

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

PUBLISHED WEEKLY AND DEVOTED TO THE BEST INTERESTS OF MORROW COUNTY

HEPPNER, OREGON, THURSDAY, MAY 31, 1923.

Subscription $2.00 Per Year

Volume 40, Number 9.

LOOKING TO FUTURE AIM OF CLUB WORK

Country Boys and Girls Are Led Estray By School Alone

FARM IS BEST BET

Five Factors in Educating Young
Farmers Held to Be Essential:
"Start Them Early"

(By R. B. WILCOX in Morrow
County Farm Bureau News.)

The great quarrel in the country today is about unsatisfactory conditions surrounding the producers of grain, fruit, stock, etc., and the proper way to better these conditions.

A prominent banker recently said that he believed that what the producer needs most is not an unlimited amount of credit, but a better marketing system. The chance to borrow money when absolutely needed has been a very unsatisfactory handicap but unless the crop, that this money finances, can be profitably marketed then the producer is surely playing a losing game and the lender has small chance of repayment.

Some of the great problems for the future to solve then are: labor, money, cost of production, methods of production and marketing.

Under ordinary conditions the boy and girl whose duty it is going to be to help work out these things never has any occasion to think about these things until he is turned loose from school.

We rightly urge our boys and girls to at least finish high school and that means they are about 17 or 18 years old. Through the school for the things that they ordinarily do not have to do and are essential to their success.

Under ordinary conditions the boy and girl whose duty it is going to be to help work out these things never has any occasion to think about these things until he is turned loose from school.

We rightly urge our boys and girls to at least finish high school and that means they are about 17 or 18 years old. Through the school for the things that they ordinarily do not have to do and are essential to their success.

Under ordinary conditions the boy and girl whose duty it is going to be to help work out these things never has any occasion to think about these things until he is turned loose from school.

We rightly urge our boys and girls to at least finish high school and that means they are about 17 or 18 years old. Through the school for the things that they ordinarily do not have to do and are essential to their success.

Under ordinary conditions the boy and girl whose duty it is going to be to help work out these things never has any occasion to think about these things until he is turned loose from school.

We rightly urge our boys and girls to at least finish high school and that means they are about 17 or 18 years old. Through the school for the things that they ordinarily do not have to do and are essential to their success.

Under ordinary conditions the boy and girl whose duty it is going to be to help work out these things never has any occasion to think about these things until he is turned loose from school.

We rightly urge our boys and girls to at least finish high school and that means they are about 17 or 18 years old. Through the school for the things that they ordinarily do not have to do and are essential to their success.

Under ordinary conditions the boy and girl whose duty it is going to be to help work out these things never has any occasion to think about these things until he is turned loose from school.

We rightly urge our boys and girls to at least finish high school and that means they are about 17 or 18 years old. Through the school for the things that they ordinarily do not have to do and are essential to their success.

Under ordinary conditions the boy and girl whose duty it is going to be to help work out these things never has any occasion to think about these things until he is turned loose from school.

We rightly urge our boys and girls to at least finish high school and that means they are about 17 or 18 years old. Through the school for the things that they ordinarily do not have to do and are essential to their success.

Under ordinary conditions the boy and girl whose duty it is going to be to help work out these things never has any occasion to think about these things until he is turned loose from school.

We rightly urge our boys and girls to at least finish high school and that means they are about 17 or 18 years old. Through the school for the things that they ordinarily do not have to do and are essential to their success.

Under ordinary conditions the boy and girl whose duty it is going to be to help work out these things never has any occasion to think about these things until he is turned loose from school.

We rightly urge our boys and girls to at least finish high school and that means they are about 17 or 18 years old. Through the school for the things that they ordinarily do not have to do and are essential to their success.

Under ordinary conditions the boy and girl whose duty it is going to be to help work out these things never has any occasion to think about these things until he is turned loose from school.

