

BIG ENFORCEMENT MEET NEXT WEEK

Portland To Be Scene of Prohibition Assembly June 3 to 5.

Launching of a crusade that will continue until the prohibition statutes are thoroughly enforced in Oregon, Washington and Idaho, is the stated aim of the anti-saloon leagues of the three states which are sponsoring the Northwest Citizens' Law Enforcement Congress, to be held in Portland, on June 3 to 5.

The program, now virtually complete, embraces every phase of law enforcement, with William "Dussey-foot" Johnson, Governor Pat Neff of Texas, and other well-known speakers featured.

Not only will the dry officers' relation to bootlegging activities be discussed, but the responsibility of the individual, his parent, the church, the press and the prosecutors, is to be given a thorough airing, according to W. J. Herwitz, superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Saloon League, and other prohibition leaders engaged in framing the program.

Dr. Charles McCaughey, pastor of Centenary-Wesleyan Methodist Church, Portland, will discuss the individual's responsibility in law obedience and enforcement; Mayor George L. Baker is to deal with the parent's relationship; Dr. J. Ralph McGee, pastor of First Methodist Church, Seattle, will give his views on the church's responsibility; E. F. Irvine, editor of the Oregon Journal, will speak on "The Press and Law Enforcement."

An entire afternoon will be devoted to the question of the officer and law enforcement, with Thomas F. Reynolds, U. S. District Attorney for Western Washington, discussing it from the U. S. Attorney's standpoint. U. S. District Attorney John S. Cooke, of Oregon, will show the need for co-operation among law enforcement officers; George Neuner, Jr., former district attorney of Douglas County, and long active in special investigation work, is to give his conclusions, and State Senator B. L. Eddy, of Roseburg, is programmed for an address on "Co-Operation of Citizens With Officials in the Enforcement of the Law."

Since numbers of women's organizations will be represented in the one thousand or more delegates and an equal number of visitors expected at the convention, a special session has been allotted for discussion of the woman's part in a law enforcement crusade.

Well-known club women of the Northwest, including Mrs. J. F. Hill of Portland, vice-president of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers; Mrs. Mary M. Mallett, president of the Oregon W. C. T. U.; Miss Julia Spooner, vice-president of the Portland Federation of Women's Organizations, and Mrs. L. M. Vincent of Seattle, president of the Western Washington W. C. T. U., are listed as speakers, and Mrs. G. L. Buland, president of the Portland Federation, will preside at the session.

"Dussey-foot" Johnson has been booked for the principal address on the evening of June 4 at White Temple and Governor Pat Neff will give the concluding address at the same place the following evening. Governor Pierce, who has supported the congress since its first announcement, will preside at the closing session. He has agreed, also, to deliver the keynote address at 8 p. m., June 4, at White Temple, where all the sessions will be held.

E. A. Baker, president of the Anti-Saloon League of Oregon; U. E. Harmon, Tacoma, former corporation counsel; Dr. E. E. Earle Parker, pastor First Methodist Church, Portland; Dr. Walter Henry Nugent, pastor of the Central Presbyterian Church, Portland, will be other presiding officers during the congress.

Among other speakers will be Chief of Police L. V. Jenkins, Portland; George F. Cottrell, former Mayor of Seattle; Rev. E. A. Cooke, Vancouver, B. C.; Associate Justice O. P. Conroy, of the Oregon Supreme Court, and Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner, Portland.

Music throughout the convention will be provided by the Royal Rosarian and the Police quartettes of Portland.

Directors of the congress announce that they have obtained a reduction in railroad rates to Portland for the sessions. Sunday schools, churches, women's clubs, men's brotherhoods, and any other groups interested in "getting into action in the greatest campaign ever undertaken against these who persistently violate the

BIG TIME PROMISED FOR LEGION BUDDIES

Convention Is at Portland June 11-14 During Rose Show.

COME ON, BUDDIES! The Sixth Annual Convention of the American Legion, Department of Oregon, is going to smash all records not alone for pep, entertainment and attendance, but for real accomplishment.

Being your drum corps or marching club wear your official Legion Caps and for the love of Mike, snap out of it and write immediately to James R. Bain, Chairman of the 1924 Convention, 259 Washington St., and tell him if you are going to enter a drum corps in the competitive contest here and attach a list of names of the corps personnel. Jim Bain will have a list of this information in his hands "toot sweet."

