

Local Happenings

A number of Oddfellows from Heppner attended the Unadilla Mountain district convention of the order held in Pendleton on Saturday, among them being E. R. Huston, J. L. Yeager, Oscar Edwards and Adam Knoblock, representing Willow Lodge No. 66. The convention was attended by between 400 and 500 Oddfellows of the two counties and a big parade was staged on the streets of Pendleton Saturday afternoon. The next meeting of the district will be held at Lone. E. J. Bristol of that city was elected vice-president of the district association.

The neighbors of Woodcraft report that they are having some wonderful meetings of late—large attendance and initiations at nearly every session. Members not attending are missing something, we are informed by the reporter. We also understand that some men are getting into the order of late, which appears to be adding to the attractiveness of the meetings, and some of us old duffers whose wives belong, better be looking a "ledele out." The correspondent did not mention this, however.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Farnsworth of the Cottonwood country, near Monument, were calling on friends in Arlington the first of the week on their way over to Willow creek to visit a brother Karl Farnsworth, who has a large alfalfa ranch on Willow creek. The Farnsworths are old Morrow county boys, having been born and raised in Heppner.—Arlington Bulletin.

A leap year ball, given by the ladies of Heppner Lodge 358, R. F. O. Elks of this city, will be staged at Elks temple on tomorrow evening, Feb. 29. Any lady admitted that is accompanied by an Elk as escort. Good music has been secured; there will be good eats and a good time. Tickets $1.

T. W. Cutsforth, of Lexington, was here on Saturday and settled his account with the tax collector for the 1923 taxes. He is putting in full time on the ranch these days, driving a plow team, being well on the road to completion of the work. He farms at both Lexington and Morgan.

Mrs. J. J. Adkins and her son Albert, wife and daughter Bettie Marie of Heppner spent Sunday with Mrs. Laura Adkins. Mr. Adkins is in charge of the interests of the Tumbalum company at Heppner. He reports business good there last year.—Milton Eagle.

Mrs. Elsie Stevenson and son Lawrence drove up from The Dalles on Friday, spending the week-end in this city. Mrs. Stevenson was here to look after her residence property.

Attorney F. A. McMenamin was up from Portland on Saturday looking after legal matters in this city.

Stephen Doak, of Lexington, was a Saturday visitor in Heppner, coming to the city for a load of seed wheat. He reports grain in his section as coming along well, with farmers very busy in getting their plowing done.

Earl Warner, extensive wheat raiser of Lexington, was in the city on Saturday. He reports having finished 200 acres of plowing and will soon have the job finished, providing the present good spell of weather continues.

V. E. Way moved his household goods to Echo from Sand Hollow yesterday to ship by rail to their farm near Eugene. The Way family has been living in the Sand Hollow district since last fall.—Echo News.

Banker W. P. Mahoney was confined to his bed at home for several days this week, wrestling with an attack of flu. Mrs. Mahoney was also ill for several days. They are able to be up at this time.

Miss Reita Neel, daughter of Mrs. Robert Thompson, arrived from Yakima on Thursday last for a visit of a couple of weeks with the home folks. Miss Neel is bookkeeper in a large creamery at Yakima.

Corporal John Fisher, regular army recruiting officer, has been in the city this week from Pendleton, according to announcement published in last issue. He will return to Pendleton after today.

Cecil Warner, who a short time ago underwent an operation for appendicitis at a Walla Walla hospital, is reported to be sufficiently recovered that he may travel to his Lexington home this week.

Ed Engleman, farmer residing out southwest of Lone, was in this city on Saturday. He reports ideal weather conditions, but not quite as much moisture to date as needed.

Exactly what is meant by

PERFECT PROTECTION

- In the course of the average man's life, two or more of the following contingencies are sure to occur:
1. Accident
 2. Sickness
 3. Financial adversity
 4. Death
 5. Poverty in old age

Unless your insurance policy provides against all of these things, you are little better off than if you had no insurance at all.

A Perfect Protection Policy in West Coast Life provides protection against all of these—and does it in one policy. It is the best insurance value you can buy.

The Judge's Joke
SOME FOLKS DON'T LIKE CORRECTING HALF AS MUCH AS THEY LIKE THE ACT OF CORRECTING

Ben Buschke was in from his Rhea creek ranch yesterday. While it is very springlike out his way, the ground is yet too wet to do any plowing, and may be just until the middle of March. Ben is just a little suspicious that we may yet get some winter weather, but he has no desire to be put in the class of weather prophets. He remembers, however, that in the spring of 1906, on the 9th day of March, there was a very heavy snow fall and some quite severe weather. It killed off all the squirrels that spring, and as the pests were very numerous, the big storm proved to be a blessing in this respect.

Healthy baby chicks from my record laying strain of W. Leghorns and Barred Rocks; all awards; commercial class; eggs for hatching and stock for sale. Postal brings price list. R. Woolery, Capital Poultry Farm, Salem, Ore. 10t.

TWO RELIGIONS One Christian

TALK to me—and I will tell you your religion—maybe I will not call it by the name you use—but it will be one of the two—either Pessimism or Optimism.

It is yours—and you have made it yours. It is obvious that only the latter creed is the right creed.

Regardless of both these creeds have plenty of facts to support them here are a few thoughts which may help you. Pessimism is destructive. Optimism is constructive.

The creed of Pessimism is the belief that you will perish like a dog. It is despair and ends in friendlessness—grief and failure.

Opposite is the optimist who believes in life—in the divinity and incomprehensibility of immortal spirit. From it he enjoys the satisfactions of life and is a joy to others.

The only enemy man has is himself.

Conquer self—and make of yourself an optimist.

Not a blind believer in acquired friends and goods without effort—but instead an optimist through full realization that as you practice Christian living and Christian thinking there is nothing in this world to defeat you.

Without such spirit you may have life but you have no Christian religion.

THROWN FROM PLOW; INJURED. Harry Duval, Swaggart Butte farmer, was thrown from his gang plow on Friday afternoon, receiving a severe cut on one of his ears that nearly severed that member from his head. He was standing up on the gang when the plow struck a rock and pitched him off. The wheel struck the side of his head with the result as stated. Coming to town he was treated by Dr. Johnston, who stitched the ear in place and expects that Mr. Duval will experience no bad results from his experience.

Eastern Star Social Club Is Entertained

The Eastern Star social club members were delightfully entertained at Masonic hall on Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Pruyn, Mrs. Launz and Mrs. Shurtz, hostesses. The game of Travel was indulged in and caused a great delight and amusement, Mrs. Cason winning first score, while Mrs. Ward captured the prize for being the best guest among the guests. As an adjunct to the entertainment and a fitting climax a dainty lunch was served.

Those present were Mesdames Richardson, Pruyn, Shurtz, Launz, Wilson, Jones, Patterson, Her, Alken, Slocum, Bayless, Cleveland, Thompson, Ayers, Goodman, Hughes, Crawford, Penland, Ward, Sweek, Dix, McMurdock, Cason, Gemmill, Gilliam, Misseldine, Johnston and Lucas, Misses Harriett Case and Margaret Crawford.