We rightly urge our boys and girls to at least finish high school and that means they are about 17 or 18 years old. Through the school for the things that they ordinarily do not have to do and are essential to their success.

Under ordinary conditions the boy and girl whose duty it is going to be to help work out these things never has any occasion to think about these things until he is turned loose from school.

We rightly urge our boys and girls to at least finish high school and that means they are about 17 or 18 years old. Through the school for the things that they ordinarily do not have to do and are essential to their success.

Under ordinary conditions the boy and girl whose duty it is going to be to help work out these things never has any occasion to think about these things until he is turned loose from school.

We rightly urge our boys and girls to at least finish high school and that means they are about 17 or 18 years old. Through the school for the things that they ordinarily do not have to do and are essential to their success.

Under ordinary conditions the boy and girl whose duty it is going to be to help work out these things never has any occasion to think about these things until he is turned loose from school.

We rightly urge our boys and girls to at least finish high school and that means they are about 17 or 18 years old. Through the school for the things that they ordinarily do not have to do and are essential to their success.

HEPPNER TAKES IONE INTO CAMP

Fast Game Sunday Results in 6 for Locals to Visitors' 2

With three well-placed singles, Ione started the scoring game in the first inning on Gentry field Sunday. Their boom was nipped in the bud, however, for they were allowed only one run by Heppner's nice team work. Things still looked very favorable for Ione at the end of the second, as the locals were unable to score while the visitors squeezed in another run after placing a few more nice hits.

The teams were 11-7 for the first until the last of the sixth inning, when Speck Aiken started a hitting fest which resulted in five scores for Heppner before Ione was able to get things under control. Although he pitched the ball well, Ione took the lot for a total of 13 hits during the game, they did all their scoring in the first two innings. The locals ran in one run in the seventh, and the score stood 11-7. The last batter took the umpire's count.

All told Sunday's game was a good exhibition of ball, with only three errors made by both sides. The lineups were practically the same as in the game on Wednesday. The same batters, brought in for Heppner, received by King, and Roy pitched for Ione, received by Art Cochran. Ione got 12 hits off Heppner's team. He pitched to Ed Anderson. A large crowd of fans witnessed the game.

The lineup:

| | |
|------------|-----------------|
| Heppner—6 | Ione—2 |
| King | Cochran |
| Anderson | King |
| J. Aiken | 1st O. Kietmann |
| Elwood | 2nd V. Kietmann |
| Ward | Eubanks |
| Van Marter | 3rd W. Kietmann |
| Brown | 4th Anderson |
| Anderson | cf Blake |
| P. Aiken | cf Bristow |

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE LEGION CLIMB

The Oregon State Editorial association will participate this year in one of the most unique conventions in the history of the state's organization of newspapers. Plans are complete for participation of the editors in the third annual Mount Hood Climb of the Hood River Post, American Legion, which, according to estimates, will attract an estimated 750 visitors. The combined editorial and Legion party is expected to set a record in Northwestern mountain climbing. The number of people gathered at the highland forest camp, on the banks of the sparkling Tilly Jane creek and at the very edge of Mount Hood's perpetual snow, will far exceed that of any former recreational party ever held in the state, and the legionnaires, whose guides last year escorted 111 to the summit of the peak, expect this "Over the Top" party this year to be doubled.

Delegates to the editorial convention will assemble in Hood River on Friday morning, July 13. The day's activities will include tours of inspection through the refrigerated cold storage plants of the Apple Growers association and quarters of canning and other companies, attending a business meeting. On the evening of the first day of the convention the Hood River Chamber of Commerce will entertain the visiting newspaper folk with a banquet at the Columbia George hotel, noted as the Northwest's most fully equipped tourist hotel. Among the speakers at the banquet will be Hon. J. Adam Bede, formerly representative in Congress from Minnesota, who is known nationwide for his wit; Hon. N. J. Sinnott, representative in Congress from the Eastern Oregon district; Judge Fred W. Wilson, president of the Oregon Bar association, and Capt. Geo. R. Wilbur, commander of the Department of Oregon, American Legion.

