Harley Sperry, who departed from Ione some two years ago, and since that time has been out of sight of the authorities who were wanting him, was taken in charge by Sheriff McDuffee at Portland last week and brought to Heppner. He had a hearing before Justice Cornett on Saturday and was held in the sum of $1000 to appear before the grand jury. He was later released from custody upon friends appearing from Ione and putting up his bond for him. Mr. Sperry, upon leaving Ione, was alleged to be short in his accounts with various persons, but he straightened up these matters in the main and will endeavor to make good to all of them.

D. E. Gillman returned home on Sunday evening from an 8-day trip into Grant county, where he was looking after business affairs. He comments that section quite highly for the many good roads they are now building, and states that great improvement has been made in this regard during the past year or so. As a result of this Mr. Gillman thinks there may occur a cutting up of the many large ranches and a consequent increase in the population of the county, a result much to be desired. He found business conditions much as they are here, cash money being a scarce article.

Sam Ganger, Wayne Sperry and George Ritchie of Ione were visitors here on Saturday. Mr. Ganger, who is running the Ione hotel, which he took over in October, states that he is enjoying a fine business in his line, and the former popularity of that hostelry is being rapidly restored under his management. Wayne has about recovered from the serious injuries he received in an automobile accident some two years ago. His right arm, which was badly broken and had to undergo different operations, is now getting to be quite useful and he feels that he is again a pretty good man.

Mat Halvorsen and F. B. Churchman of Ione were in Heppner on Monday. These gentlemen were interviewing the county court with reference to putting a ditch along the market road. Mr. Churchman is on the Ed Day place and Mr. Halvorsen also has land down on the creek and they are interested in putting in an irrigation ditch that will parallel the Rhea creek market road for some distance and they desire the permission of the county court to place their ditch on the right of way.

Mr. and Mrs. Egbert Young of Eight Mile were in the city on Saturday. They had just returned from Oregon City where they have spent more than a month at the home of the parents of Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Joel Barlow. They were called there by the serious illness of Mr. Barlow and were with him when he passed away on December 26th. Mrs. Barlow, who is also quite aged, is very sick but was somewhat improved when Mr. and Mrs. Young left Oregon City to return home.

Elsa Sutton and family of Springfield are spending a portion of the Christmas holidays visiting with relatives in Morrow county. They were at the home of Mr. Sutton's mother, Mrs. Frances Gordon for Christmas dinner, and are also visiting a part of the time with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hill at Lexington. Mrs. Sutton and Mrs. Hill being sisters. Mr. Sutton is in business in Springfield, and it has been six years since he last visited Heppner.

The marriage of Miss Edna E. Litten to Mr. John M. Jewell, both of Morgan, took place at the court house on Saturday, Judge Wm. T. Campbell officiating.

Fred Lunger and wife drove to Portland Sunday, accompanied as far as Hood River by the Misses Irene Devin and Opal Seely, who returned home with them Tuesday evening. The Lunger car had just passed the spot where a slain man was found a few minutes before the murder was committed, near Warrendale, which occurred Sunday.—Ione Independent.

Prof. E. H. Hedrick and Mrs. Hedrick were passengers out for Portland Tuesday, where Professor Hedrick goes as a delegate to the meeting of the State Teachers association held there this week. Other delegates from this county are Superintendent Lena S. Shurtle, of this city and Prof. Wallace Kellogg of Lexington.

Andrew Baird, father of Mrs. C. C. Patterson and Mrs. Osmie Hager of this city, arrived the past week from his home near Pittsburg, Pa., for a short visit with his daughters here. Mr. Baird's coming was a surprise as he had not let his people at Heppner know of his intentions of making them a visit at this time.

Lowell McMillan, of Lexington, formerly with the First National bank in this city, arrived home the latter part of the week from O. A. C., where he is a student. He was in Heppner Saturday and expects to remain at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. McMillan at Lexington for the holidays.

R. J. Carsner, who has represented Sherman, Gilliam and Wheeler counties in the lower house of the legislature for the last two terms, was in Fossil with Mrs. Carsner Monday from their ranch near Spray. Mr. Carsner will seek election this time to the Oregon senate.—Fossil Journal.

