

Local Happenings

Roy Neill was in town on Friday from his alfalfa farm on Big Butter creek. He was getting ready for the second cutting of alfalfa to begin the first of this week. So far Mr. Neill is not greatly encouraged by the prospective price for hay, as it looks like the market would be pretty well glutted and the demand slow. The best offer for alfalfa hay so far in his section is $8 per ton, and he thinks there will be little call even at that price. Should the winter turn out to be long and severe, however, Mr. Neill looks for the price to get better and the demand will be stronger.

Miss Margaret Loughney, sister of Mrs. Walter Moore, spent a couple of weeks visiting at the Moore home in this city. Accompanied by Mrs. Moore and her son Larry, Miss Loughney departed for her home at Tacoma on last Thursday. Mrs. Moore will visit for a month or so at the home of her parents in Tacoma, where she will later be joined by Mr. Moore when he takes his summer vacation.

Sam Hughes, head of the firm of Sam Hughes Co. of this city, departed for Portland on Monday to attend Buyers Week. This is the eleventh annual gathering of this sort in Portland and the tenth one that Mr. Hughes has attended. He enjoys getting together with the other merchants and business men of the Northwest very much.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Case left on Monday for Portland to attend Buyers Week. They were accompanied by Mrs. May Case and Miss Velma Case, who are taking their vacation and will go to Tacoma, where Don Case is now employed, expecting also to visit at Seattle before returning home.

Mrs. T. H. Lowe, who is postmistress at Cecil, was in the city for a short time on Monday. She states that the ranchers in that part of Willamette valley are quite busy just now in putting up their second crop of alfalfa. We acknowledge a very pleasant call from Mrs. Lowe.

C. C. Calkins and family were in the city for a short time on Monday, from their home at Spokane. Mr. Calkins is traveling in the interests of his wheat treating machine, and his family is accompanying him on this trip. They enjoyed meeting with old friends for a short time.

A. E. Wright was down from his Harlan ranch on Friday. He states that the grasshoppers are doing a lot of damage to the grass on the range at present and he expects they will be after the green stuff in the gardens in a short time. They are pretty thick in his vicinity.

The combine is running every day now on the farm of Miss Lillie Bros. at the head of Sourdough canyon and the grain is turning out a fine yield and of good quality, somewhat exceeding the expectations of the boys.

T. S. Coffey of The Dalles, who a few weeks ago ran an ad in The Gazette-Times concerning apricots he had for sale, writes us to thank the great number of people here who responded with orders for his fruit. The little ad brought him much business.

Sam Boardman, who has charge of equipment for the state highways, paid this office a call last Tuesday. Sam has the ability and will fill the office to which he has been appointed to the best interest of all concerned.

FOR SALE—Range stove in fair condition. Will sell or trade. Good for cook house. F. E. MASON, Lexington, Ore.

LOST—At feed yard, Heppner, July 21, four halibuts. Finder leave at this office. Reward.

1923 Round-Up To Surpass Past Years

Pendleton, Ore., Aug. 8.—An array of talent which will surpass all former years has been secured for the fourteenth annual Round-Up, to be held at Pendleton September 20, 21 and 22.

Cowboys and cowgirls who have won laurels all over the United States will compete in track and arena. For all events there are cash and merchandise prizes.

The Round-Up is distinctly a community show and Pendleton people are occupied with plans for the 1923 presentation. Homes will be thrown open to accommodate the visitors. Reasonable rates for rooms and meals are assured as the Round-Up Association rules against all profiteering.

MEETS MANY OLD TIMERS.

From the Enterprise Record-Chief, we have the following, clipped from that paper's write-up of the Walla Walla county pioneers reunion held at Enterprise the past week.

Among former residents of the county meeting with old friends at the reunion was Mrs. J. V. Crawford, mother of O. G. Crawford of the Joseph Herald. Mrs. Crawford's husband, Rev. J. V. Crawford, was pastor of the Christian church at Enterprise from 1898 to 1901, and the present church edifice was built under his pastorate. Mrs. Crawford came over from Heppner the week before and is visiting her son and family at Joseph, they having driven to La Grande to meet her.

Good Printing Is Our Hobby—The Gazette-Times

Does Fear Put a Tax on Your Pocket-Book?

Fear is a partner in the sale of many a quart of high-priced motor oil. The motorist pays for added protection that he does not get. The extra money usually goes into long-haul transportation and high merchandising costs.

Zerolene, produced on the Pacific Coast and often selling for half as much as other oils, reduces friction and wear to a greater extent than any other motor lubricant we have seen and tested or been able to produce. It is a better oil—even if it does cost less. Ask for it by name—Zerolene.
