

Odd Fellows' Grand Lodge at Hood River

The coming meeting of the various branches of Odd Fellowship will be held at Hood River and word comes out from that city through the Pacific Odd Fellow that the various committees of Idlewild Lodge are rapidly whipping things into shape for the grand lodge sessions to be held May 19 to 22, inclusive. From communications received from the lodge throughout the state the 1924 grand lodge promises to draw a record attendance. Delegations will be present from lodges in all parts of the state, and it is anticipated that there will be an attendance in excess of 3000.

The Heppner branches of the order will be represented by the following: E. R. Huston and Albert Adkins, Willow Lodge No. 66; Ray McAlister, D. O. Edwards, Cascade Encampment No. 46; Alma Devin, Mrs. Lillian Turner and Mrs. Lulu Proppert, San Sui Rebekah lodge.

An outline of the program being prepared is as follows: The first day, Monday, May 19, will be devoted to work of the Department Council or Patriarch Militant and the Ladies' Auxiliary of this branch. A joint Auxiliary, followed by joint business sessions of these bodies, will be held in the evening. This will be followed by the conference of degrees.

Tuesday morning, May 20, a Grand Encampment business session and a Rebekah session will be held. These will be continued in the afternoon, to be followed by the conferring of the Declaration of Chivalry. A banquet for the past presidents of the Rebekah Assembly will occur Tuesday evening. A special session of the Grand Lodge will be held with a grand public reception at 8 p. m. This will include a short public entertainment, followed by a dance.

Wednesday morning, May 21, regular business sessions of the Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly will occur. At 2:30 p. m. a grand street parade, including all branches of the order, with visiting and local bands and various local organizations, will be held. The parade will form down town and march to the Heights. Fancy drill contests will be staged on Gibson field, the athletic grounds of the local high school. Teams representing various branches of the order from all parts of the state will compete for some 12 to 15 silver cups, which have been presented by different lodges and individuals. Wednesday evening a banquet to the Grand Master and Grand Patriarch and past Grand Masters and Grand Patriarchs will be held. Then will be staged the Subordinate Lodge First Degree contest, Woodland Lodge, No. 171, of Portland, competing with Burekas Lodge, No. 32, of Pendleton, for a silver cup. Work in the Rebekah Degree will be exemplified by Freewater Rebekah Lodge. A big Muscovite and Lady Muscovite street parade will be followed by the conferring of degrees in both branches.

Thursday, May 22, the delegates will be taken on a sightseeing motor tour of the Hood River valley, up over the Mount Hood Loop highway. The big motor caravan, which will be the largest ever staged here, will leave the city promptly at 7 a. m. Upon returning to town, both the Grand Lodge and Rebekah Assembly will convene for the regular closing business sessions.

HARDMAN NEWS NOTES.

The mothers of the Hardman school are going to give a community dinner on the High School grounds on Sunday, May 3. Everyone is invited to come and bring baskets. The committee is planning a full day of entertainment, consisting of horse-racing, foot racing, boxing, baseball, and other athletic contests. The queen of May will be crowned before noon and will sit in state at the community dinner. A large crowd is expected and a good time is promised to all that come.

The polls are now open at W. H. Ayers' store for voting for May queen. Anyone in the district is eligible to receive votes at a penny a vote. The polls have been open three days with the following totals at the last counting on Monday morning: Beth Bleakman 132, Lucy Williams 90, Hazel Hays 80, Hazel McDonald 25, Etha Robinson 20, Laura Williams 20, Zetta Bleakman 10, Lee Merrill 10, Ethel McDonald 10, Nellie Flynn 10. Nellie Flynn's name was entered later than the others, but it is rumored that Hood canyon will back her strongly. Lucy Williams and Beth Bleakman seem to be the most popular in the Hardman vicinity. The polls will close at 5 o'clock, Wednesday, April 24. The last two hours, from 5 o'clock to 8 o'clock will be devoted to secret voting, after which the final counting will be made. The person receiving the largest number of votes will be awarded as a prize a lavelier which is on display at Ayers' store.

The Hardman boys went down to defeat against the Condon boys in baseball on the Condon diamond last Saturday. The Hardman boys made the poorest showing of the season. Condon had everything their own way, and it seemed as though they were going to shut Hardman out entirely, until the last three innings, when Hardman succeeded in making five tallies. The game closed with the score 11 to 5 in favor of Condon. But the boys were game and stayed for the full nine innings, although Condon was in favor of giving them their bats for the last two innings without taking any themselves. The boys play Heppner here next Wednesday, and go to lone next Saturday.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our thanks and appreciation to our many friends for their kindness and sympathy; also for the beautiful figs, during the sickness and death of our beloved daughter, Gienna Mae, Mrs. and Mrs. E. L. Kirk, Mrs. N. B. Hayes, Mrs. Geo. E. Sperry, Mrs. and Mrs. H. G. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kirk, Anderson, Lola, Jim, and Inez Hayes.

