HEPPNER IS LOSER TO ARLINGTON 4-2

Rally in Last Period Is Nearly Disastrous for Visitors

BROKEN BAT FATAL

Montague and Solvester Star for Gil- ham County Team; Game Scoreless to Seventh

A broken bat may have been the cause of Heppner's defeat at the hands of Arlington on Friday night. It was a no-score game up to the seventh inning when Arlington ran in 4 runs. It looked then like a shut-out for Heppner till the last of the ninth, when the locals started a batting rally which resulted in two tallies before the broken bat incident brought the game to an end.

"Speck" Alken started the rally with a safe hit for two bags, and crossed home plate on a pretty drive by "Chappy" King, the next man up. King made third in the melee that followed, and a hit by Van Marter brought him home. Anderson was unable to locate the ball, making two down. Ward picked a nice single that landed Van Marter on third and Paul Alken came to bat. Paul had his batting eye with him and hit the ball like that should have sent it out of the lot, but Fate decreed against the locals when his bat broke, making a nice little pop fly to right field.

What might have happened with Van on his way home from third and Ward on second if the bat hadn't given way, is left for Heppner fans to surmise. As it was Arlington went home with the bacon to the tune of 4-2.

The pitching of "Toots" Montague was an outstanding feature of the game. He had a no-hit record to his credit till the last of the ninth, and it is little wonder that he weakened when once he was found. Broughton, Heppner's lanky twirler, had an off-day, as he was unable to put the dope on the ball that has characterized his pitching in previous games. The receiving work of King did much toward holding the local team together. "Buster" Solvester, short-stop for the visitors, was a thorn in Heppner's side, as they were unable to find a safe place for the ball any place in his part of the diamond. He fielded several balls that were probably good for hits in most any league. Conley, his running mate on second, likewise played a pretty fielding game.

The locals consider it no disgrace to be downed by the brand of ball displayed by Arlington Sunday, and are only awaiting their chance to redeem themselves.

Home Institution Is Making Fine Ice Cream

As a usual thing we all think that what is produced away from home is superior in quality to that of the same article produced by the local factory. During the past several seasons, the Morrow County Creamery has been manufacturing ice cream, and each season Manager Cox has improved the quality and increased the quantity of his product until now he is taxing the capacity of his plant to meet demands.

The best thing about it is the ice cream now being put out by the creamery company is not excelled by any product on the Heppner market, and Mr. Cox is to be congratulated for the excellence of the article he is manufacturing, and is deserving of the fine trade he enjoys.

Lexington High School Graduates Appreciative

We, the Senior class of Lexington High School, deem this, our graduation, an opportune time and an appropriate occasion to extend to the people of Lexington and vicinity our appreciation of their encouragement and assistance given to help us in securing this, the initial step of our education.

Your assistance has been rendered in various ways, first, by giving us the proper kind of encouragement, you have enabled us to achieve success in our work, and to cope successfully with other schools in athletics. Secondly, by your encouragement, you have inspired us to greater efforts along various lines of endeavor. This encouragement has been of a dual nature; that given consciously, such as verbal and financial encouragement, and that given unconsciously by the good examples found in your daily living.

We feel that we are in great measure indebted to you, our friends, for this assistance. So we will endeavor to lead worthwhile and purposeful lives that your interest in us will not have been in vain.

LEXINGTON HIGH GRADUATES NINE

Commencement Exercises Held at School Auditorium Last Night

The commencement exercises of the Lexington high school were held in the high school auditorium on Wednesday evening at which time a class of nine fine young people received their diplomas and are now ready to pass on to the higher educational institutions.

Those graduated were Kathryn Slocum, Blanche Shinn, Dallas Ward, Beulah Tucker, Ruth Stephens, Lewis Allyn, Maxine Gentry, Wilma Leach and George Tucker.

The address to the class was delivered by Prof. Frederick Berchold of O. A. C. who took for his subject "Value of an Ideal," and impressed upon the graduates the importance of choosing an ideal, or a standard to look up to in whatever line of endeavor they might choose; also impressing upon them that they should proceed with their education just now begun and enter some good college that they might be better fitted for life's battles. The address of Prof. Berchold was pointed and well received.