On Saturday morning the editorial party will leave Hood River early en route to reach the mile-high Legion camp for an early lunch. The four-day climb will be made by the visitors over the Hood River Valley trunk of the famed Mount Hood Loop Highway, through the orchards, fruit of which is known in the markets of all the world and on into the Oregon National Forest.

The editors for the afternoon will be provided with a natural amphitheater in a mountain ravine, camped with white tents and blankets. Here they will be permitted to withdraw and conclude the formal business of their session.

Saturday night will be devoted to a campfire program, where members of the Legion party and editors will vie in song and story. The campfire will leave the base camp for an ascent of the mountain at daybreak on Sunday and Monday morning. Those who prefer less strenuous excursions will be conducted on trips to the ice cascades of the glaciers and over the expanses of blossoming meadows in the vicinity of the camp.

FEDERATED CHURCH.
Sunday school, 9:45 a. m.
Sermon, 11 a. m.; 7:45 p. m.
Christian Endeavor, 6:45 p. m.
The men's class is planning a ball game and picnic on Friday night for the men and young men of the church and congregation.
Next Sunday evening will sing a solo at the morning service and the young people will sing a special number at the evening service.

Fifteen of the young people will go to Morgan Sunday afternoon having charge of the service there.
We are endeavoring to make our services helpful and invite you to any or all of them.
J. R. L. HASLAM, Pastor.

John Bergstrom, who is a successful farmer of the Eight Mile country, in charge of the Frank Anderson place, was doing business in this city on Friday.
Clint Gilliam is confined to his home, suffering a severe attack of a gripple.

Famous Drama "Shepherd of the Hills" to Be Given at Chautauqua Here, June 22 to 27

Dramatization of Harold Bell Wright's Delightful Story of the Ozark Mountains to Be Presented on the Third Night by the Keighley and Peffer Players.

"The Shepherd of the Hills" will be a feature attraction at the Chautauqua in Heppner this year. This delightful American play, dramatized from Harold Bell Wright's famous story, is to be presented with scenic equipment by the Keighley and Peffer Players of New York City. The experienced people, selected and personally coached by Messrs. Keighley and Peffer, will give the production. "The Shepherd of the Hills" is a play of the Ozark Mountains. The characters, some rough and lawless, others of finer instincts, are typical of the strong, spirited pioneers who established the outposts of civilized life in the wild new land of the West. Dramatically real, with passages of idyllic beauty, his story of their friendships, their loves, their feuds, Keighley and Peffer are perhaps two of the best known New York actor-producers. Their productions are solid and dignified and through their professional standing in New York are enabled to secure the best and cleanest of American plays for Chautauqua presentation.

LOCAL NEWS ITEMS

Memorial Services Held Last Sunday Morning

Memorial Sunday was properly observed in Heppner on last Sunday morning, when a large audience gathered at the Christian church to hear the program and listen to the address delivered by Rev. J. R. L. Haslam. Members of the G. A. R., three in number, were there to represent. The program and list of names are given on another page of this issue. In his address, Mr. Haslam stressed the importance of the post now surviving, not being able to attend. The W. R. C. were well represented, as were also the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, and members from other orders of the city.

Pastor Haslam of the Federated church delivered a short and impressive address and appropriate music was furnished by the choir and audience. In his address, Mr. Haslam stressed the importance of the occasion and dwelt upon the great debt we owe the defenders of our country and all those who took part in our great war, and paid a fitting tribute to the departed soldiers, as well as offering encouragement to the survivors. Rev. W. O. Livingstone offered the invocation, and the services were impressive throughout.

Joyful picnic at the grove on the Harry Turner place in Sand Hollow on Sunday. More than 100 people were present and a fine picnic dinner was served. The afternoon was spent in a general good social time was had, the day being perfect for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kinsman drove up from their home at McMinnville Tuesday and are spending a few days in this city, visiting with friends and looking after their property here. The trip over the highway from McMinnville to Heppner is a pleasant one now, and the drive is easy, made in a day. Mr. and Mrs. Kinsman expect to return home tomorrow.

