

MOVING PICTURES.

By LUE F. VERNON.

Upon the broader stage of life
We see them day by day;
The patient mother and the wife—
The daughter far away.
How dreary is the little home,
The mother weeping there,
Now, that's a moving picture
We read of everywhere.

A son before the justice stern,
His sorrowing mother pleads,
While fondly dith her spirit yearns
To cover his misdeeds.
The tears fall from her aged eyes—
Her son is to prison led.
Ah, that's a moving picture
To fill the soul with dread.

A wife for her husband pleads,
Though he be worthless quite,
Who squanders money that she needs
To bring her home delight.
The justice bids him be a man—
For her sake sets him free.
Ah, that's a moving picture,
Alas, too oft we see.

A baby on the doorstep left,
The inhuman parents flee;
The aged man to poorhouse goes,
Forgotten by world is he.
The man who takes the orphans' all,
That he may have the more;

Behold these moving pictures
Before us everywhere.
The wealthy swindler and the tramp,
The poor, the proud, the weak;
The stalwart and the weak;
The couple parted by a word,
The man whose soul has flown—
All, all are moving pictures
On which the sun has shone.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

Whereas, it has pleased God, in His wisdom, to call from his earthly labor our highly esteemed brother, Cor D. Barnard, of Fossil, Oregon, and,

Whereas, Brother Barnard was a faithful member of this lodge for years, a consistent and upright Elk, it is fitting that we, members of Heppner Lodge No. 288, Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, make fraternal and merited acknowledgement and record of the high esteem and fraternal love in which we hold him.

Resolved, that while we humbly bow to the decree of the Exalted Ruler of the Universe we are filled with sorrow at the passing of our brother.

Brother Barnard was a true Elk and the virtues and principles for which the order stands were truly exemplified in his daily life than which no higher eulogy can be pronounced. To the widow and children and close relatives of our departed brother we extend sincerest sympathy and condolence.

Resolved, that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the records of this lodge, a copy be transmitted to the widow of the deceased and copies furnished the local press for publication.

IONE ITEMS

Kelley Devin left Wednesday for a short visit with his parents at their new home near Hood River before resuming his studies at O. A. C. Quite a number of Ione people are planning to drive to Pendleton Saturday morning to spend the day at the Round-Up and take in Happy Canyon in the evening.

Claud Huston, one of Eight Mile's prominent farmers and horse traders, was in Ione last Tuesday trying to engage some one to haul his wheat to market.

O. H. Colvin, formerly of Ione came in on Sunday evening's train to visit the home folks. He has spent the winter in Iowa with his daughter, Mrs. Birdie McNabb.

Mrs. J. T. Knappenberg was in Ione on Monday on her way to Portland from Monument where she attended the funeral of her step-father, Mr. Jenks.

Walt Smith returned from Portland Sunday with a new Durant car purchased through the Ione agent, H. J. Biddle.

Douglas Belts, aged 60, resident of Umatilla county for the past 46 years, died in Pendleton on Sept. 10, following an operation for appendicitis. His home was at Pilot Rock where he engaged in the sheep and cattle business on a large scale for years.

Dusting wheat seed for prevention of atting smut has been proved a success in two years of tests. This use of the dry copper carbonate instead of the usual formaldehyde and bluestone treatments will be featured in connection with the exhibits of the Oregon experiment station at the state fair.

Any girl in trouble may communicate with Ensign Lee of the Salvation Army at the White Shield Home, 555 Mayfair Ave., Portland, Oregon.

FOR SALE—Seed Wheat—Karko Turkey; field test 99.94 pure; delivered on ranch and dry treated if wanted; in lots from 1 sack to car load. F. E. MASON, Lexington, Ore.

A Way to Save Money

Use Zerolene—a better oil even if it does cost less.

Zerolene costs less than many other oils of inferior lubricating quality because of our excellent facilities for producing and distributing it in very large quantities to users on the Pacific Coast. We do not have to pay long-haul transportation and high merchandising costs to make it available. All that you pay for Zerolene goes to buy high quality only.

Zerolene will reduce your carbon troubles and give you more mileage from your gasoline. It will reduce your upkeep cost, add years to the life of your car and give you greater satisfaction in driving.

Insist on Zerolene—even if it does cost less.

WHAT EVERY SUCCESSFUL MAN KNOWS

The man who has worked for his accumulations; the man with responsibilities of success,—he knows the necessity and full value of established relations with a first class banking organization.

Financing any business to success, whether it be mercantile, industrial or agricultural, is a job which requires courage. But most important of all is to have an established credit and a friendly business relationship with bankers of proven ability; men of vision who know their own success can be only in proportion to yours.

No matter what your work may be—you are striving for success. Start today to establish your credit. This bank can assist you. Carnegie's great fortune started in a small saving account while he was delivering telegrams as a tiny lad in Pittsburgh.
