NOTICE TO TAX LEVYING BOARDS This, it is believed, would not only increase the government's revenue but would drive big fortunes ence they was so much on the table that but would drive big fortunes ence they was barely room for pa to put they made to constructive enterprise. The plan is inspired by the fact that large inheritances nowadays are usually found to consist mainly of untaxed hends.

It may be a good suggestion. At any rate, it is worth discussing, in view of the general dissatisfaction with a system which makes so many large fortunes virtually immune from hearing their share of public espense. Yet it serves once more to call attention to the inquiry, made often by reputable lawyers, as to why the gortanness the serves and a short cut home. We are at Paduces in the past three years.