CONFERENCE REPORT BULLETIN.

The report of the Oregon Agricultural Economic conference held at Corvallis, January 22-25, has been printed and copies of the bulletin can be obtained at the County Agent's office. This report is a condensed declaration of the findings and recommendations of the community groups as adopted by the general conference. Taken together, these statements constitute the foundations of an agricultural program. Singly, they indicate the most approved avenues of activity in diversified and specialized farming.

Leg Weakness of Chicks Due to Bad Management

Close Housing and Lack of Green Feed Usually Associated With Most Severe Outbreaks.

Leg weakness in chicks is a rather peculiar disease found most often in incubator hatched chicks at the age of 10 to 40 days. It frequently attacks chicks which have been apparently healthy and growing. When this disease appears in a brooder there are usually several cases at about the same time. Occasionally a very high percentage of the young chicks develop it within a few days.

The majority of outbreaks of leg weakness coming to the attention of the veterinary department of the Oregon Agricultural college seem to be associated with the method of management.

"Every severe outbreak we have observed has been in chicks that were closely housed and that were being fed a ration containing only a small amount of green feed," says Dr. B. T. Simms, professor of veterinary medicine.

"It is a significant fact that very few cases are ever seen in chicks hatched under hens and allowed to run with the old birds. In some outbreaks we have observed that this trouble appeared in only a part of a batch.

"Chicks which were out in the sunlight and which had a sufficient amount of green feed escaped the trouble, while it developed in the chicks kept in and fed very little green stuff. Treatment after symptoms are well developed is not very satisfactory. A change in the method of management will usually prevent development of more cases. Such a change consists in allowing the young chicks to run in the direct sunlight and to have a plentiful supply of tender green grass or clover."

JUST SMILES.

This Is Why
The rain, it raineth on the just
And also on the unjust fella.
But chiefly on the just, because
The unjust steals the just's umbrella.

Changed Disposition.
Mr. Repartee: "And so you are the lady who is giving my wife painting lessons. What sort of a pupil is she?"
Miss Daubner: "Well, sir, I find her very apt, to say the least."

The Kid Was Clever
Bix: "So you let your old book-keeper go. What was the trouble, couldn't he balance his accounts?"
Bart: "He could—and so well that he was beginning to juggle them."

His Radio Daughter
Daddy (just finishing a long talk and stern rebuke): "Now you quite understand what I say?"
Small daughter (very modern Miss): "What you broadcast it again, daddy? I haven't quite got your wavelength."

Please Don't Smile Here
I know that I would surely grin
And laugh away dull care,
If I could see a dentist in
Another dentist's chair.

A Serious Thought
Despondency is a fatal thing. A cheerful attitude wins in every case it is said. This explains a notice in a certain city man's office. "Remember the steam kettle—it is always up to its neck in hot water, but it still continues to sing."

Ye American Family
Gibb: "Does Grind take any interest in society?"
Gabb: "No, he supplies the cash and his wife takes the interest."

Cause and Effect
Gibb: "That umbrella of yours looks as though it had seen better days."
Gabb: "Well, it certainly has had its ups and downs."

Nellie Knew
"Mamma, I've got a stomach-ache," said six-year-old Nellie.
"That's because your stomach's empty. You'd feel better if you had something in it. You have been with-

Hoquiam's Palatial New Hotel To Be Opened April 30

For many years Hoquiam, Wash. has felt the need of adequate hotel accommodations and about a year ago this need crystallized into a community built hotel large enough and modern enough to fill the long felt vacuum. Under the direction of good leadership and the hearty cooperation of the citizens of the city, plans were made, a campaign waged, and the dream of the community hotel, modern in all its appointments to the last minute, has been realized. On April 30, from 8 a. m. to 5 p. m., this new, up-to-the-minute hotel will be formally opened to the public for inspection. In the evening there will be a reception and dance, to which the public is invited to attend without any charge whatsoever.

The new Hotel Emerson, a $500,000 building, is to be under the management of J. A. Harding, a hotel man of wide experience, who is also the lessee of the hotel. The hotel is furnished sumptuously, and will adequately take care of the stranger in Hoquiam's midst for years to come. The service of this modern and well-appointed hotel will be par excellence.

Heppner high school ball tossers had an extremely off day in their game with lone high lads on Tuesday afternoon at Gentry field, and stuffed the game off to their opponents by a score of 11 to 8. This is the first game of the season the local high school team has lost, and they certainly went a long way to the bad in this effort.

Decapitated by Train

Falling beneath the train wheels in an attempt to board a moving freight at Pendleton on Monday afternoon, Dan Shea, a cook who had worked at the McKay government camp for a few days, was killed near St. Anthony Hospital. His head was severed by the accident, states Tuesday's East Oregonian.

Facts obtainable indicate that Shea was attempting to board the train and was hampered by an overcoat he was wearing. He fell in such a way as to make his escape impossible. The accident happened shortly after 3 o'clock in the afternoon. He had no relatives residing in this part of the country.
