 May Christmas leave at ONCE more we hang up a new calendar. An old year dies and a new year is born. It is invoice time. It is time to measure profit and loss, failure and success. All check up accounts. What has been gained or lost in the material things of the world? Have we enriched or impoverished our spiritual resources? Whatsoever we have done with the closing year, is done. None of us can rewrite the story. But a new chance is given to all to make the story of the new year what they will. Begin the New Year by warming up to an idea or an ideal. Light the wick of enthusiasm. Go to it. Let our resolves be DO rather than don't. The fulfillment of resolutions will save remorse.

Christmas—New Year
 Here is ours to add to others;
 Let us say as matter of fact,
 Ours includes all the others, plus
 What'er they may have lacked.

CHRISTMAS—NEW YEAR
 A Christmas Day that is bright and clear,
 A world of joy for the coming year,
 No end of luck, no end of cheer;
 Our wish for you.

Christmas—New Year
 Among the other greetings
 These few words small appear
 But just enough to hold a wish
 For old-time Christmas cheer.

CHRISTMAS—NEW YEAR
 We'd like to find a fitting rhyme
 To send to you this Christmas-time,
 Yet rhyme or prose cannot express
 How much we wish you happiness.

MAY LUCK BE WITH YOU
 Here's to the New Year—may it hold for you prosperity tenfold; may it make up to you in worldly goods and health for any losses in the past; may it keep you at the top of the wave, and help us to merit your continued and appreciated patronage.