Heppner's streets now receive their daily sprinkle, the city council having arranged to have this work done during the summer months. A nice thing about it is that all the side streets as well as Main street are receiving the water and the dust nuisance will be greatly eliminated thereby.

Charles Eugene Musgrave and Ploice Annie Barnes, a young couple from Ione, were given license to wed by Clerk Anderson on Saturday, and a little later calling on Pastor Livingstone of the Christian church they were solemnized in the bonds of wedlock. They expect to make their home near Ione.

A marriage license was issued by Clerk Anderson on Saturday to Archie H. Nichols and Heniah Tucker, young people of Lexington. The wedding took place immediately in the office of the clerk. Rev. W. O. Livingstone performed the ceremony. The newlyweds will make their home on a farm near Lexington.

Willis McCarty, conductor on the O. W. R. & N., out of The Dalles is making a visit with the home folks at Heppner, coming in last evening to join his wife and babies, who have been visiting for several weeks at the home of Mrs. McCarty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Campbell.

Mrs. Fannie Reed, who has real estate interests near Ione, where she owns an extensive wheat farm operated by the Christopoulos brothers, came up from Portland on Saturday and spent a few days at Ione and Heppner. She returned home today.

Guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson this city is Mrs. Ella Kemmer of Spokane. Mrs. Kemmer was formerly Miss Ella Funk, a teacher of music in the Heppner schools at the time Mrs. Thomson was one of the faculty.

CECIL NEWS ITEMS

Co-Operative Grain Growers Hold Election

On May 1st a primary election was held for the purpose of nominating district delegates of the Oregon Co-Operative Grain Growers, and in this district the following men were nominated: Howard Anderson of Heppner, R. L. Benge of Heppner, S. J. Devine of Lexington, Jeff Jones of Heppner, H. V. Smouse of Ione and R. W. Turner of Heppner.

The election took place in Heppner on Friday last. There was not a heavy representation of the members of the association present to vote, and the result was as follows: Anderson 38, Benge 30, Devine 25, Jones 10, Smouse 28, Turner 21.

The directors of the Oregon Co-Operative Grain Growers will be elected for the year.

Widow Palmeter and wife and children of Boardman, accompanied by John McNamee and Misses Zoe Hadley, and Beth, Ida, and Alice Bleakman, and Mary McDaniel, also all of Boardman, spent some time in Cecil on Friday. Robbie says Boardman is the coming place, but why did he hide his tears behind his handkerchief and mormour when leaving Cecil, "Oh Cecil! Oh Cecil! With all thy faults I love thee best."

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender of Selkirk ranch, spent Saturday in Heppner at the home of Roy's father, Miss Flossie Stender, student of Heppner high school, returned with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender and will spend her vacation "down on the farm." Roy declares the prospects for a fine wheat crop have not been better for a good many years in his district.

"Wid" Palmeter and wife and children, Miss Celia, of Windywood, also Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morgan and children of Broadacre, joined a large picnic party at Heppner Junction on Sunday. "Wid" is still alive to boast of the fine time every one had, as we can vouch he didn't reach the dinner baskets first.

Wid Palmeter on Tuesday left Cecil store a fine bunch of galgalis wheat which was grown on his Windywood ranch. Dick Logan, not to be beaten, has also brought in a very fine sample of Turkey red wheat four feet, one inch, in height, from his father's ranch at Four Mile.

Peter Bauerfeldt who has been visiting friends in Heppner and Ione returned to Cecil on Thursday and will resume his work as Cecil's right hand man till his departure for his annual trip to Ritter.

Leon Logan made a trip to Arlington on Friday for a new McCormick tractor which he had bought during the week. Leon expects to start harvest about June 20.

