Jake got a little bit of the deal but Pug was a good sport.

Sunday—Forgot my bath las nite and had to take it this morning. The most discomforting thing about taking baths is that no matter how many you take they are all ways just as many left as they were before you tuk them.

Monday—2 new kids cum to skool today which had ben adopted by a man and his wife. They have ben orphans since the death of their parents. I of them is a nice looking girl and if I no what I am talking about Jane is a going to have a opportunity of getting jellus.

Tuesday—Uncle Ben has bought him a house here in town and he sed he got a bargain and the real estate Co. is so generous and fair and etc. They have got it drew up in the contract so that any time he falls to make up his payments they will take the property off his hand.

Wednesday—Went to the pitcher shop tonite and talk about a good pitcher. It was a Cereal and before the lat real time a boy asg pa did he want to buy a Firey Cross and he replied and sed No it is plenty warm in here now. Cum back nex fall. Ma and me casted glances at each another.

WE SOW in faith when spring unfolds her gracious mantle o'er the earth. While Nature's every promise holds a harvest fair, of golden wealth, we sing, as o'er the fields we spread the innate life in precious seed, while faith foretells the harvest-bread, to stay our lives in time of need. In faith we spend the night of rest, when fertile seed-time's day is done, and faith endows with keener zest the hour we greet the rising sun. We build in faith for future years, and lend our all in faith's bright lure, with not a thought of pain or tears—we brave the hills that faith can cure. Though life abounds in pit-falls deep—though death is somewhere out ahead, God help the faith that fails to reap, in greater faith, its daily bread!

you in said lands be foreclosed and that you and each of you be barred of all right, title and interest in or to said premises and every part thereof, save the statutory right of redemption and for such other relief as the court may deem equitable. The lands covered by said mortgage and which will be sold under such foreclosure are as follows: E½NE¼, SW¼NE¼, and NW¼SE¼ of Sec. 18, Tp. 6 S., R. 28 East of Willamette Meridian.

Phelps made and entered on the 5th day of April, 1923, and the date of first publication is April 12, 1923.
