Oregon Will Receive Federal Road Money

Oregon gets $126,686.00 and Washington $88,741.00 for cooperative road and trail projects this year, according to word from District Forester Geo. H. Cecil. Twenty-eight states in which National Forests are located wholly or in part, will share in the distribution during the current fiscal year of the $1,000,000 fund appropriated by Congress. This is an annual appropriation for the construction of roads and trails within the National Forests in cooperation with local authorities, according to advice recently received of the approval by the Chief of the Forest Service and the Secretary of Agriculture. Alaska and Porto Rico will also share in the distribution of this fund community known as the Section 8 fund. Last year 27 states shared in the federal money, Pennsylvania having been added to this year's list following the establishment of the Allegheny National Forest in that state. This particular fund is expended only under cooperative agreements with state and local authorities and should not be confused with other road-building funds expended upon roads and trails within the National Forests. It is entirely separate from the 25% fund which is turned directly over to the states to expend.

Clean Eggs, Good Stock Produce Healthy Chicks

New Extension Circular Gives Other Points on Right Way's of Getting Vigorous Hens.

Dark, clean nests in the breeding house will reduce the number of cracked and dirty eggs for hatching, reports H. E. Cosby, poultry extension specialist in a new extension service bulletin on hatching and feeding chicks. "Strong, fertile eggs are necessary in hatching strong, vigorous chicks," he says. "It should not be expected that strong, healthy chicks will be hatched from breeding stock which is underfed, overfat, of low vitality, or unhealthy, any more than it should be expected to hatch vigorous chicks from breeding stock that has been forced for high egg production." Free range is an important factor in producing hatching eggs, but if thru necessity the breeders are confined to a small area, it is imperative that they be given a variety of feeds and be compelled to exercise. It is desirable to gather the eggs for hatching purposes two or three times daily to prevent chilling. Eggs for hatching should be kept in a temperature between 50 and 60 degrees. Though stale eggs, frequently will hatch, it is not advisable to use for hatching eggs that are older than 10 days. The breeding pen should be mated about three weeks before eggs are to be incubated. During the first three or four days it is not necessary to turn eggs intended for hatching, but after that time they should be turned daily. Hatching eggs should be placed in a regular market egg-cage and the cage turned on a different side daily after the first week. Eggs that are purchased for hatching should rest 24 hours before being incubated.

SINNOTT FAVORS WHEAT MEASURE

Oregon Representative Says McNary-Haugen Bill of Great Benefit to Pacific Northwest. From Washington, D. C., comes the report that Representative Sinnott of Oregon, member of the republican legislative committee of the house, told the committee that the McNary-Haugen export corporation bill was the only hope of the wheat farmers of the Pacific Northwest. He said that the $50,000,000 live-stock loan bill, which has the endorsement of the president, is practically of no value in Oregon, Washington and Idaho because diversification is out of the question in those areas of low rain fall. Diversification, he said, was sound doctrine only in such wheat states as Minnesota and the Dakotas, where the rainfall is normal.

Arlington Bulletin Has Change in Ownership

The Arlington Bulletin has again changed hands, H. J. Simmons of Forest Grove, and the Herald, a daily at Baker, Mr. Corry is well experienced in the newspaper game, and no doubt under his management, which he has now assumed, the Bulletin will continue to be one of the best weeklies in the county. Mr. Simmons, publisher of the Forest Grove Journal, purchased the Arlington paper early last fall from its former owner, Mr. Lang, and placed J. M. Cummins, experienced newspaper man and writer at St. Helens, Ore., in charge. Mr. Cummins has made an excellent local paper of the Bulletin. He will continue in the newspaper field in Eastern Oregon, having purchased the Elgin Recorder, which he will take charge of immediately. Wanted—Man and wife to work on ranch; or woman for housework. Punchettes

By REV. M. A. MATTHEWS, D. D., L. L. D.

A REVIVAL IS COMING.

MEN must turn from the material madness of this hour. There is no salvation in the things of the world. The kingdoms of this world have utterly failed to feed the soul, comfort the heart, bind the bruised spirit, soothe the aching head, and give mankind an outlook of hope and salvation. Men must come back to God. They must appeal to Christ. They must listen to the Holy Spirit. Yes, they must be born again. Serious men are thinking these things. Sane, sane Christians are preparing for the coming revival. There will be no repentance after death. No one will have a chance to be saved after he has closed his eyes in death. Men are staying away from the church because they are afraid to listen to the gospel. That is a sign of a coming revival. Men are dodging ministers. That is a sign of the movement of the conscience. Evil men are hating and persecuting Christian ministers who believe in the blood of Christ. That is a sign of the approaching day of repentance. The rustle of the wings of the spirit of eternal hope and salvation can be heard. Ministers and churches should wake and begin to pray. The revival is coming.

FORMATION EXPORT LEAGUE COMPLETE

During its passage, He urged every farmer and business man present to write letters to our president and congressmen at Washington, claiming their support for the measure. He felt that there was much opposition to the bill in the east and that there would be strong lobbying against it, hence the extreme need of prompt and effective action from all the wheat states west of the Mississippi river. Wheat raising itself has not been a paying proposition in the last twenty years, according to Mr. Harrah, has not paid 2 per cent on the investment. If farmers have made anything it has been through the advance in price of wheat lands, and the end of this has been reached. Relief must come thru the enactment of some such measure as that now before congress. W. F. Mahoney of this city gave a short talk, presenting some well defined ideas as to why the measure should be supported, and promising all assistance in his power in putting over the local league and in support of any measure looking to getting action of the right sort in congress. The bill was also supported in a brief address by S. E. Notson of this city, and other present announced their support of the bill. A suggestion of Mr. Harrah was that the local papers publish the names of our delegation in congress so that all would know whom to address. These are President Calvin Coolidge, executive mansion, Washington, D. C.; Senator Robert N. Stanford, and Representative N. J. Sinnott, Washington, D. C. The meeting closed with some reports from committees, the Farm Bureau, and these will appear in this paper later.

CHURCH OF CHRIST.

It is the Church that keeps alive the sense of the greatness of God and the obligation of humanity; without these we would be stranded. Our church is helping in this. We have the Communion service at 11 o'clock, preceded by the Bible School at 9:45, and followed by the preaching service at 11. The theme of the morning sermon will be "The Dead Buried Their Dead." All of these services will help you. The Christian Endeavorers will hold their meeting at 6:30, and the evening preaching service will be at 7:30. The evening preaching theme is "Who, or What, is Really Abiding?" Why worship with us on next Lord's Day? You are invited.

C., where he expects to remain for an indefinite time in the interests of the McNary-Haugen bill that is now before congress. He will join several other men who are in Washington for the same purpose. If you ever eat chicken—you do, don't you?—then don't miss the dinner at Bethel Chapel Tuesday, six o'clock, and only 60 cents. Netted Gem potatoes for sale. See Jas. M.