Presentation of diplomas was made by Professor Kellogg, superintendent of the school, in neat little address. An orchestra composed of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Ray White, furnished instrumental selections, and Harvey Miller and Mrs. C. W. Walker each sang and were heartily received. Invocation was by Rev. E. A. Palmer, who also pronounced the benediction. The citizens of the community, who are justly proud of their high school, were present in large numbers and the auditorium was filled to capacity.

County Court Secures Right of Way for Grade

A very satisfactory settlement of all claims for right of way for the grade leading up Heppner hill on the new survey was made this week between the county court and W. P. Dutton and J. H. Gemmill, through the mediation of the county engineer. The problem of getting out of Heppner flat on a grade coming within the requirements of the state highway department, has been one that has agitated the court for some months, and pending its settlement has held up the road. The settlement was made this week, and now that this has been accomplished, work is started with the road machinery and the new road laid out.

The court expresses great satisfaction over the outcome and feel that nothing now stands in the way of getting the macadam finished to the top of the hill.

Local Organization Is Getting Under Way to Make Event Biggest Success Ever

An exceptionally good collection of talent has been arranged by the Elison-White company for the Heppner Chautauque June 22 to 27. The big tent will be erected at the same location as last year on the Knights of Pythias lot opposite the Fair grounds. Committees were appointed at a meeting of guarantors last Friday evening, and final preparations will be made at a like meeting tomorrow evening at the Christian church.

Officers elected Friday for the year are: president, W. O. Livingstone; vice-president, S. E. Notson; secretary, John W. Hiatt; treasurer, Fred Tash. Chairmen of standing committees: tickets, W. W. Smed; publicity, S. E. Notson; grounds, Charles Thomson.

This year's program includes musical entertainments, educational lectures, and high-class dramatics. Four lectures of high standing throughout the world have been obtained, a ladies orchestra, concert company, three brothers presenting "futuristic" music, negro minstrel, an entertainment company consisting of man and wife, and a company of play actors of exceptional merit.

Norman Allan Imrie delivers a lecture on "Working Together for Millions," a stirring, forceful thought-provoking presentation of Anglo-Saxon problems. The Four Corners Concert Company is the title of the lecture of D. Pirie Bayes, a woman who has made a study of the problem from the home standpoint. Henry Gaines Haven, who has national reputation for his high-minded thinking and oratory, presents an entirely new philosophy in "The Soul of Things." With his collection of Australian curios, Norman V. Pearce, Australian lecturer, has prepared a treat in "The World's Curiosity Shop."

The Oregon Quintet is an exceptionally versatile ladies' orchestra that has captivated audiences all over the world. A group of very talented musicians brought together through the Elison-White agency in the Lewis Concert company, consisting of two men and two women from leading musical schools of the United States. A trio, the Patton Brothers, presents a program of "futuristic" music, something entirely new and original.

Everyone is interested in the "Shepherd of the Hills," Harold Bell Wright's master novel which will be acted by the Kephley and Peffer Players. These will be one of the finest negro jubilee companies in America, the Garner Jubilee Singers, with the Lombard Entertainers, presenting a program of novelty songs, readings, whistling solos and piano-forte, rounding out the regalia of talent for this year's Chautauque.

Did you ever see a sweet widow who would set in the moonlight for hours with any man she could pick up and sing Aloha to him to the accompaniment of a ukulele? Miss Henrietta Darby in "And Home Came Ted" will fill every requirement in this direction and in addition can tell of the "moon-kissed beach at Waukiki."

The student body primary election to elect officers for next year was held Tuesday, May 8, and the candidates having the highest number of votes were selected to run at the final election. The candidates for the offices are:

President: Carl Cason, Elmer Buckman,
Vice-President: Elaine Sigbee, Paul Aiken,
Secretary: Marguerite Hialer, Mary Crawford,
Treasurer: Reid Buseick, Keith Logan.

Yell Leaders: Kathleen McDavid, Marvin Gammell, Fay Ritchie, Hehich Editor: Austin Smith.
Business Manager: Bernice Woodson.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK BEGINS MAY 18

The activities of commencement week at Heppner HI begin May 18 with the Junior-Senior banquet at the Hotel Heppner. On Tuesday, May 22, the Junior-Senior play will be presented. Examinations will be held on the 22nd and 23rd and on the 24th the student body picnic will be a big feature. The baccalaureate sermon will be Sunday, May 20, at the Christian church and the graduation exercises will be on Friday evening, the 25th.

