Richard Lloyd Jones Says:

MIND MINTS MONEY.

SINGLENESS of purpose is the foundation of all success. It is the man who knows exactly what he wants and insists on getting it who usually gets it.

We are too prone to look upon money rather than mind as our goal. Money harnes only the man who has not learned to help himself.

It is the mind that mints money. Money never makes mind. To be born with a silver spoon in your mouth is not a handicap unless you let the spoon wag you.

Poverty is not a virtue. It is nothing to brag about. The poets praise a false philosophy when they sing of the glory of poverty. The whole struggle of the world is to scramble away from it. It is a hideous thing.

Your fortune depends not upon what you have in your hand but what you have in your head.

Real nobility is the fruit of heart culture no less than head culture and your heart grows big as you force it into the affection of other hearts.

Determination is a richer asset than dollars. It is the one indispensable tool that is needed for the successful completion of every job you may desire or are compelled to tackle.

Determination forces you over the road of concentration. Concentration is the forces of intellect thrown like the searchlight upon just one thing and held there.

Concentration is the control of the cultivated mind.

Nobody cares whether Lincoln or Edison, Emerson, McCormick or Agassiz had a bank account because everybody knows they had a brain account. They cultivated and concentrated their brains upon a great determination to do something so well worth while that they rose above the poverty, above fickle fortune into the indestructible wealth of the world.

WE WERE MISTAKEN.

Two weeks ago an editorial in these columns headed "Not Defunct Yet," gave the Heppner Commercial Club credit for still being alive with very good chances for functioning. We were mistaken. We should have said President Van Marter and a few of the members were alive. We took too much for granted when all present at the organization meeting pledged their loyal support.

President Van Marter called a meeting for Friday night, announcing the important matters which were to come up. Following the announcement he and Cal Sweek made up a batch of tickets for the luncheon to be held at the Elkhorn restaurant, and went forth to sell them, giving as their salesmanship spiel an outline of the matters to be discussed at the meeting. They were able to dispose of just one-half dozen. They therefore concluded that the members were not interested and called off the meeting.

Mr. Van Marter and Mr. Sweek told the members that chances were very favorable for getting the state interested in the Hartman-Spray road; that Mr. Van Marter had talked with two Grant county commissioners who had said that they had money to expend on their end of the Ritter road (one end of which has already been put in good condition after the expenditure of several thousand dollars) if a junket of Heppner business men would visit their territory and explain to the people there the advantages of the road and create a favorable sentiment; that a chance would be given the business men to talk over the matter there wanting to take in pulling over the Rodeo; that a small amount of money would open up the Monument road to people who wanted to come here to trade. These were the selling arguments put forth to get the members, who had formerly pledged their loyal support, to turn out to a meeting.

It now looks as though the club has succumbed to the chronic inertia which we stated two weeks ago it is subject to. If the things which Mr.

Sweek and Mr. Van Marter proposed to them would not interest them, we would like to know what on earth would. Can anyone suggest a tonic that will bring the Heppner Commercial Club back to life?

LIKES HOME NEWS.

Max F. Rogers, former Heppner boy, is now at Liberty Bond, Wash., where he is working for a lumber company. In a letter to this paper this week Max ordered the G.T. for a year, saying that he had a copy sent to him a while back and he devoured it and all. Max thinks advertising in a local newspaper is a very good criterion of the prosperity of the town. He likes to keep informed on home town happenings.