David Hynd from Hynd Brothers ranch in Sand Hollow spent several days with his brother Jack at Butterby flats, leaving on the local for Heppner on Sunday.

MEMORIAL SERVICES HELD Last Sunday Morning

Co-Operative Grain Growers Hold Election

On May 1st a primary election was held for the purpose of nominating district delegates of the Oregon Co-Operative Grain Growers, and in this district the following men were nominated: Howard Anderson of Heppner, R. L. Benge of Heppner, S. J. Devine of Lexington, Jeff Jones of Heppner, H. V. Smouse of Ione and R. W. Turner of Heppner.

The election took place in Heppner on Friday last. There was not a heavy representation of the members of the association present to vote, and the result was as follows: Anderson 38, Benge 30, Devine 25, Jones 10, Smouse 28, Turner 21.

The directors of the Oregon Co-Operative Grain Growers will be elected for the year.

Widow Palmeter and wife and children of Boardman, accompanied by John McNamee and Misses Zoe Hadley, and Beth, Ida, and Alice Bleakman, and Mary McDaniel, also all of Boardman, spent some time in Cecil on Friday. Robbie says Boardman is the coming place, but why did he hide his tears behind his handkerchief and mormour when leaving Cecil, "Oh Cecil! Oh Cecil! With all thy faults I love thee best."

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender of Selkirk ranch, spent Saturday in Heppner at the home of Roy's father, Miss Flossie Stender, student of Heppner high school, returned with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender and will spend her vacation "down on the farm." Roy declares the prospects for a fine wheat crop have not been better for a good many years in his district.

"Wid" Palmeter and wife and children, Miss Celia, of Windywood, also Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morgan and children of Broadacre, joined a large picnic party at Heppner Junction on Sunday. "Wid" is still alive to boast of the fine time every one had, as we can vouch he didn't reach the dinner baskets first.

Wid Palmeter on Tuesday left Cecil store a fine bunch of galgalis wheat which was grown on his Windywood ranch. Dick Logan, not to be beaten, has also brought in a very fine sample of Turkey red wheat four feet, one inch, in height, from his father's ranch at Four Mile.

Peter Bauerfeldt who has been visiting friends in Heppner and Ione returned to Cecil on Thursday and will resume his work as Cecil's right hand man till his departure for his annual trip to Ritter.

Leon Logan made a trip to Arlington on Friday for a new McCormick tractor which he had bought during the week. Leon expects to start harvest about June 20.

David Hynd from Hynd Brothers ranch in Sand Hollow spent several days with his brother Jack at Butterby flats, leaving on the local for Heppner on Sunday.

CECIL NEWS ITEMS

Co-Operative Grain Growers Hold Election

On May 1st a primary election was held for the purpose of nominating district delegates of the Oregon Co-Operative Grain Growers, and in this district the following men were nominated: Howard Anderson of Heppner, R. L. Benge of Heppner, S. J. Devine of Lexington, Jeff Jones of Heppner, H. V. Smouse of Ione and R. W. Turner of Heppner.

The election took place in Heppner on Friday last. There was not a heavy representation of the members of the association present to vote, and the result was as follows: Anderson 38, Benge 30, Devine 25, Jones 10, Smouse 28, Turner 21.

The directors of the Oregon Co-Operative Grain Growers will be elected for the year.

Widow Palmeter and wife and children of Boardman, accompanied by John McNamee and Misses Zoe Hadley, and Beth, Ida, and Alice Bleakman, and Mary McDaniel, also all of Boardman, spent some time in Cecil on Friday. Robbie says Boardman is the coming place, but why did he hide his tears behind his handkerchief and mormour when leaving Cecil, "Oh Cecil! Oh Cecil! With all thy faults I love thee best."

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender of Selkirk ranch, spent Saturday in Heppner at the home of Roy's father, Miss Flossie Stender, student of Heppner high school, returned with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stender and will spend her vacation "down on the farm." Roy declares the prospects for a fine wheat crop have not been better for a good many years in his district.