John E. Quinn, National Commander of the American Legion, Mrs. Bishop, National President of the Auxiliary, have definitely said they will be here for the convention. Elaborate plans for their reception and entertainment are under way. Don't fail to be here for the opening day and help welcome these distinguished visitors.

It has been announced that the 40 and 5's will hold their annual business session and convention at the Labor Temple here at 6:30 o'clock on the evening of Friday, the 13th. Unlucky date only for the "goofs" who are to be initiated during the grand week which the Sunshine order of the Legion proposes to stage. At 6:30 o'clock that same Friday night, the Legion, with its drum corps and marchers will take part in the big fraternal parade to be a Rose Festival feature of that evening. Be ready to fall in.

GANG, the birds from posts all over Oregon are writing in every day to say they are coming to the convention 100 per cent. Many of the posts will have their drum corps all dolled up in snappy uniforms, palm beach suits and the like. Freddie Kiddie, State Commander of the Oregon American Legion and Sage of Island City, is to be crowned Knight of the Realm of Rosaria—whatever that is, though it does not permit us to say what he will be crowned. This ceremony alone is worth the trip to the convention.

Boat excursion trips down the harbor; receptions and luncheons for all Legion and Auxiliary delegates; dancing every night at the Festival Center with the American Legion in charge of the street dances; parades; fireworks display; water sports on the Willamette; band concerts; automobile sight-seeing trips and many other entertainment features have been worked out for your entertainment. You will be the loser if you stay away from the convention.

The Oaks and Council Crest are open for the season and have a wide variety of entertainment to offer visitors. This with the elaborate program for the Legion Convention and Rose Festival will make it worth while to be here for the festivities. Are you coming? We'll say you are! Registration: Headquarters Portland Post, 4th and Washington.

Conventions: Labor Temple, 4th and Jefferson.

Time: If you don't know by now, we are not going to tell.

Australian Trio to Appear Here Soo

Splendid Musical Organization on First Tour of This Country.

In Australia, where the public are great music lovers and critics do not spare aspirants to musical fame, Alan Murray, Edwyn Hames and Dolly Stewart are not only great favorites but heralded by the press as artists of exceptional ability, talent and performance. These musicians will come to Clatsop on the fifth day with programs that range from Dolly Stewart's dainty "songs at the piano" to the instrumental masterpieces played on Edwyn Hames' violin and the most stirring vocal classics sung by Alan Murray.

As a baritone, Mr. Murray has made a distinctive mark in the musical world and it will be a privilege to hear this young vocalist whom the Sydney Bulletin predicts "will soar to the giddy heights of fame." There is equally enthusiastic comment on the violin playing of Mr. Hames, while Dolly Stewart—in a class all to herself—is a popular idol with entertainment lovers.

County Farm Bureau Opposes Increase in Parcel Post Rates.

(Morrow County Farm Bureau News)
According to a letter received by the officers of the Farm Bureau from Gray Silver, the Washington representative of American Farm Bureau Federation, there is a serious possibility that Congress will take action raising the parcel post rates and rates of fourth class matter to three times the present rates. The County Farm Bureau has written the members of Congress from Oregon, urging them to oppose this increase in postage rates.

In the letter from Mr. Silver, he makes the following statement: "This proposal to increase the parcel rates on the things the farmer buys and sells undoubtedly has its origin in the determination on the part of somebody to increase the salaries of postal employees. It is generally admitted, however, that the postal employees, taking them by and large, receive as high wages or salaries as is paid in industry for similar positions. Of course, there are inequalities as in any large institution and these undoubtedly will be adjusted. The point which the farmers make, however, is: Why make them carry the entire burden by increasing the rates on parcel post and fourth class matter? Certainly it is a most inopportune move to do this, especially at a time when a million and a quarter farmers annually, for the last three years, have left their farms because they cannot make a living. With the purchasing power of farm products at 74 per cent of what they were in 1913 and with the purchasing power of all other classes about twice as much as the farmers' why should they be

I will on Saturday, the 28th day of June, 1924, at the hour of 10 o'clock in the forenoon of said day, at the front door of the County Court house of Morrow County, Oregon, in Heppner, Morrow County, Oregon, offer for sale and sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand the following described real property situated in Morrow County, Oregon, ordered sold by the court as aforesaid, to-wit:
