I'm a wise old bird,
Indeed I am,
And full of goodness
As can be:
If you doubt and think
That I don't know,
Just ask me—and
Ask me and see.

Butter Creek Valley News

Edited by Pine City High School

SCHOOL NEWS

Charley and Bartholmew registered in the Pine City school Monday of this week. Bartholmew is in the second intermediate room, and Charley is in the first intermediate room. They moved to this community from Sand Hollow and reside on the Lewis place.

Basketball suits have been ordered for the first and second basketball teams. The colors are black and orange for the first team.

Do not miss the Thanksgiving program and shadow basket social Wednesday, Nov. 28. Program begins at 8 o'clock. This is at the Pine City school house.

Miss Dorothy Howard of the intermediate room visited in Pandleton Saturday.

The general science class is preparing an aquarium. Sand and gravel are used to put on the bottom. The boys plan to catch fish and fresh water bugs. The girls will prepare the aquarium.

GENERAL NEWS

There has been a considerable amount of fog in the valley the past week. We have not had any frost lately. This makes the grass and wheat grow. Farmers claim that the wheat fields are better than they have been for several years. The fog ended in a drizzling rain Monday.

Mrs. Mary Bartholmew is visiting at the home of her son, Charles Bartholmew. She plans to go to western Oregon and spend her winter at Estacada.

Miss Myrtle McNeill, teacher of the Pleasant Point school is making arrangements to give piano lessons to students on Butter creek.

The Thompson school will give an entertainment this Friday at the school house.

A dance is announced to be held at the Butter creek hall Saturday, November 24. This is put on for the benefit of the baseball club.

Hardman News Items

Owing to the accident which occurred to Mr. McDonald last Friday the high school was unable to give their play which was scheduled for eight o'clock Friday evening. The plans were all completed when information was brought in the last minute that Hazel and Hubert McDonald would be unable to take their part in the play. The play has been postponed until next Thursday evening. The cast will go to Lexington the following evening, Friday, and give a performance there.

Although the people of Hardman were disappointed in not seeing the play last Friday evening, the public dance proved a success. There was

CECIL NEWS ITEMS

Peter Bauernfeld returned from Ritter springs on Sunday and has once more taken his place as Cecil's right hand man. Pete feels great benefit from his treatments at Ritter springs and since mud baths have been installed there he declares there is no place to compare with Ritter. All of Pete's friends are pleased to hear of his good health.

R. H. Haldock, state engineer, of La Grande, and E. Carter, resident engineer, were inspecting the work being done on the Cecil highway, on Wednesday. Work is expected to be finished from McNabb to four miles below Cecil in a day or two when the graders, tractors and trucks will move to Ione ready for work on that part of the road. We have heard that Bena Bros. have not leased any land from J. W. Osborn but that John Gray, from the Brady place near Morgan, has rented the Shady Dell ranch from J. W. Osborn and will live there for the future. Fred Pettyjohn of Morgan will run the Brady ranch for the winter.

Master Jackie Hynd and his pal, E. Swaggart of Heppner, were exploring all the four corners of Cecil vicinity during their vacation and singing (as they left on Monday for their studies in Heppner high school) "Oh! Cecil! Yes, we have no Cecil life in Heppner," etc, etc.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ballenger and daughter of Boardman were calling in Cecil vicinity on Saturday. E. H. has bought several hundred tons of hay from Minos & Krebs at the Last Camp and will have a haling crew here in a few days to bale the hay ready for shipment.

J. C. Keabay of Grass Valley and Ellsworth Swaggart of Heppner and Miss Violet Ledford of Strawberry ranch were the dinner guests of Miss Annie Hynd at Butterby Flats on Sunday evening.

Dr. Walker of Ione was called to Willow creek ranch on Friday to attend to Geo. Chandler who had the misfortune to have one of his shoulders hurt by an accident with one of his horses.

W. A. Thomas has returned to his ranch near Cecil and will try wheat farming again. W. A. has been spending a year or two in Ione, but has decided to again try living "down on the farm."

Mr. and Mrs. E. Hart and daughter, who have been residing at Poplar Grove, left on Tuesday for Irigoin, where Mr. Hart has been transferred to other work on the state highway.

Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Morrison of Rockville, accompanied Mrs. C. H. Crandall of Hermiton as far as Portland on Sunday on her way to California for the winter months.

W. Lowe and Geo. Wilson arrived at Butterby Flats on Saturday from Freeport ranch with a large band of sheep belonging to Hynd Bros., which will winter at Cecil.

Ford Four-Door Sedan

Fully equipped, $685, f. o. b. Detroit

Inside and out, the new Ford Four-door Sedan shows improvements of far more than usual importance.

It is lower and sturdier in appearance. New cowl, hood, radiator and apron add size and finish to the front. Sun visor, and wide, well-finished aluminum doors with bar handles perfect the design of the body.

Silk window curtains, deep broad-cloth upholstery; dome light, door lock, window regulators and handles, all finished in nickel, complete a refinement you would expect only at a far higher price.
