RADIATE SUNSHINE

LIGHT is the symbol of life. If, when the world is in shadow, man wishes to signal the existence of life, he holds up a light.

The locomotive throws ahead of it a stream of light, which heralds the coming of a great, thrilling thing.

Life is the most wonderful of all visible things because it makes all things visible.

Light is the great painter. Red, green, blue and yellow are one in darkness; they are different things in light.

As light is the symbol of life, so also is darkness the symbol of death. We choose the day through which to live; the night through which to sleep.

Fill your life with light; don't be a dead one. Fear away from your window the shutters of anger, hatred, envy, jealousy and fancied wrong.

Slat's Diary

By ROSS FARQUHAR.

FRIDAY—Well me and pa had a good look on ma today. Having bin sick and ill for a couple days the Dr. had bin coming every once and a while to see her and a lot of foolish questions and etc. well to the preacher from the church came to see how she was getting along and when he came in and at her how did she feel she was absent minded and put out her tongue at him like she had bin in the habit of doing at the Dr. & he dident hardly no what to think till he seen me laughing and then he seen the look and laughed heartily with us.

Saturday—Great game of ball today we beat the South End Ruff Necks 27 to 13. I personally knocked a 3 bagger for 3 Bases. I gess I made a name for myself all rite. A coming home on the buss I give up my seat to a older lady and she sed Thank you I hate to Deprive you of your seat but I replied and sed it wasent no Deprivity a tall.

Sunday—Got all the Sunday papers but not a word of my 3 bagger and still these newspaper men calls their self sporting Editors. This gourd to show how they are onto these job.

Monday—Pa cum home sick this evening and ma puts a mustard Plaster on his bed and put his ft. in boiling water and he smiled disturbly and sed he felt like the Cande witch was getting burnt at both ends at once.

Tuesday—I sat ma what was the reason that sum men makes money & others has a hard time getting a long. And she sed well sum men sells there self to the world while they are other men witch just give there self away. And then she give a look at pa witch sed nothing and repeated it over.

Wednesday—I of are neighbors is a inventor and now he says he has invented a machine witch will do a wimmens work. Frum what pa sed ma thinks she married 1 of them.

Thursday—Are preacher told ma he was a going to preach a good sermon about Liars. But ma pirswaded him to put it off till sum rainy Sunday because if it was a nice day all the people he wanted to hit wood be out on the Golf link a playing there favorat past time.

Poem by Uncle John

THE OUT-DOOR ROSEBUSH ABOUT the saddest task of mine, when autumn comes around, is 'beddin' down the rose-bush that we leave out, in the ground,—the house-plants don't impress me, in their shelter, nice an' warm, but I'm sorry for the rose-bush, that must stand the winter's storm. . . . Then, I ketch myself reflectin' that there's many a human soul, that is out in the winter by the things they can't control, when the little things that's wasted could be used to keep 'em warm, till they bloom again, in springtime, with the passin' of the storm. . . .

Heppner, Oregon, as the place for hearing said account and any objections thereto.

SUMMONS. In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Morrow County.

Advertisement for Punchettes, including text: 'Punchettes IS loyalty a lost art? Have the people forgotten its meaning? Has it ceased to have power over the people? Loyalty in its truest and deepest meaning is free from every element of selfishness; loyalty means absolute devotion to principle, to party, to person. Absolute devotion takes into account the sacrifice that has to be made to be loyal. It may mean the loss of everything, but loyalty never counts that cost too dear. If this is a correct definition of loyalty, then it is highly probable that it has been supplanted by the meanest kind of selfishness because men are sacrificing principle, party and person for their own selfish interest, or to fill their own greedy purses. They seem to have but one God, the God of Gold. They worship at his shrine; they bow before him morning, noon and night; they carry his image in their pockets; his image is stamped upon their features; they would sacrifice their government; they would sacrifice their homes. Yes, they would give up their families to satisfy their own selfishness. Many business men have ceased to fight for great business principles because they are afraid it will cost them something. Politicians have long since mortgaged their souls. Oh, for a power that would bring back to the throne of business statesmanship, and to the religious altar unswerving, untainted and unadulterated loyalty.'
