Ben Buschke feels that the big rain of Thursday and Friday last did a lot of good to the grain crops in the Rhea creek section where he farms. His prospects were greatly brightened by an increase in yield as the grain will now be very plump because of the soaking rain. Mr. Buschke was in the city Monday and states that it will be the first of August before he will be ready for harvest.

Many will be interested in knowing that Mrs. H. E. Warren was appointed chairman of the historic spot committee by the Portland chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, and was their representative at the Meacham pageant. Through the efforts of Mrs. Warren, Wells Springs will be marked as a spot of interest in relation to the Old Oregon Trail.—Boardman Mirror.

The rains of Tuesday afternoon and evening seemed to have fallen the heaviest in the Hardman and Eight Mile sections. No permanent damage there might have been a lot of hail, but so far as we have been able to learn, little or no hail fell and no damage is reported to crops from this source. The rain storm was quite heavy toward the west side of the county.

John Adams was down from Hardman Monday looking after affairs of business in this city. That part of the county has received a very thorough wetting down and as the most of the grain is later maturing up that way the crops have been greatly benefited. Mr. Adams states that a bumper crop will be harvested in the south end of the county this season.

Howard Anderson reports that the rain that came to the Eight Mile country the end of last week was certainly a soaker, and in some places the grain was borne down by the weight of the moisture. No permanent damage is expected from this, however. Mr. Anderson was a visitor in this city on Monday.

Joe Devine states that he will begin his harvest on next Monday, providing it remains dry. The rain of Tuesday evening did not strike his place to amount to anything. Grain throughout the north of Lexington section is now ripe and harvesting will be on in earnest there the coming week.

David A. Wilson returned on Sunday from Ritter, where he spent the 4th. He was accompanied home by Mrs. Wilson and their baby daughter who had been spending a few weeks visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Elder.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Simonton of Alpine were visitors in Heppner Monday. Harvest is already for the sickle out that way and the north end of the county received its due portion of the big rain that fell on Thursday and Friday last.

Wm. Hendrix was in from Rhea creek Saturday, and reports that the big rain of last week caught him with his first cutting of alfalfa down and he expressed the fear that it might be pretty badly damaged as a result.

Martin Reid and family spent the three days of celebration at Meacham, where they saw President Harding and had a good time. They also spent a day visiting in Pendleton with the sister of Mrs. Reid, residing there.

Coel Warner, extensive wheat-raiser of Lexington was among the numerous residents of his vicinity in Heppner Saturday.

Willis Ward, who is farming in the Blackhorse section, was doing business in this city on Saturday.

Herb Olden, extensive wheat-raiser of Fairview, was a visitor in this city on Saturday.

Earl Warner, Lexington grain raiser, was doing business here on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keillogg, of Rhea creek were Monday visitors in Heppner.

Recommendations ONE of the best recommendations you can give to your prospective employer is your savings bank book showing regular deposits. One manager of a great business said: "I do not care what a man's capabilities may be, I will not give him a responsible position until he has demonstrated that he can save money regularly."

SUCCESS BUILDING "IT ISN'T YOUR TOWN—IT'S YOU" "If you want to live in the kind of a town, Like the kind of a town you like, You needn't slip your clothes in a grip And start on a long, long hike. For you'll only find what you left behind, For there's nothing that's really new; It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town, For it isn't your town—it's you. "Real towns are not made by men that are afraid. Lest somebody else gets ahead; When everybody works and nobody shirks You can raise a town from the dead. And if you make your personal stake, Your neighbor can make one, too; Your town will be what you want to see; It isn't the town—it's you." A modern hotel is any community's greatest asset, and every community that has a good hotel should see to it that the hotel is given local support. Hotel Heppner, J. B. FISHER, Mgr.