"Wid" Palmeter and wife and children, Miss Celia, of Windywood, also Mr. and Mrs. Earl Morgan and children of Broadacre, joined a large picnic party at Heppner Junction on Sunday. "Wid" is still alive to boast of the fine time every one had, as we can vouch he didn't reach the dinner baskets first.

Wid Palmeter on Tuesday left Cecil store a fine bunch of galgalis wheat which was grown on his Windywood ranch. Dick Logan, not to be beaten, has also brought in a very fine sample of Turkey red wheat four feet, one inch, in height, from his father's ranch at Four Mile.

Peter Bauerfeldt who has been visiting friends in Heppner and Ione returned to Cecil on Thursday and will resume his work as Cecil's right hand man till his departure for his annual trip to Ritter.

Leon Logan made a trip to Arlington on Friday for a new McCormick tractor which he had bought during the week. Leon expects to start harvest about June 20.

David Hynd from Hynd Brothers ranch in Sand Hollow spent several days with his brother Jack at Butterby flats, leaving on the local for Heppner on Sunday.

PILOT ROCK TAKES 2 TO HEPPNER'S 10

Tight Game Promised But Visitors Could Not Deliver Goods

The game of ball between Heppner and Pilot Rock at Gentry Field yesterday afternoon drew a fine crowd, as it was expected that the game would be a tight one, and an exhibition of real ball playing. In this, however, there was disappointment, as the visitors failed entirely to be a match for the home players, and the score was a one-sided affair—so much so, that the locals were not encouraged to set up their best exhibition and consequently were the butt of many wailing from the bleachers.

In the first time at bat, Heppner ran in four counts, in the second three, in the fifth two, and in the seventh one. Diving to errors Pilot Rock was allowed to get into a count in their half of the ninth, not being able to get more than two men on bases in any previous inning, and this occurred a couple of times only. The battery of the visitors was weak and they fell down most of the way around. A new catcher was put in in the seventh after there had been a change in the pitcher's box and Pilot Rock gathered a little new pep, but the rally came too late.

Heppner has strengthened their team by the addition of Doty, who is a fine man at the bat and fills short stop acceptably. Some other changes might be made to strengthen the lineup, which will doubtless be done when another game is played. The Pilot Rock fellows are a good bunch of sports, and while the odds were greatly against them in yesterday's game, they did their best and did it cheerfully, and the Heppner folks are only sorry that they were unable to make it harder for the local bats, as a far better game would have resulted.

LEXINGTON CHURCH OF CHRIST.

W. F. Mahoney Presents A Varied Program

The goodly audience that heard Mrs. Mary Adele Cave Vann in recital at the Christian church on Tuesday evening were delighted with the program presented. The numbers were of a very high order, and Mrs. Vann proved her ability to handle in the most artistic manner each selection offered. She was assisted by the piano by her husband, James Silas Vann, who is an artist of high order, though of very modest demeanor, and their program is a treat to all music lovers. While many of the numbers on the program were classical, Mrs. Vann sang enough of the lighter class of melodies to give variety and also to bring out the mellow qualities of a well trained contralto voice. It is a delight indeed to hear these people, and we hope that Mr. and Mrs. Vann will come this way again.

FORMER HEPPNER MERCHANT DIES AT HOOD RIVER

Frank McFarland, well known to many of the older residents of Heppner, and a resident of Portland for the past 25 years, died suddenly at Hood River on Saturday, where he was engaged at the time in putting over a business deal. His demise was caused by heart disease.

More than thirty years ago Mr. McFarland came to Heppner and engaged in the general mercantile business, and for several years enjoyed a very large trade, especially with the interior country. He occupied the room in the building where the store of Phelps Grocery company is now situated, and the home that he built here was destroyed in the Heppner flood of June, 1905, but he and his family had removed to Portland previous to that time. He was engaged in the real estate and insurance business in Portland for many years, in which time he was quite successful. Dr. Earl C. McFarland, recently appointed collector of customs at Portland by President Harding, is his son, and was born in this city when the family residence here.