There are sixteen in the class of '23, fourteen girls and two boys. The class roll is:
Velma Case, Willetta Barratt, Florence Cason, Lena Craddock, Tina Deherty, Nellis Flynn, Rose Hiri, Evelyn Humphreys, Elizabeth Huston, Ray McDuffee, Philip Mahoney, Thelma Miller, Reliance Moore, Retha Owen, Francis Parker, and Ruth Tash.

This class has always been a live, peppy bunch and the high school regrets very much to lose them.

The Junior class pins have arrived and are now proudly displayed by the class of '24. They consist of an "H" of white gold and background of gold with "H. S." and the year in the corners. The guard is a plain '24 of yellow gold.

Don't forget the play "And Home Came Ted" to be given by the juniors and seniors on Tuesday, May 22, at the Star theater. This play is the funniest comedy ever written, a regular side-splitter. Aunt Jubilee, the cook, and Miss Loganberry, the spinster, are real "characters" who will make you laugh and then laugh some more.

Last Friday the juniors kept the custom of Junior Flunk day in a very fitting manner. They left at six o'clock in the morning for Heren's mill where they spent the day. Nobody took the eats, so all went well. In the evening a mammoth bonfire was built and around it the class had the pleasure of listening to the many beautiful songs sung by Mr. McCoy. What if all the juniors were stiff and tired next day! It was worth it!

Did you ever see a sweet widow who would set in the moonlight for hours with any man she could pick up and sing Aloha to him to the accompaniment of a ukulele? Miss Henrietta Darby in "And Home Came Ted" will fill every requirement in this direction and in addition can tell of the "moon-kissed beach at Waukiki."

At the last student body meeting it was decided to award small gold "H" pins to all those who took part in Heppner HI's debating this year.

GRADUATING CLASS HAS A BUSY WEEK

Junior-Senior Banquet, First Event, Is Tomorrow Evening

16 TO GET DIPLOMAS

Baccalaureate, Class Play, Class Picnic and Commencement Round Out Four Years of Toil

Closing events of Heppner high school for the year begins with the Junior-Senior banquet at Hotel Heppner tomorrow evening. Baccalaureate sermon will be at the Christian church Sunday evening, delivered by Rev. W. O. Livingstone, and the following week will be filled with examinations, class play, class picnic and commencement.

The class of sixteen to be graduated from the high school Friday evening has a busy time ahead of them for a full week, when comes a short respite to regain energy with which to attack further problems in the making of a career. When they gather round the festive board with the Juniors tomorrow evening they will forget all strife and dissension between the two classes for three years and bequeath to their successors all the rights of Seniorship for the coming year.

Then coming their best demeanor and handsome togs they will file down the Christian church aisle Sunday evening and take their place in the front pews before Rev. W. O. Livingstone to receive God's benediction for having progressed thus far in the struggle for supremacy with a prayer to help them to attain much higher stations. But, even at graduation time, all is not glory, for on Tuesday and Wednesday this same sixteen must knit their brows and irritate the gray matter over final examinations. For a moment's diversion, however, they will put on their stage faces and amuse the public for a couple of hours Tuesday evening with the class play.

"And Home Came Ted" is the vehicle with which the class is to make itself famous in high school theatricals at the Star theater Tuesday night. The play is a comedy of mystery in three acts, and promises to be a rare treat for those who may see it to desert family firesides for the show house when it is presented. After the play and another day of exams have been safely passed the class will resort to a day of recreation Thursday, when the class picnic will be held, to recuperate to the fullest possible extent for the biggest ordeal of all—the graduating exercises on Friday evening.

At the graduating ceremonies in the high school auditorium the public will be accorded a musical treat, as Mrs. Bernice Dafeo Hopper, director, has prepared several beautiful selections. It is not certain who will give the commencement address, as Sam Dolan of O. A. C. who was to speak has notified Professor Herdick that he cannot be here. Those who will receive diplomas are:

Willetta Elizabeth Barratt, Velma May Case, Florence Aida Cason, Opal Lena Craddock, Christina Deherty, Nellie Taylor Flynn, Rose Anna Hiri, Evelyn Elizabeth Humphreys, Elizabeth Leona Huston, Ray W. McDuffee, Philip W. Mahoney, Thelma Lucille Miller, Maude Reliance Moore, Retha Owen, Francis Crawford Parker, Ruth Zell Tash.
