MORROW COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER. Foreign Advertising Representative: THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION.

Richard Lloyd Jones Says: BE OF SINGLE PURPOSE.

IT IS a common practice to blame the world for our individual faults and failures. Nothing is more futile than to criticize circumstances.

Strong men are never satisfied with their achievements nor content with their opportunities. Great men are ever eager to do greater things.

The conqueror triumphs because he has learned how to concentrate effort. Talent is worthless when not put to use. Talent must be applied to be proven. Knowledge is nothing unless used. More information is never the equivalent of action.

Get a goal. It is the first essential in making a life good. A single purpose is the first essential of success. Who wants what he wants when he wants it and keeps after it until he usually gets it.

Every man is given brains and a backbone with the idea that he will use both. You develop your muscles by contracting it in the application of its power. You develop your mind by concentrating it on the mastery of a single subject.

GOOD ROADS AND COMPETITION. COMMUNITY building is beset with more puzzling problems than one might suppose. Perhaps one of the most difficult of solution being the problem created by the extension of road roads.

Some villages are so situated geographically that good roads simply open up an easy avenue for trade to go out of town. Then there is an element of danger in such thoroughfares which must be balanced of course by the advantages derived by the farmer.

BUYING POWER IN SMALL TOWNS. POLITICIANS who doubt where the strength of America lies should examine the report made from a survey of thirteen north-central states in relation to farm and town trade.

It is found that in towns of 2,000 or less population, the farm trade represents about 76 per cent of the total. In dry goods it represents 80 per cent; in hardware 83 per cent; in building material 80 per cent; in furniture 70 per cent, and in clothing 68 per cent.

Automobiles are sold in these small towns to the extent of 80 per cent of total consumption. These figures are startling and they are only slightly lower in towns of from 2,000 to 25,000. The small town consumption is more than fifty per cent in every line.

This survey shows where the market lies for American manufactured goods. It emphasizes again the importance of national legislators looking after the interest of the farmer. The farmer is awakening to a sense of his strength politically and economically. Unless he receives more serious consideration he is likely to prove a troublesome factor.

The writing is on the wall. Politicians both in the states and in the nation should keep their ears to the ground. The voice of the home town is well worth listening to.

Poem by Uncle John

The biggest tax we have to pay, ain't levied on our ears an' hay, nor saddled on our farms. . . . The broad exactions of the law may strip us till we're feelin' raw, - but those are trivial harms. Our taxes may be bigger'n rent - and take the widder's last red cent, an' grow with frenzied power. . . . The sheriff may attach our poles, an' drive us off to somewhere's else, - but that's a minor case.

It's nothin' less than truth, to say, the heaviest toll we have to pay - is on our personal habits. . . . We pay a blame sight heavier tax on O'Fallon and Sycoax, than on our fertile plains. We hardly ever hear 'em quote the penalties of green-horn vote - so deaf we seem to be. . . . It costs a sight of coin for schools, but forty times as much for fools, an' rasnal strategy!

conclusion that the highest, broadest, deepest and grandest place on earth is woman's indestructible throne - Home, sweet Home. You cannot send women to the fields without neglecting the front door of God's mansion - Home, sweet Home. You cannot put women in the positions of masculine competition without turning the children over to the juvenile court and the cold charity of the state. You cannot put women in competition with men and continue to populate the earth. You cannot find a substitute for Mother.

The position which rears its head above the sweep of winds and the flight of birds is woman's God-created throne - Home, sweet Home. When she takes her seat as a Christian wife and a Christian mother, the angels bow in respect to her imperial position and to the indestructibility of her scepter.

America needs Christian wives, Christian homes, and the indestructible thrones of Christian mothers. WHEAT TURNING OUT WELL. W. H. Padberg is busily engaged now in threshing his field of 2000 acres of Turkey Red on the home place. This grain is from certified seed that Mr. Padberg sowed last fall.

REFUSAL of the state highway commission to approve building of the John Day highway from Ukiah south has peeved the E. O. to such an extent that it accuses Judge Schanney of opposing the project because he has four sections of land along the Nye highway and wishes that stretch built out of county money. Echo people who had to fight with the court to get the road to Butter Creek after taxing themselves to raise the money, will appreciate the viewpoint of the E. O., but in view of the attitude of that paper when real market roads were wanted in this part of the county, will not worry much over the refusal of the commission to build the E. O.'s pet project in the mountains. - Echo News.
