"RING OUT THE OLD; RING IN THE NEW."

THE year of our Lord 1924 is at hand. With it comes new hopes, new desires, and new ambitions. Nineteen Twenty-Three is nearing its grave. With it, let us hope, will be buried many blasted hopes, lost desires, and ungalvanic ambitions.

A new order should be introduced by our people to take the place of the ones found faulty in the past. Let us look carefully over the order of the past year, and find what has caused our blasted hopes, lost desires and ungalvanic ambitions.

The World's Prayer

An International Song Dedicated to President Harding

Since life began World's history's been wrought With man's grim battles oft renewed and fought; Progress has taught the evil of our way, And peace is dawning with a newer day.

The force of might—not right—has often reeled, And all the world in armament been schooled; Please God, no more vast graveyards where we kneel, But join our hearts and hands for common weal.

Men's minds have vied for better ways to make Destructive forces for destruction's sake; From chaos and confusion there shall rise Enduring peace and everlasting ties.

Chorus: We pray for peace on earth, good will toward all; May love instead of hate our hearts enthral; We pray that every nation sees the right; That truth and justice rule in place of might; That armament forever cease its roars; And warring war may ne'er return again; Long may the world be bright With freedom's holy light, And sing Great God our King!

(Copyright, 1923, by E. Milton Clasen)

to these were heard: "The commission should be ousted. "We must have the things they took away." It seems to be a case where everyone is ready and willing to dance, but when it comes to paying the fiddler, that's different.—Hermiston Herald.

FRIDAY—Ma and pa never seldom agree on nothing. They was at a Party last nite and when they was talking about it this mornin' Ma remarks that a certain pest had the appearance of a Chesterfield and pa sed No he looked more like a Camel. Witch is all greek to me. As I don't know neither I of them.

Saturday—Fair and cooler. Well it diddnt rain and are happy family went to church in a body, ma was waiting for me when Sun. skool left out in case I mite forget about church as she jokingly remarked. The last song on the list was intitle Three that Beautiful Land on high witch was very appropriate pa sed. Enjoyed a good nap and I and pa kept ma busy nuggin us evry now and then.

Monday—I have been trying to figure out what I am going to be when I am grown up a little more. Pa advised me to lern a good trade like being a bricklayer or sum of those kind of things witch pays a dollar a hr, but I gess I drather be a Dr. because insted of getting payed by the hr they get payed by the few millets.

Tuesday—Played an innocent look on Jan today and I gess she diddnt like it. I slips her powder puff out of her pocket book and sprinkles sun pepper in it and just as we was going to recite arithmetick she gives her nose a dab and commenced to stin sneezing. She has treated me like I had the smul pux ever since.

Wednesday—Pa tuk us out in the fori for a spin on witch he has had a new Carbarator put on and he was slinging dust at the rate of 35 miles purr and he turns around smiling joyfully and ast us how did we like it and ma sed not much it was to much like as if you was a riding fast to yure own funerals. Witch is not the way it is being done in these day and ages.

Thursday—I have found a new way to make money by writing posties to put on greeting Cards & sell them. Sent in 1 today witch went like this—Sun travels East and sun travels West. But never the trains shall meet.

They are only 1 thing to keep in from being a Success. I mite not be able to sell them.

JACKSON SUNDOWN IS DEAD. Jackson Sundown, winner in 1916 of the championship of the world as a rider of bucking horses when he finished first in the competition at the Pendleton Round-Up, is dead. His demise occurred last week and funeral services were held December 20 at his home near Sweetwater, Ida.

Sundown, who was 30 years old when he won the championship here, has been acclaimed the greatest rider of his race, and the ride he made to win here has gone down in the annals of the Pendleton Round-Up as one of the classic performances of its kind in the history of the show.

Information of the death of the Indian rider was received here by Charles Bennett in a letter from his daughter, Josephine B. James. Charles Half Moon and Jones Williams, well known to Umatilla Indians, died last week, according to the letter.—East Oregonian.
