Former Heppner Man Marries Idaho Woman

The following news item from the Salmon Herald, of Salmon, Idaho, under date of January 6th, is of interest to many of our Heppner readers, as the bridegroom, Doc Matlock, was formerly a well-known resident here:

At the cozy home of Mrs. Jessie Daniels on Lena street Sunday afternoon, this estimable lady was united in marriage to Mr. Doc Matlock, also of Salmon. The ceremony was performed at four o'clock by Rev. C. A. Hawley of the Presbyterian church in the presence of a jolly group of friends of the contracting parties. After the vows were spoken and congratulations had been extended, the guests sat down to a sumptuous wedding dinner. The guests were Rev. and Mrs. Hawley, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Kadletz, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Brough, Mrs. Slater, Mrs. Ivin Jopling, Mrs. Evelyn Melvin, Mrs. B. M. Moore, Mrs. D. B. Thrasher, Dr. Hamner, Fred White, Jas. Taylor and E. G. Hettinger.

In the evening Allie White's orchestra called at the Matlock home and played a delightful concert; and later in the evening eight ladies of the Presbyterian church came and sang beneath the window of the newlyweds. These were invited in, and the vocal concert was prolonged in the house. All the musicians were treated abundantly with ice cream and cake. A host of children of the neighborhood called with their customary diabolical demonstration and these were not only served with candy, but a carte blanche was given by Mr. Matlock to admit them, one and all, at the Rex theater that evening; and so the kids had a good time as well as the adults.

"Both bride and groom are well and estimably known in this county and their friends everywhere are tendering their heartfelt congratulations and well wishes."

Heppner Girl Is Chosen U. of O. Varsity Debater

University of Oregon, Eugene, Jan. 30.—(Special).—Margaret Woodson of Heppner, sophomore at the University of Oregon, has been chosen a member of the women's varsity debate team and will serve as a member of the Oregon negative team which will meet the Willamette University affirmative team in Salem next month.

Miss Woodson made the varsity team in her freshman year and is considered to be one of the best women debaters in the University. The question to be debated by the women this year is "Resolved: That France should immediately evacuate the Ruhr district."

The contest in February will be the first debate of the year for the women. Another debate, a dual meet with the University of California, will be held some time in May. Miss Woodson will participate in both events.

Evening With Burns Is Pleasing Entertainment

A capacity audience greeted the "Evening With Burns" at the Methodist Community church on last Friday evening. The program was carried out as published, and each number was well received and greatly enjoyed, and those who were unfortunately enough not to be present on this occasion, missed a rare treat, if we are able to judge by reports handed us. It was "Scotch" throughout, and many of the numbers were given in a very talented manner. The entertainment was free, and following the rendition of the program, a free will offering was called for and about $30 was realized for the treasury of the Ladies' Aid, under whose auspices the program was given.
