The streptococci have been studied serologically and are now classified into definite biological groups...

Swiss Cows Wrestles for Title

An annual wrestling tourney for cows is held at Martigny, Switzerland, which is attended by thousands of farmers from all sections. The cows wrestle until one trots off in defeat. The final winner is crowned queen and given choice grazing pasture for one year. Photo shows the final tussle for the title.

fever, a circulatory poison is present in the blood stream, analogous to the toxin present in diphtheria, and that this poison may be neutralized by substances present in the anti serum in a similar way to the neutralization of diphtheria toxin by diphtheria antitoxin. Since this toxic substance is not formed when the organism is grown artificially, it is presumed that the toxin is produced only by the growth of the streptococcus in living tissue, i. e., in the throats and adjacent tissues of scarlet fever patients and in the abscesses of the experimental animals. To determine the curative value of the serum, injections of 40 c. c. intramuscularly have been given scarlet fever cases. The cases were selected as being the most severe of hospital cases. In most of the cases the recovery was rapid and without complications.

From a public health standpoint the possibility of the development of a laboratory diagnosis presents itself as being of even greater benefit. In the control of the disease than the discovery of a curative serum. With the mild character of scarlet fever as it is now occurring in this country satisfactory isolation is almost impossible, because of the large number of cases that escape isolation. The "blanching" test, though apparently quite reliable in cases with a definite rash, obviously can be of no service in those cases in which the rash is very scant, transitory, or absent—in other words, in just those cases in which a test is most needed. Diagnosis by the taking of throat cultures on the other hand, if such a test and Guard Castle and the remaining lines will soon be in commission. Ukiah and Heppner and Parker's Mill were connected last week.

R. A. Culick went on duty this week and is assisting on telephone, road and trail maintenance. Due to the continued drought all improvement work in preparation for the fire season is being rushed.

Ranger Woods declares that the forest is now drier than he has ever seen it so early in the season and unless copious rains fall, anticipates a bad fire season. Already a number of fires have been reported from the Heppner district.

The permitted grazing season opened on the Five Mile Cattle range May 18 and due to the dryness of the range on the foothills the stockmen were anxious to move their cattle to the mountains. The first two days of the season over a thousand head of cattle were brought in.

Gurdane Forest Notes.

Construction work on the Sturdiant hill on the Ukiah to Ellis Ranger station road was begun Monday. Foreman Perry Simpson already has a crew of about ten men and is using caterpillar, teams and grader. The new grade will contain a maximum of eight per cent. This is a part of the road that is being built by the Umatilla Forest from Ukiah westward past Ellis Ranger station and connecting with the Heppner-Bitter road on Ditch creek, a total distance of 23 miles. It is planned to complete the road this summer. It will be a great convenience to travel between Ukiah and Heppner and between Ukiah and Gurdane. About fifty miles of the telephone lines of the Gurdane district have been maintained by Ranger Woods.

ZEROLENE succeeds EASTERN and lubricates better With the passing of the superstition that there is something mysteriously "better" about eastern oils, just because they cost more, Zerolene sales have increased seven-fold in the last seven years. The following extract from a recent letter written us by the Citizens' Transfer & Storage Company of Tucson, Arizona, has some bearing on the reasons for this increase: "Previous to using your Zerolene oils we experienced considerable trouble with eastern oils, which were much higher in price, and we found not suited to our use. We have used Zerolene oils and greases for the past five years. Our equipment (18 trucks and 2 passenger cars) is operated continuously throughout the year and the maintenance has been confined to keeping it supplied with the proper amount of oil and grease; bearings have required only reasonable adjustment after long intervals, and no replacements. We were well pleased with our recent quarterly check on the mechanical condition of our equipment, and knowing this condition to be maintained by the use of your oils and greases, we thought your company would be interested to know of our complete satisfaction."

ZEROLENE F for FORDS —the Standard Oil Company's new improved oil for Ford cars "Feds Those Oil-Starved Fords." We believe that Zerolene will improve the gasoline mileage, reduce carbon deposits, and lengthen the working life of every car in which it is used. Why pay tribute to a superstition? Insist on Zerolene even if it does cost less. STANDARD OIL COMPANY (CALIFORNIA) The Standard Oil Company's ZEROLENE For Motor Cars