Miss Genevieve Phelps is visiting her parents, Judge and Mrs. G. W. Phelps. She is a student at University of Oregon. Miss Margaret Phelps who is instructor in public school music at Kelso, Washington, will be here for Christmas and New Year's also.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Johnson and Mrs. Ingard Skobo drove to Heppner one day last week. At this time Mrs. Skobo received her final citizenship papers. She was highly complimented by the judge upon her accurate answers to the questions propounded.—Boardman Mirror.

Roland Humphreys, a junior at U. of O., arrived home on Thursday last to spend his holiday vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Humphreys. The Misses Leta and Evelyn Humphreys, who are also students at the University, arrived home on Saturday.

Miss Johnnie F. Fleet, Miss Harriet Chambers, Miss Isabelle Steele, Miss Gloria Christ and Mr. Irving Mather, all teachers of the Heppner schools, departed on Friday afternoon for Portland, where they will spend the holiday season.

Mrs. E. R. Huston, who was called to Albany last week by the death of Dr. Davis, returned home on Saturday, being accompanied by her daughter, Miss Elizabeth, a freshman this year in the U. of O., who will be here for the holidays.

James Luper of Heppner Flat, departed on Saturday for Portland and Salem for a visit during the holidays with his daughter, Mrs. Leta King, residing in the former city and son, Rhea Luper, state engineer at Salem.

Herman Hill, who is a student this year at O. A. C., came up from Corvallis on Saturday and is spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hill at Lexington.

R. R. Finch returned Sunday afternoon from a trip to Portland. He left here Friday evening with a bunch of teachers, taking them to Portland in his car. The teachers will spend the holidays in the city.

Ora Matlock returned home Saturday from Seattle where he has been a student at the University of Washington for the first half of the college year. He does not expect to return to school for the coming term.

Mrs. Phil Cohn arrived from Portland on Thursday last and is spending the holidays in this city with her family. Mrs. Cohn is living in Portland this winter while Eleanor is attending school there.

Ellis Minor, of End of the Trail farm near Ione, was a visitor here on Saturday. He was accompanied home by his cousin, Stanley Minor, who is spending his vacation season on the farm.

Miss Elizabeth Phelps arrived home on Saturday and is spending the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Phelps, Miss Phelps is a student at University of Oregon.

Ray McDuffee, son of Sheriff and Mrs. Geo. McDuffee, arrived home on Thursday last from Corvallis to spend the holidays. He is a student at Oregon Agricultural college.

Relieved of Catarrh Due to La Grippe

Thanks To PE-RU-NA

Mrs. Laura Berberick, over 70 years of age, 1205 Willow Ave. Hoboken, N. J., writes: "A severe attack of La Grippe left me with a hoarseness and slime in the head and throat. I had chronic catarrh. It grew worse. I could not lie down or sleep at night. I was always bothered by the slime, pain in the back and a terrible headache every morning."

Finally I bought a bottle of Pe-ru-na which was of great benefit. It gave me blood and strength! I have no pains in head or back nor noises in the head. The slime has gone and I can sleep. My weight has increased. I am cheerful and happy, thanks to Pe-ru-na which I shall always keep in the house and recommend to my friends."

For every form of catarrh Pe-ru-na meets the need, Coughs, Colds, Nasal Catarrh, Indigestion, Bowel disorders are all forms of catarrh. Buy it any where in tablet or liquid form.

Another Year

Retrospective hours are here again. Men of families pause to weigh achievements of the past twelve months. It is good time wasted—unless costly experiences are converted into firm resolves to make the coming year a better one.

Responsibilities make men great. Do not despair at failures of the past. They are gone. The thing that now interests you most is "how to care for your family properly—and at old age find yourself independent of charity."

The answer is a simple one. Spend less than you earn—and save the difference. You'll be surprised how soon dollars pile up in a savings account. Then you can put dollars to work for you. They will earn your ease and comfort.