See BROWN & LOWRY for Alpha Hay, $21 a ton.

SIXTEEN GRADUATES RECEIVE DIPLOMAS

14 Young Women and 2 Young Men, Class of '23, Finish Work

ADDRESS IS GOOD

Monroe G. Everett of O. A. C. Gives
Interesting Talk; W. F. Mahoney
Presents Diplomas

A class of fourteen young women and two young men were presented with their diplomas at the commencement exercises of Heppner high school held at the auditorium on last Friday evening. They were greeted by a good sized audience and the program passed off as per schedule and in a pleasing manner. To the strains of the professional played by Bernice Woodson, the class, faculty, school board, and speakers marched on to the stage and took their places. The stage and room were decorated in the class colors and many beautiful flowers were in evidence, the back of the stage being banked with evergreens.

Rev. J. R. L. Haslam gave the invocation, followed by "A Wild Rose," by the girls' chorus consisting of Velma Case, Dorothy Hill, Willetta Barratt, Gene Pyle and Violet Hynd.

Monroe G. Everett, who has a place with O. A. C. at Corvallis delivered the commencement address and was listened to with interest as he discoursed himself upon the subject of "At Break of Day." He dwelt for some time on the importance of the graduates continuing the "golden preparation" for life's work by attending the higher educational institutions, and spoke many good words for both the Oregon Agricultural College and the University of Oregon, not failing to mention the high ideals maintained by the two state schools and praising the men who stand at the head of these institutions. Mr. Everett is not a finished orator, but his address was nevertheless full of interest and delivered in a plain and understandable manner.

The girls' chorus then sang "Up, Sailor Boy, This Day," and Professor Hedrick, in a few well chosen words presented the class of '23. He praised their good work as students and congratulated them upon the successful outcome of their faithful work as pupils in the high school.

W. F. Mahoney, chairman of the school board, in his "closing remarks," presented the diplomas and the program closed with the singing of "The Passing Days" by a mixed quartet and the benediction pronounced by Rev. W. O. Livingstone.

The graduates were Velma Case, Opal Lena Craddock, Christina Doherty, Rose Anna Hirt, Ray W. McDuffee, Thelma Lucille Miller, Retha Owen, Ruth Zell Tash, Willetta Ellis Barratt, Florence Alden Casne, Nellie Taylor Flynn, Evelyn Elizabeth Humphreys, Elizabeth Leona Huston, Philip W. Mahoney, Maude Heliance Moore, Frances Crawford Parker.

HENRY S. BIGLOW DIES AT HOME IN WALLA WALLA

Henry S. Biglow, who for many years was engaged in farming in this vicinity, owning a piece of land about four miles north of Heppner, died at his home in Walla Walla on Monday, May 21, after an attack of apoplexy of short duration.

M. Biglow removed from this county to Walla Walla in 1909 and has continued his residence there to the time of his death. He leaves a wife and eight children, the eldest being 15 years of age. His funeral was held in Walla Walla on Friday last, the Salvation Army officiating and burial was in Mountain View cemetery.

FORD OWNERS.
We have quite a supply of 30x3 1/2 used tires and tubes in good condition at prices from 50c up. HEPPNER GARAGE.

You Dreamed It
Now It's Here
Ready to Sell

A Ladies' pointed heel, pure thread Japan tram silk, heavy weight, fashioned, double sole and advanced toe. Silk Hose in all of the popular shades, such as black, otter, caramel and gun metal.

SPECIAL AT $2.50 A PAIR

ALSO

A Ladies' full-fashioned chiffon silk Hose with wide seam, Panel back. Extremely stylish. African brown and black.

SPECIAL AT $1.50 A PAIR

MINOR & CO.